INTERNAL RISK FACTORS

1. The continuing impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on our business and operations is uncertain and it may be significant and continue to have an adverse effect on our business, operations and our future financial performance.

While there has been no material impact of COVID-19 pandemic on the Company’s financial condition including liquidity, profitability, capacity utilization, existing contracts and arrangements or trade receivables in previous and in the current Fiscal, we are not in a position to assure that it will continue to be so in the future.

The impact of the pandemic on our business, operations and future financial performance may include, but are not limited to the following:

- result in a complete or partial closure of, or disruptions or restrictions on our ability to conduct our manufacturing operations and research and development activities, resulting from government actions such as imposition of partial or complete lock-down;

- our inability to source key raw materials as a result of the temporary or permanent closure of the facilities of suppliers of our key raw materials;
- a significant percentage of our workforce being unable to work, including because of travel or government restrictions in connection with COVID-19, including stay at home order, which could result in a slowdown in our operations;
- our proposed products becoming delayed or postponed indefinitely;
- impact our ability to travel, pursue business transactions and delay shipments of our products;
- delays in fulfilment of existing orders or delivery of orders, which will negatively impact our cash conversion cycle and ability to convert our backlog into cash;
- inability to collect full or partial payments from customers due to deterioration in customer liquidity, including customer bankruptcies or payments to suppliers due to delay in collections or liquidity issue;
- our inability to access debt and equity capital on acceptable terms, or at all;
- impact our compliance with the covenants in our credit facilities and other financing agreements and could result in events of default and the acceleration of indebtedness;
- uncertainty as to what conditions must be satisfied before government authorities completely lift lockdown orders; and
- the potential negative impact on the health of our employees, particularly if a significant number of them are afflicted by COVID-19, which could result in a deterioration in our ability to ensure business continuity.

Any resulting financial impact due to the above cannot be reasonably estimated at this time. The extent to which the COVID-19 impacts our business and results will depend on future developments, which are highly uncertain and cannot be predicted, such as new information which may emerge concerning the severity of the coronavirus and the actions taken globally to contain the coronavirus or treat its impact, among others. In addition, we cannot predict the impact that the COVID-19 pandemic will have on our customers, suppliers and other business partners, and each of their financial conditions; however, any material effect on these parties could adversely impact us. As a result of these uncertainties, the impact may vary significantly from that estimated by our management from time to time, and any action to contain or mitigate such impact, whether government-mandated or opted by us, may not have the anticipated effect or may fail to achieve its intended purpose altogether.

As of the date of this Prospectus, there is significant uncertainty relating to the severity of long-term adverse impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the global economy, global financial markets and the Indian economy, and we are unable to accurately predict the long-term impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on our business. To the extent that the COVID-19 pandemic adversely affects our business and operations.

2. We are subject to strict quality requirements, regular inspections and audits, and the success and wide acceptability of our products is largely dependent upon our quality controls and standards. Any manufacturing or quality control problems may subject us to regulatory action, damage our reputation and have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

The Company operates in an industry which is heavily regulated, viz. its own operations as well as the jurisdictions in which the customers of the Company operate. In addition to complying with the Indian regulations in relation to our manufacturing facilities at Surat, Jhagadia and Ankleshwar (“Manufacturing Facilities”) and our R&D centre at Surat, we are also required to comply with various regulations and quality standards. Since we supply our products to customers having global markets, our Manufacturing Facilities and products may be subjected to audit and inspection by Indian and overseas regulatory agencies (including US-FDA) and if we are not in compliance with any of their requirements, our facilities and products may be the subject of a warning letter or sanctions or any other action from regulatory authorities, which could result in the withholding of product approval and the shut-down of our facilities.

Historically, we have received FDA-483 letters (Notice of Inspectional Observations) from the USFDA on August 12, 2016, and March 13, 2020, respectively and in both instances, our Company has made the requisite replies and has subsequently received the relevant establishment inspection reports (EIR) on October 11, 2018, and April 22, 2020, respectively.

Although, the aforesaid inspections were closed, there can be no assurance that we shall not receive any warning letters at any of our facilities in the future or may be subject to investigations from the US-FDA or any other domestic or international regulator(s). Such developments, in case of any recurrence, could adversely affect the demand for our products, including the regulatory review of products that are already marketed, new scientific information or the recall or loss of approval of products that we supply, manufacture, market or sell. We face the risk of loss resulting from, and the adverse publicity associated with, manufacturing or quality control problems, including at the stage of manufacturing of final dosage form. Such adverse publicity harms the brand image of our products. Further, our customers to whom we supply our intermediates must comply with the regulations and standards of the US-FDA and/or other regulatory authorities, as may be applicable. Failure to comply with these regulatory requirements, or the receipt by these customers of warning or deficiency letters from regulators could adversely affect the demand for our products. While there have been no instances of such lawsuits involving the customers, which may have led to loss for our Company, we cannot assure you that such instances will not occur in the future.

