BACKGROUND AND APPLICABILITY

Ambit Group's ('Ambit' or 'Ambit Group') Code of Conduct is in alignment with its values and commitments. The essence of this code is that each employee should conduct the Company's business in a way that upholds its values and commitments. This code expects every employee to conduct business with integrity, in compliance with applicable laws, and in a manner that excludes consideration of direct or indirect personal advantage / gains.

It is the responsibility of each individual at Ambit to ensure that all employees are made aware of these values, commitments, and procedures, and behave in accordance with the spirit as well as the letter of this code. Ambit recognizes that it is vital that the behaviour of its employees matches the high intentions and values. Hence, adherence to all the elements of this code and the accompanying principles and procedures is necessary.

The principles and procedures in this Code of Conduct apply to all material transactions, large or small, and describe the conduct expected of every Ambit employee.

The Ambit Code of Conduct is applicable to all employees including the Chief Executive Officers, Managing Directors and Directors of the Ambit Group i.e.:

- Ambit Holdings Private Limited
- Ambit Capital Private Limited
- Ambit Corporate Finance Private Limited
- Ambit Pragma Ventures Private Limited
- Ambit Finvest Private Limited
- Ambit Wealth Advisors Private Limited
- Nikko Investment Advisors India Private Limited
- Ambit Investment Advisors Private Limited
- Ambit Principal Investment Advisors LLP
- Ambit Investments
- Abacus Asset Reconstruction Private Limited
- Any other subsidiaries that may be added in the Ambit Group from time to time

Ambit Group is engaged in various financial services and capital market intermediary activities viz. merchant banking, stock broking, portfolio management services, depository participant, , etc. and is regulated by multiple regulators. These regulated activities are subjected to specific codes of conducts issued by SEBI, IRDA and RBI. In addition to the adherence with Ambit code of conduct, each Ambit entity and its employees shall also adopt and comply with the code of conduct issued by their relevant Regulators.

The Code of Conduct as prescribed by SEBI for merchant bankers, stock broker, portfolio manager, depository participant have been reproduced as Annexure 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 respectively.

AMBIT CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Ethical Conduct

Every employee of Ambit, which shall include the Managing Directors and CEO, shall deal on behalf of the Company with professionalism, honesty, integrity as well as high moral and ethical standards. Such conduct shall be fair and transparent and be perceived to be as such by third parties. Every employee shall be responsible for the implementation of and compliance with the Code in his/her professional environment. Any fraud, attempted fraud or failure to adhere to the Code could attract the most severe consequences including termination of employment.

2. Regulatory Compliance

Every employee of Ambit shall, in his/her business conduct, comply with all applicable laws and regulations, both in letter and in spirit, in all the territories in which he/she operates. If the ethical and professional standards set out in the applicable laws and regulations are below that of the Code then the standards of the Code shall prevail.

3. Concurrent Employment

An employee of a Ambit shall not, without the prior approval of the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the Company accept employment or a position of responsibility (such as a consultant or a director) with any other company, nor provide “free-lance” services to anyone. In the case of the CEO such prior approval must be obtained from the Board of Directors of the Company.

4. Conflict of Interest

Conflict of Interest will exist or arise when the private or business interests of an Employee will or may interfere with the business interests of Ambit or its clients or which may influence or appear to influence their judgement or quality or services

An employee of Ambit shall not engage in any business, relationship or activity which might detrimentally conflict with the interest of Ambit. A conflict of interest, actual or potential, may arise where, directly or indirectly:

- an employee of Ambit engages in a business, relationship or activity with anyone who is party to a transaction with Ambit
- an employee is in a position to derive a personal benefit or a benefit to any of his relatives by making or influencing decisions relating to any transaction, and
- an independent judgement of the Ambit’s best interest cannot be exercised. The main areas of such actual or potential conflicts of interest would include the following:
 - Financial interest of an employee of Ambit or his relatives including the holding of an investment in the subscribed share capital of any company or a share in any firm which is an actual or potential competitor, supplier, customer, distributor, joint venture or other alliance partner of Ambit. (The ownership of upto 1% of the

- subscribed share capital of a publicly held company shall not ordinarily constitute a financial interest for this purpose.)
- An employee of Ambit being in a position to influence a decision with regard to Ambit's business with a supplier or customer of which his relative is a principal officer or representative resulting in a benefit to him or his relative.
 - Acceptance of gifts, donations, hospitality and/or entertainment beyond the customary level from existing or potential suppliers, customers or other third parties which have business dealings with the Company.

