

Ambit announces Rahul Mody as Co-Head of Investment Banking

Mumbai, April 27, 2022: Ambit has announced the appointment of Rahul Mody as Co-Head, Ambit Investment Banking, effective April 2022.

Rahul joined Ambit in mid-2014 as Managing Director, Investment Banking at Ambit. In his current role, Rahul leads the Infrastructure vertical, comprising the Power, Energy, Transport and Telecom/Digital Infrastructure sectors, as well as the Real Estate vertical. He has over 25 years of experience in Investment Banking, with extensive relationships with companies and financial investors in India and globally. He has advised on several large M&A as well as equity and debt capital raising transactions.

Ashok Wadhwa, Group CEO, Ambit said, "We are delighted to announce that Rahul is our new Co-Head of Investment Banking and will work closely with Vikas Khattar, Co-Head of Investment Banking & Head-Equity Capital Markets & Financial Sponsors Group. Rahul's continued dedication, commitment and contributions have been invaluable to the growth of the business, and his rich experience in advising clients has had a profound effect on the team. We look forward to the ongoing impact he will make, as we grow".

Rahul Mody, Managing Director & Co-Head - Investment Banking, Ambit said, "I am honored to be appointed as Co-Head of Ambit Investment Banking and look forward to taking on this larger role. Over the years, we have built a strong business by helping our clients achieve their goals. We will continue to deliver value during this exciting time by seizing relevant opportunities that the market has to offer".

Rahul has also previously worked with renowned investment banks such as Greenhill, London where he was a Managing Director and Partner. He has also worked with Dresdner Kleinwort, in Mumbai and London, as well as at PricewaterhouseCoopers.