We may also be subject to claims resulting from manufacturing defects or negligence in storage and handling of our products. In certain foreign jurisdictions, the quantum of damages, especially punitive, awarded in cases of product liability can be high. While there have been no instances of having required to pay any damages, which may have led to loss for our Company, we cannot assure you that such instances will not occur in the future. The existence, or threat of a major product liability claim could damage our reputation and affect customers' views of our products. Product liability claims, regardless of their merits or the ultimate success of the defense against them, are costly. Any loss of our reputation or brand image may lead to a loss of existing business contracts and affect our ability to enter into additional business contracts in the future, which may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

3. We are subject to increasingly stringent environmental, health and safety ("EHS") laws, regulations and standards. Non-compliance with and adverse changes in health, safety, labour, and environmental laws and other similar regulations applicable to our manufacturing operations may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our Manufacturing Facilities are subject to numerous laws and regulations designed to protect the environment, and we expect that additional requirements with respect to environmental matters will be imposed in the future. Our operations generate pollutants and waste, some of which may be hazardous and flammable. We are therefore subject to a wide range of laws and government regulations, including in relation to safety, health, labour, and environmental protection. These safety, health, labour, and environmental protection laws and regulations impose controls on air and water release or discharge, noise levels, storage handling, the management, use, generation, treatment, processing, handling, storage, transport or disposal of hazardous materials, including the management of certain hazardous waste, and exposure to hazardous substances with respect to our employees, along with other aspects of our manufacturing operations. For instance, there is a limit on the amount of pollutant discharge that our Manufacturing Facilities may release into the air and water. Environmental laws and regulations in India have become and continue to be more stringent, and the scope and extent of new environmental regulations, including their effect on our operations, cannot be predicted with any certainty. In case of any change in environmental or pollution regulations, we may be required to invest in, among other things, environmental monitoring, pollution control equipment, and emissions management and other expenditure to comply with environmental standards. Any failure on our part to comply with any existing or future regulations applicable to us may result in legal proceedings, including public interest litigation, being commenced against us, third party claims or the levy of regulatory fines. Further, any violation of the environmental laws and regulations may result in fines, criminal sanctions, revocation of operating permits, or shutdown of our Manufacturing Facilities. While there have been no violations in the past, there can be no assurance that any violation may not occur in the future which could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our endeavour has been to continue our business in a sustainable manner, towards which, we have incurred significant capital expenditure in installing the latest machinery and equipment to control the discharge of effluents including: (i) a Zero Liquid Discharge based effluent plant spread in 700 square metres; (ii) a soil biological treatment system ("SBT System") based on bioconversion process adopted by our Company; and (iii) an RO plant with a pre-treatment section consisting of pressure sand filter, activated carbon filter and micron filters followed by chemical dosing system such as Antiscalant, SMBS and HCl.

As a consequence of unanticipated regulatory or other developments, future environmental and regulatory related expenditures may vary substantially from those currently anticipated. We cannot assure you that our costs of complying with current and future environmental laws and other regulations will not adversely affect our business, results of operations or financial condition. While there have been no violations under the environmental laws by the Company in the past three years, we could incur substantial costs, our products could be restricted from entering certain markets, and we could face other sanctions, if we were to violate or become liable under environmental laws or if our products become non-compliant with applicable regulations in the future. Our potential exposure includes fines and civil or criminal sanctions, third-party property damage or personal injury claims and clean-up costs. The amount and timing of costs under environmental laws are difficult to predict.

We are also subject to the laws and regulations governing employees in such areas as minimum wage and maximum working hours, overtime, working conditions, hiring and termination of employees, contract labour and work permits. There is a risk that we may fail to comply with such regulations, which could lead to enforced shutdowns and other sanctions imposed by the relevant authorities, as well as the withholding or delay in receipt of regulatory approvals for our new products. We cannot assure you that we will not be involved in future litigation or other proceedings, or be held liable in any litigation or proceedings including in relation to safety, health and environmental matters, the costs of which may be significant. In addition, some of the agreements entered into by us are not stamped and registered or inadequately stamped, resulting in making them inadmissible as evidence in legal proceedings along with penalties being payable by us for enforceability of such agreements in a court of law. Any potential dispute and our non-compliance of local laws relating to stamp duty and registration may adversely impact the continuance of our activity from such premises.

Material future expenditures may be necessary if compliance standards change, if material unknown conditions that require remediation are discovered or if required remediation of known conditions becomes more extensive than expected. If we fail to comply with present and future environmental laws and regulations, we could be subject to future liabilities or the suspension of production, which could harm our business or results of operations. Environmental laws could also restrict our ability to expand our facilities or could require us to acquire costly equipment or to incur other significant expenses in connection with our manufacturing processes. For details regarding the key Indian laws applicable to our Company, see “Key Regulations and Policies in India” beginning on page 173.

4. We derive a significant portion of our revenue from the sale of products in certain therapeutic areas and any reduction in demand for these products, or if such products become obsolete due to a breakthrough in the development of alternate drugs, could have an adverse effect on our business.

We derive a significant portion of our revenue from the sale of pharmaceutical intermediates used in active pharmaceutical ingredients (“API”), which primarily comprises the sale of products in the therapeutic areas of anti-psychotic, anti-retroviral, anti-cancer, anti-depressant, anti-Parkinson’s, anti-inflammatory and anti-coagulant. For Fiscal 2021, our revenue from our pharmaceutical intermediates used in therapeutic areas of anti-depressant, anti-retroviral and anti-coagulant was ₹953.26 million, ₹727.38 million and ₹229.94 million comprising of 27.99%, 21.36% and 6.75%, respectively and for Fiscal 2020 was ₹418.07 million, ₹600.34 million and ₹172.66 million comprising of 17.45%, 25.05% and 7.21% and for Fiscal 2019 was ₹633.62 million, ₹460.42 million and ₹116.42 million comprising of 26.57%, 19.30% and 4.88% of our revenue from operations, respectively. The API market is characterised by rapid innovative changes. Consequently, any reduction in demand or a temporary or permanent discontinuation of manufacturing of products in these therapeutic areas on account of breakthrough in the development or invention of alternate drugs or formulations, may expose us to the risk of our products being obsolete or being substituted to greater extent, by these alternatives, and any failure on our part to effectively address such situations or to successfully introduce new products in these therapeutic areas could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. In addition, a slowdown in demand for our existing products ahead of a new product introduction could result in a write down in the value of inventory on hand related to existing products. We have in the past experienced a slowdown in the demand for our products and delays in new product development and such slowdowns and delays may occur in the future. Resultantly, if our customers, defer or cancel orders for our existing products due to introduction of alternative drugs, which are much more suitable and preferred as a treatment options, our operating results would be adversely affected.