Notwithstanding that such or other instances of conflict of interest exist due to any historical reasons, adequate and full disclosure by the interested employees should be made to the Ambit. It is also incumbent upon every employee to make a full disclosure of any interest which the employee or the employee's immediate family, which would include parents, spouse and children, may have in a company or firm which is a supplier, customer, distributor of or has other business dealings with Ambit. Every employee who is required to make a disclosure as mentioned above shall do so, in writing, to his immediate superior who shall forward the information along with his comments to the person designated for this purpose by the CEO. Upon a decision being taken in the matter, the employee concerned will be required to take necessary action as advised to resolve/avoid the conflict.

If an employee fails to make a disclosure as required therein and the management of its own accord becomes aware of an instance of conflict of interest that ought to have been disclosed by the employee, the management would take a serious view of the matter and consider suitable disciplinary action against the employee.

5. Securities Transactions and Confidential Information

An employee of Ambit and his immediate family shall not derive any benefit or assist others to derive any benefit from the access to and possession of information about the client Ambit is serving which is not in the public domain and thus constitutes insider information. All Ambit employees shall adhere to the detailed Ambit Prevention of Insider Dealing Policy.

6. Anti-Money Laundering Controls

Money Laundering is the participation in any process or transaction that seeks to conceal or disguise the nature or origin of funds derived from illegal activities thereby avoiding prosecution, conviction and confiscation of criminal funds and projecting it as untainted property.

Every Ambit employee must pay particular attention to transactions which do not make economic sense or which may be designed to layer or disguise the ultimate source or destination of funds or to transactions involving countries where drug trafficking, corruption, bribery or terrorism are prevalent.

Every Ambit employee shall fully comply with Ambit policy and procedures on Prevention of Money Laundering. Every suspicious transaction shall be reported to the designated Money Laundering Officer.

7. Confidentiality

Every Ambit employee must respect and preserve the confidentiality of information received in the course of their jobs. Confidentiality is essential to maintain the trust and confidence of AMBIT's clients, to protect sensitive information on the Companies own activities and to comply with the local laws and regulations. Confidential information may only be used for business purpose for which it was provided and by employees who "need to know" in order to perform their duties. It may not be used by any employee for personal profit or gain.

8. Protecting Company Assets

The assets of Ambit should not be misused but employed for the purpose of conducting the business for which they are duly authorised. These include tangible assets such as equipment and machinery, systems, facilities, materials, resources as well as intangible assets such as proprietary information, relationships with customers and suppliers, etc.

9. Citizenship

An employee of Ambit shall in his private life be free to pursue an active role in civic or political affairs as long as it does not adversely affect the business or interests of Ambit.

10. Integrity of data furnished

Every employee of Ambit shall ensure at all times the integrity of data or information furnished by him to the Company.

11. Accepting gifts, meals and entertainment from client and others doing business with Ambit

Every employee of Ambit may never solicit for himself/herself or for anyone else (other than the Company) anything of value from anyone in return for any business , service or confidential information of Ambit or accept anything of value , directly or indirectly (other than bonafide salary, wages, awards, and fees paid by or to the Company), from anyone in connection with the business of Ambit, either before or after a transaction is discussed or consummated.

A gift may take any forms. It includes items or favours of value for which employees are not required to pay the retail or usual and customary cost. A gift may include meals or refreshment, goods, services, tickets to entertainment or sporting events or the use of a residence vacation home or other accommodations etc.

Acceptance of gifts of any kind (including entertainment and hospitality) from persons that do business with Ambit is generally discouraged.

12. Sexual Harassment

Ambit demands, demonstrates and promotes professional behaviour and respectful treatment of all employees. Sexual harassment includes unwelcome sexually determined behaviour such as: unwelcome physical contact; a demand or request for sexual favours; sexually coloured remarks; showing pornography and any other unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct of a sexual nature.

Ambit maintains an open door for reportees; encourages employees to report any harassment concerns and is responsive to employee complaints about harassment or other unwelcome and offensive conduct. Sexual harassment incidents may be reported to the Managing Director/Head Human Resources.

The Management will take immediate and appropriate action to prevent and to correct behaviour that violates this policy. Such conduct will be subject to disciplinary action and could include termination of employment. Detailed policy against sexual harassment can be found on Ambit Online.

13. Reporting concerns

Every employee of Ambit shall promptly report to the Management on any actual or possible violation of the Code or an event no sooner than he/she becomes aware, which could affect the business or reputation of Ambit.

If you wish to report any such concern or need any clarification regarding the code of conduct, please write to the COO or Head- Human Resources or Head- Compliance.