5. Our inability to meet our obligations, including financial and other covenants under our debt financing arrangements could adversely affect our business, results of operations and cash flows.

We have incurred significant indebtedness of ₹ 1,463.98 million as of June 30, 2021. The secured borrowings of our Company as at 31 March 2021, 31 March 2020 and 31 March 2019 were ₹ 1,278.15 million, ₹ 521.05 million and ₹ 434.04 million, respectively and the unsecured borrowings of our Company as at 31 March 2021, 31 March 2020 and 31 March 2019 were ₹ 88.21 million, ₹ 73.14 million and ₹ 105.00 million, respectively.

Further, the details of borrowings undertaken by our Company along with the percentage of such borrowings in terms of the net worth of our Company for the Fiscals 2021, 2020 and 2019 are as set forth below:

(in ₹ million, except % values)

Particulars	As at 31 March 2021	As at 31 March 2020	As at 31 March 2019
Long term borrowings	726.44	199.01	221.00
Short term borrowings	445.31	339.24	261.45
Current maturities of long-term debts	194.60	55.95	56.60
Total borrowing	1,366.36	594.19	539.04
Net Worth	1,669.33	1,118.14	822.20
Borrowing as % of net worth	81.85	53.14	65.56

Our ability to meet our debt service obligations and repay our outstanding borrowings will depend primarily on the cash generated by our business. Further, our financing agreements contain certain restrictive covenants that limit our ability to undertake certain types of transactions, any of which could adversely affect our business and financial condition. We are required to obtain prior approval from our lenders inter alia to:

- create or permit to subsist any encumbrance, mortgage or charge over all or any of its secured assets;
- deal with or dispose of or create any third-party rights in any of its secured assets;
- enter into any contractual obligations of a long-term nature which would affect its financial position to a significant extent;
- effect any changes in its capital structure including but not limited to merger, amalgamation, reconstruction or consolidation;
- formulate any scheme of amalgamation with any other borrower or reconstruction or acquire any other borrower; and
- effect any material change in the management/ ownership of the borrower.

In the event we breach any financial or other covenants contained in any of our financing arrangements, we may be required to immediately repay our borrowings either in whole or in part, together with any related costs. Our failure to meet our obligations under the debt financing agreements, including our repayment obligations under the financing arrangements could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. For details in connection with our indebtedness and details pertaining to secured and unsecured borrowings, please see “Financial Indebtedness” and “Restated Consolidated Financial Statements” on page 302 and 214 of this Prospectus, respectively. For details in connection with our indebtedness, please see “Financial Indebtedness” on page 302 of this Prospectus.

6. We have in the past entered into related party transactions and may continue to do so in the future, which may potentially involve conflicts of interest with the equity shareholders.

We have entered into transactions with related parties in the past and from, time to time, we may enter into related party transactions in the future. For further information relating to our related party transactions, see “Restated Consolidated Financial Statements – Related Party Transactions” on page 263. While we believe that all such transactions have been conducted on an arm’s length basis, we cannot assure you that we might have obtained more favourable terms had such transactions been entered into with unrelated parties. Further, it is likely that we may enter into additional related party transactions in the future. Such related party transactions may potentially involve conflicts of interest.

Details of related party transactions entered into by us during Fiscals 2021, 2020 and 2019, are as follows:

7. We have entered into an agreement to acquire certain land from our Promoter Shital Nareshbhai Patel and Promoter and Executive Director, Chetankumar Chhaganlal Vaghasia is interested.

Our Company has entered into an agreement to sale dated November 28, 2020 (“Sale Agreement”) with Chetankumar Chhaganlal Vaghasia, and Shital Nareshbhai Patel for purchase of land situated at Block No, 97, Surat District, Sub-District Surat, Village Kosmandi, Tal. Kamrej, upon satisfaction of certain conditions precedent as specified in the Sale Agreement. The total consideration for which the land is agreed to be purchased is ₹ 130.50 million. For further details, see “Our Management – Interest of Directors – Interest in Land and Property” on page 191.

Our Company entered into an agreement of leasehold rights transfer dated September 12, 2018 (“Lease Rights Agreement”) with Shivay Enterprises Limited, a firm in which our Directors, Nareshkumar Ramjibhai Patel and Chetankumar Chhaganlal Vaghasia were partners, for the acquisition of leasehold rights over land and building situated at Shed No. C1/469, GIDC, Sachin, Surat admeasuring 703 square meters. A total consideration of ₹3.00 million paid by our Company pursuant to the Lease Rights Agreement. Our Directors have disassociated from Shivay Enterprises on account of its dissolution on February 20, 2020. The aforementioned acquisitions were made at market rate. For details, please see the section titled “Our Promoters and Promoter Group – Companies or Firms with which our Promoters have disassociated in the last three years” on page 207.

8. Our operations are dependent on continuous R&D to develop and commercialise new products and our inability to identify and understand evolving industry trends, technological advancements, customer preferences and develop new products to meet our customers’ demands may adversely affect our business.

Our success depends significantly on our ability to commercialize our new products. In order to remain competitive, we must develop, test and manufacture new products, which must meet regulatory standards and receive requisite regulatory approvals. To accomplish this, we commit substantial effort, funds and other resources towards our R&D activities and we have set-up dedicated R&D laboratory in Surat, Gujarat, which is also supported by our Analytical Development Laboratory (“ADL”) in relation to developmental activities, freezing specifications and developing the method of analysis for finished products, in process intermediates, Key Starting Materials (“KSMs”) and raw materials. We incurred R&D expenditure of ₹ 64.99 million, ₹85.94 million and ₹23.63 million respectively, which accounted for 2.40%, 4.14% and 1.16% of the total expenditure in the Financial Years 2021, 2020 and 2019, respectively.

There is often a lengthy period between commencing these development initiatives and bringing new or improved products in the market. Delay in any part of the process, our inability to obtain necessary regulatory approvals for our products or the failure of a product to be successful at any stage and therefore not reaching the market could adversely affect our business, our results of operations and our cash flows. We may or may not be able to take our R&D innovations through the different testing stages without repeating our R&D efforts or incurring additional amounts towards such research. Additionally, our competitors may commercialize similar products before us. The occurrence of any such event could affect the success of our R&D activities, which in turn could have an adverse effect on our business, growth, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. Further, there is no guarantee that our new products or enhancements to existing products will achieve market acceptance. In addition, any changes due to technological advances and scientific discoveries may increase our R&D expenses, as these changes result in frequent introduction of new products and significant price competition. There is a significant possibility, that some of our product development decisions, including, significant research and development costs, or investments in technologies, will not meet our expectations and our investment in some projects will be unprofitable. Also, our ongoing investments in new products launches and R&D for future products could result in higher costs without proportionate increase in our revenues.

While there is no direct exposure on our Company for slowdown in the demand for its products due to new product development, our Company is indirectly affected if a particular API or a final end product is discontinued. Our industry is continuously changing due to technological advances and scientific discoveries. In case our current technologies become obsolete, and we are unable to effectively introduce new products, our business and results of operations could be adversely affected. Although we strive to keep our technology, facilities and machinery current with the latest international standards, the technologies, facilities and machinery we currently employ may become obsolete and we may not have the resources to adequately invest in R&D. The cost of implementing new technologies and upgrading our Manufacturing Facilities as well as R&D could be significant and could adversely affect our business. Changes in market demand may also cause us to discontinue existing or planned development for new products and if we fail to make the right investments or fail to make them at the right time, our business, reputation and financial conditions could be materially and adversely affected.

9. Our business is working capital intensive. If we experience insufficient cash flows from our operations or are unable to borrow to meet our working capital requirements, it may materially and adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Our business requires significant amount of working capital primarily as a considerable amount of time passes between purchase raw materials and sale of our finished products and the subsequent collection process viz. our customers. As a result, we are required to maintain sufficient stock at all times in order to meet manufacturing requirements, thus increasing our storage and working capital requirements. For example, the total working capital as on March 31, 2021, was ₹1,095.27 million (117 days of revenue from operations), as on March 31, 2020, was ₹582.54 million (89 days of revenue from operations) and as on March 31, 2019, was ₹466.28 million (71 days of revenue from operations). Consequently, there could be situations where the total funds available may not be sufficient to fulfil our commitments, and hence we may need to incur additional indebtedness in the future or utilize internal accruals to satisfy our working capital needs. Our future success depends on our ability to continue to secure and successfully manage sufficient amounts of working capital. Further, our ability to arrange financing and the costs of capital of such financing are dependent on numerous factors, including general economic and capital market conditions, credit availability from banks, investor confidence, the continued success of our operations and other laws that are conducive to our raising capital in this manner.

As we pursue our growth plan, we may be required to raise additional funds by incurring further indebtedness or issuing additional equity to meet our capital expenditures in the future. If we experience insufficient cash flows or are unable to borrow funds on a timely basis, or, at all, to meet our working capital and other requirements, or to pay our debts, it could materially and adversely affect our business and results of operations. Management of our working capital requirements involves the timely payment of, or rolling over of, our short-term indebtedness and securing new and additional loans on acceptable terms, or re-negotiation of our payment terms for, our trade payables, collection of trade receivables and preparing and following accurate and feasible budgets for our business operations. If we are unable to manage our working capital requirements, our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows could be materially and adversely affected. There can be no assurance that we will be able to effectively manage our working capital. Should we fail to effectively implement sufficient internal control procedures and management systems to manage our working capital and other sources of financing, we may have insufficient capital to maintain and grow our business, and we may breach the terms of our financing agreements with banks, face claims under cross-default provisions and be unable to obtain new financing, any of which would have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

10. We depend on the success of our relationships with our customers and suppliers. Any adverse developments or inability to enter into or maintain such relationships could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. In the absence of long term contracts with our customers and suppliers, the loss of one or more such customers or suppliers, the deterioration of their financial condition or prospects, or a reduction in their demand for our products or supply of raw materials could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

We are dependent on a limited number of customers for a significant portion of our revenues. For Fiscals 2021, 2020 and 2019, our top five customers contributed ₹1,513.44 million, ₹1,069.05million, ₹1068.71 million, or 44.43%, 44.61% and 44.81% of our revenue from operations, respectively. Further, we currently do not have long term contractual arrangements with most of our significant customers and conduct business with them on the basis of purchase orders that are placed from time to time.

For detail break-up of revenues earned by the Company from its top 5 customers for Fiscals 2021, 2020 and 2019, see “Our Business – Our customers” on page 167.

Similarly, we are dependent on a limited number of suppliers. The following table sets forth the details of our top five (5) suppliers for the Fiscals 2021, 2020 and 2019:

Our reliance on a select group of customers and suppliers may also constrain our ability to negotiate our arrangements, which may have an impact on our profit margins and financial performance. The deterioration of the financial condition or business prospects of these customers could reduce their requirement of our products and result in a significant decrease in the revenues we derive from these customers. Further, some of our customers currently manufacture or may start manufacturing their own pharmaceutical intermediates and may discontinue purchasing pharmaceutical intermediates used in APIs from us. The loss of one or more of our significant customers or suppliers, or a reduction in the amount of business or raw materials we obtain from them could have an adverse effect on our business, ability to meet debt and working capital requirements, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. We cannot assure you that we will be able to maintain historic levels of business from our significant customers or suppliers, or that we will be able to significantly reduce customer and supplier concentration in the future.

- 11. If our products or other products containing our intermediates cause, or are perceived to cause, severe side effects, the sale of such products may decrease or may be banned, which may have an adverse effect on our revenues and profitability.

The API or pharmaceutical end product containing our intermediates may cause severe side effects as a result of number of factors, many of which may be outside our control. These factors may become evident only when such products are introduced into the marketplace and may include potential side effects which may not be revealed during clinical testing for instance unusual severe side effects in isolated cases, defective products not detected by quality management or misuse of our products by pharmaceutical companies or the end-users. Considering that our Company's business is on a B2B model, once our Company completes a sale of its intermediates to the pharmaceutical companies, it has no control/ surveillance/ supervision on the manner in which any of such pharmaceutical companies utilizes our intermediates. Our products may also be perceived to cause severe side effects when a conclusive determination as to the cause of the severe side effect is not obtained or is unobtainable.

In addition, the pharmaceutical intermediates manufactured by our Company may be perceived to cause severe side effects in case other pharmaceutical companies' products containing same or similar intermediates as manufactured by our Company cause or are perceived to have caused such side effects, or if one or more regulators, such as the US-FDA or an international institution, such as the WHO, determines that such products or intermediates could cause or lead to severe side effects. If the products containing our intermediates cause, or are perceived to cause, severe side effects, we may face a number of consequences, including:

- injury or death of patients (whether during clinical trials or after such products are introduced into the market);
- a decrease in the demand for, and sales of, the relevant products;
- the recall or withdrawal of the relevant products;
- withdrawal of regulatory approvals for the relevant products or the relevant production facilities;
- removal of relevant products from the national medical insurance catalogues; and
- exposure to lawsuits and regulatory investigation relating to the relevant products that result in liabilities, fines or penalties.

While till date our Company has not received any report or a complaint from any of its customers for its products causing side effects nor has any regulator, including US-FDA and WHO determined our products to have severe side effects, there can be no assurance that we will not receive any complaints from our customers or such determination by regulators for our products in future causing side effects. The occurrence of any such event may lead to a decline in the sales of our products, which in turn may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. The occurrence of any such event may lead to a decline in the sales of our products, which in turn may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

12. Industry information included in this Prospectus has been derived from an industry report commissioned by us for such purpose. There can be no assurance that such third-party statistical, financial and other industry information is either complete or accurate.

We have availed the services of an independent third party research agency, Frost & Sullivan, an independent agency which is not related in any manner with us, our Promoters or Directors, pursuant to the letter of agreement dated February 10, 2021, to prepare an industry report titled "Global and India Pharmaceuticals, API, Intermediates and Speciality Chemicals Market" dated May 27, 2021, which was submitted by Frost & Sullivan on May 27, 2021, for purposes of inclusion of such information in this Prospectus. 13. Our inability to fulfil our export obligation under the DEEC scheme could subject us to payment of customs duties together with interest thereby adversely impacting our financial condition.

Our company has obtained advance licenses under the Duty Exemption Entitlement Certificate (“DEEC”) scheme, which enables us for duty free import of inputs required for manufacturing of our export bound products. Such benefits are subject to fulfillment of time bound export obligations as may be specified. The value and quantity of each item permitted under DEEC imports are specified in the advance license, which are issued on pre-export or post-export basis and are subject to fulfilment of time bound export obligation.

As on June 30, 2021, we have a net export obligation of ₹376.76 million. Any failure on our part to achieve required export obligation will subject us to an obligation to pay the customs duty saved amounting to ₹7.93 million.

14. Our business is dependent on our Manufacturing Facilities and we are subject to certain risks in our manufacturing process. Any unscheduled, unplanned or prolonged disruption of our manufacturing operations could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our business is dependent on our ability to manage our Manufacturing Facilities, including productivity of our workforce, compliance with regulatory requirements and those beyond our control, such as the breakdown and failure of equipment or industrial accidents and severe weather conditions and natural disasters and pandemics, including the COVID-19 pandemic which caused certain disruptions in our operations last year and may cause disruptions in the future as well. As a result, any local social unrest, natural disaster or breakdown of services and utilities in that area could have material adverse effect on the business, financial position and results of our operations. Further, we are heavily dependent on our vendors to supply in a timely and cost effective manner, various equipments required by us for our operations.

Our Manufacturing Facilities are subject to operating risks, such as the breakdown or failure of equipment, power supply or processes, performance below expected levels of output, efficiency, labour disputes, strikes, environmental issues, lock-outs, non-availability of services of our external contractors etc. Further, any significant malfunction or breakdown of our machinery or equipment at our Manufacturing Facilities may entail significant repair and maintenance costs and cause delays in our operations. Except an instance of fire incident as disclosed in risk factor titled “We operate in a hazardous industry and are subject to certain business and operational risks consequent to our operations, such as, the manufacture, usage and storage of various hazardous substances” on page 34, there have been no instances of such operational disruptions in the past three years. However, in the event that we are forced to shut down our manufacturing facility for a significant period of time in the future due to such operational disruptions, it would have a material adverse effect on our earnings, our results of operations and our financial condition as a whole. Our inability to effectively respond to any slowdown or shutdown and to rectify any disruption, in a timely manner and at an acceptable cost, could also lead to an inability to comply with our customers’ requirements and would result in us breaching our contractual obligations.

15. The average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoters and the Selling Shareholders could be lower than the floor price.

Our Promoters’ and Selling Shareholder’s average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares in our Company may be lower than the Floor Price of the Price Band as may be decided by the Company and the Selling Shareholders in consultation with the BRLM. For further details regarding average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoters and the Selling Shareholders in our Company and built-up of Equity Shares by our Promoters in our Company, please refer to the chapter titled “Capital Structure” on page 74 of this Prospectus.

16. Our Manufacturing facilities are concentrated in a single state and the inability to operate and grow our business in this particular region may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and future business prospects.

All our Manufacturing Facilities as well as our warehouses and R&D center are located in the state of Gujarat in India and any significant social, political or economic disruption, or natural calamities or civil disruptions in this region, or changes in the policies of the state or local governments of this region or the Government of India, could require us to incur significant capital expenditure and change our business strategy. While there have been no instances of such operational disruptions in the past three years, we cannot assure you that there will not be any significant disruptions in our operations in the future. The occurrence of, or our inability to effectively respond to any such event, could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

17. We export products to over twenty five (25) countries and are subject to risks associated with doing business internationally, including international market conditions and regulatory risks.

We export our products to over twenty five (25) countries globally. In Fiscal 2021, 2020 and 2019 our revenue from operations from exports accounted for 51.57%, 45.89% and 49.61%, respectively, of our total revenue from operations.

The following table provides break-up of sales to and percentage of revenue from operations from export to top five (5) countries to which we export our products:

(in ₹ million, except % values)

Fiscal 2021			Fiscal 2020			Fiscal 2019
Country	Sales	% of Revenue from Operation	Country	Sales	% of Revenue from Operation	Country	Sales	% of Revenue from Operation
Italy	623.00	18.29	Italy	383.79	16.01	Italy	508.38	21.31
Finland	310.38	9.11	Finland	236.27	9.86	Finland	193.10	8.10
France	185.31	5.44	Spain	127.61	5.32	Spain	131.49	5.51
China	166.04	4.87	China	71.60	2.99	Germany	97.04	4.07
Spain	157.23	4.62	Germany	66.59	2.78	France	67.76	2.84

There are a number of risks in doing business abroad, where we have limited experience. These risks and challenges include risks with respect to interest rate and foreign currency fluctuations, different tax and regulatory environments (particularly with respect to the nature of our products), changes in social, political and economic conditions, the need to recruit personnel combining product skills and local market knowledge, obtaining the necessary clearances and approvals to set up business and competing with established players in these regions and cost structures in international markets, including those in which we operate, that are significantly different from those that we have experienced in India. For instance, we require various approvals, licenses, registrations and permissions for supplying to our overseas customers. Authorities in different jurisdictions may impose their own requirements or delay or refuse to grant approval, even when our product has already been approved in another country. In case we fail to comply with applicable statutory or regulatory requirements, there could be a delay in the submission or grant of approval for marketing new products. In the United States, as well as many of the international markets into which we sell our products, the approval process for a new product is complex, lengthy and expensive. The time taken to obtain approval varies from country to country, but generally takes anywhere from six months to several years from the date of application.

Further, there may be certain developments in the industries in which our customers operate which in turn may have an impact on our sales from exports. There may be imposition of certain tariffs, quotas and other tariff and non-tariff trade barriers on our products in jurisdictions in which we operate or seek to sell our products and we may face trade restrictions in the jurisdictions we operate including the United States and the European countries, among others. Additionally, there may be a prohibition on our exports to certain countries that may be included in the sanctions list maintained by the Government of India.

These risks may impact our ability to expand our exports in different regions and otherwise achieve our objectives relating to our export operations. Expansion into a market outside of our current operation could require significant capital expenditures and have a material effect on our capital structure. If we pursue an international expansion opportunity, we could face internal or external risks, including, without limitation compliance with multiple and potentially conflicting foreign laws and regulations, import and export limitations and limits on the repatriation of funds.

We may be unsuccessful in developing and implementing policies and strategies that will be effective in managing these risks in each country where we have business operations. Our failure to manage these risks successfully could adversely affect our business, operating results and financial condition. Furthermore, we may face competition in other countries from companies that have more experience with operations in such countries or with international operations generally. If we are unable to successfully develop or manage our international operations, it may limit our ability to grow our international business.

18. We operate in a hazardous industry and are subject to certain business and operational risks consequent to our operations, such as, the manufacture, usage and storage of various hazardous substances.

Our manufacturing processes involve manufacturing, storage and transportation of various hazardous and flammable substances. Our operations require handling flammable materials as some portion of our business involves handling of highly flammable chemicals such as (i) ethyl alcohol; (ii) dimethylformamide; (iii) isopropyl alcohol; and (iv) toluene, amongst others. These chemicals are extremely inflammable and any accident while handling such chemicals poses the threat of causing hazards such as explosion, fire, mechanical failure, discharge or leakage of dangerous chemicals or gases, other environmental risks and may seriously hurt or even kill our employees and cause damage to our properties and properties of others.

Accordingly, while we believe we have invested in engineering and safety infrastructure, provided adequate training to our employees and engaged external and internal experts, we may still be subject to operating risks associated with handling of such hazardous materials such as possibility for leakages and ruptures from containers, explosions, and the discharge or release of toxic or hazardous substances, which in turn may cause industrial accidents, fire, personal injury, loss of human life, damage to our and third-party property damage and environmental contamination. In the event of occurrence of any such accidents, our business operations may be interrupted. Any of these occurrences may result in the shutdown of one or more of our Manufacturing Facilities and expose us to civil or criminal liability, including significant penalties, which could have an adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition. Moreover, certain environmental laws imposes strict liability for accident/damages resulting from hazardous substances and any failure to comply with such laws may lead to penalties, fines and imprisonment. Further, our operations (including our storage and warehouse functions) involve working with some highly inflammable raw materials. Any accident while handling such raw materials could cause serious injury to people or property and this may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Although we attempt at all times to conduct our business in the safest manner possible and maintain what we believe to be adequate insurance, there is a risk that any hazard including an accident may result in personal injury to our employees or other persons, destruction of property or equipment, environmental damage, manufacturing or delivery delays, or may lead to suspension of our operations and/ or imposition of civil or criminal liabilities. In particular, if operations at our facilities were to be disrupted as a result of any significant workplace accident, fire, explosion or other connected reasons, our financial performance would be adversely affected as a result of our inability to meet customer demand or committed delivery schedules for our products. For instance, there was a recent incidence of fire at our Sachin Facility on February 26, 2021, damaging the company's property, plant and equipment and also raw material, packing material and stores and consumables resulting into loss amounting to ₹107.49 million, and to that effect, our Company currently is in the process of filling insurance claim. Interruptions in production may also increase our costs and reduce our sales and may require us to make substantial capital expenditures to remedy the situation or to defend litigation that we may become involved in as a result, which may negatively affect our profitability, business, reputation, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

In order to prepare our employees to deal with such emergencies, our Company has adopted an emergency, preparedness and response plan (“ERP Plan”) for documenting the measures and coordination required to be undertaken for prevention of escalation of emergency situations at our Manufacturing Facilities and specifically to (i) define and assess the emergencies, including risk and environment impact assessment; (ii) contain incidents and bring them under control by mobilizing the internal resources and with the help of mutual aid schemes; (iii) safeguard lives; (iv) minimize the damage to property and/or neighbouring environment; (v) inform employees, the general public and the authority about the hazards/risks assessed, safeguards provided and the role to be played by them in the event of emergency; (vi) initiate and organize evacuation of affected persons; (vii) ensure medical preparedness for the probable causalities; (viii) secure the safe rehabilitation of affected areas; and (ix) work out a plan with all provisions to handle emergencies and providing for emergency preparedness and periodical rehearsal of the ERP Plan comprising of risk analysis and environmental impact assessment, storage and process hazards, effluents treatment methods and other controls, fire protection, control methods of other major hazards, plant-wise on-site actions in case of various emergencies, mutual aid arrangements, medical and safety services, and other relevant information to combat the emergencies.

19. We do not have long-term agreements with suppliers for our raw materials. Any shortfall in the supply of our raw materials or an increase in our raw material cost, may adversely affect the pricing and supply of our products and have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Raw materials are subject to supply disruptions and price volatility caused by various factors such as commodity market fluctuations, the quality and availability of raw materials, currency fluctuations, consumer demand, changes in government policies and regulatory sanctions. We purchase our raw materials from third party suppliers.

Our Company spent ₹1,905.27 million, ₹1,424.82 million and ₹1,599.10 million towards purchase of raw materials during the Fiscals 2021, 2020 and 2019, comprising of 55.94%, 59.46% and 67.05% of our revenue from operations, respectively. Further out of total raw materials purchased by our Company, the amount spent towards import of raw material in Fiscals 2021, 2020 and 2019 was ₹ 510.21 million, ₹ 532.55 million and ₹ 549.27 million, respectively, comprising 26.78%, 37.38% and 34.35% of total raw material purchase, respectively.

The following table sets forth the details of top five countries from which our Company imported raw materials during the Fiscals 2021, 2020 and 2019:

(in ₹ million, except % values)

We do not have any long-term contracts with our suppliers.

The following table sets forth the details of top three suppliers (domestic and foreign) from which our Company purchased raw materials during the Fiscals 2021, 2020 and 2019:

Further, a significant portion of our raw materials are imported from China (amounting to 19.39%, 21.85% and 22.11%, of our total raw material purchases during Fiscals 2021, 2020 and 2019, respectively. Existing geopolitical tensions between India and China may adversely affect our abilities to effectively source raw materials for our business and operations.

Prices are negotiated for each purchase order and we generally have more than one supplier for each raw material. We seek to source our materials from reputed suppliers and typically seek quotations from multiple suppliers. However, our suppliers may be unable to provide us with a sufficient quantity of raw materials, at prices acceptable to us, for us to meet the demand for our products. While there have been no instances of disruption in supply of raw material in the past three years, we are subject to the risk that one or more of our existing suppliers may discontinue their operations, which may adversely affect our ability to source raw materials at a competitive price. Also, any increase in raw material prices may result in corresponding increase in our product costs. A failure to maintain our required supply of raw materials, and any inability on our part to find alternate sources for the procurement of such raw materials, on acceptable terms, could adversely affect our ability to deliver our products to customers in an efficient, reliable and timely manner, and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

20. Any variation in the utilisation of the Net Proceeds and the proceeds from the Pre-IPO Placement as disclosed in this Prospectus shall be subject to certain compliance requirements, including prior Shareholders' approval.

We propose to utilize the Net Proceeds and the proceeds from the Pre-IPO Placement for the following purposes: (a) Repayment/prepayment of certain indebtedness availed by our Company; (b) Funding working capital requirements; and (c) General corporate purposes. For further details of the proposed objects of the Offer, see the section "Objects of the Offer", beginning on page 86 of this Prospectus.

At this juncture, we cannot determine with any certainty if we would require the Net Proceeds and the proceeds from the Pre-IPO Placement to meet any other expenditure or fund any exigencies arising out of competitive environment, business conditions, economic conditions or other factors beyond our control. In accordance with Section 27 of the Companies Act, 2013, we cannot undertake any variation in the utilisation of the Net Proceeds and the proceeds from the Pre-IPO Placement as will be disclosed in this Prospectus without obtaining the shareholders' approval through a special resolution. In the event of any such circumstances that require us to undertake variation in the disclosed utilisation of the Net Proceeds and the proceeds from the Pre-IPO Placement, we may not be able to obtain the Shareholders' approval in a timely manner, or at all. Any delay or inability in obtaining such Shareholders' approval may adversely affect our business or operations.

Further, the Promoters or controlling shareholders would be required to provide an exit opportunity to the Shareholders who do not agree with our proposal to modify the objects of the Offer, at a price and manner as may be prescribed by SEBI. Additionally, the requirement on Promoters or controlling shareholders to provide an exit opportunity to such dissenting shareholders may deter the Promoters or controlling shareholders from agreeing to the variation of the proposed utilization of the Net Proceeds and the proceeds from the Pre-IPO Placement, even if such variation is in the interest of our Company. Further, we cannot assure you that the Promoters or the controlling shareholders of our Company will have adequate resources at their disposal at all times to enable them to provide an exit opportunity at the price which may be prescribed by SEBI.

In light of these factors, we may not be able to undertake variation of objects of the Offer to use any unutilized proceeds of the Offer, if any, even if such variation is in the interest of our Company. This may restrict our Company's ability to respond to any change in our business or financial condition by redeploying the unutilized portion of Net Proceeds and the proceeds from the Pre-IPO Placement, if any, which may adversely affect our business and results of operation. However, in the event, an exit offer is made by the Promoters to the dissenting shareholders in terms of section 13(8) and section 27(2) of the Companies Act on account of change in objects, such exit shall be undertaken in accordance with Schedule XX of the SEBI ICDR Regulations.

21. We recently acquired two new manufacturing facilities from Gujarat Organics Limited and our efforts at integrating acquired businesses may not yield timely or effective results, which may affect our financial condition and results of operations.

We recently completed the acquisition of two additional manufacturing plants operated by GOL in line with our inorganic growth strategy of foraying further into the specialty chemicals sector. Specifically, subsequent to the Acquisition, we have acquired the preservatives (parabens and parabens formulations which have end usage in cosmetics, animal food and personal care industries) and specialty chemicals business of GOL (with end usage in inter alia the cosmetics, dyes and agrochemicals industries).

We may experience difficulties in integrating acquisitions into our existing business and operations. Our failure to derive anticipated synergies could affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. There can be no assurance that we will be able to achieve the strategic purpose of such acquisition or operational integration or our targeted return on investment. Future acquisitions may also expose us to potential risks, including risks associated with the integration of new operations, services and personnel, unforeseen or hidden liabilities, the diversion of resources from our existing businesses and technologies, our inability to generate sufficient revenue to offset the costs of acquisitions, and potential loss of, or harm to, relationships with employees, suppliers or customers, any of which could significantly disrupt our ability to manage our business and adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations.

22. Any sales return of our products could adversely affect our business, prospects, results of operations, financial condition and reputation.

A variety of reasons could lead to our customers undertaking sales returns of our products. There have been instances of sales returns of certain products on account of certain quality mismatches. To the extent such sales returns continue to occur in the future, our financial condition and the demand for our products could be adversely affected. For the last three financial years, the following is the summary of sales and sales return of our Company as per the Restated Consolidated Financial Statements:

(₹ in million, except percentage data)

S. No.	Financial Year/ Period	Sales (Gross)	Sales Return	Percentage
1.	2021	3,392.99	30.90	0.91%
2.	2020	2,376.29	17.62	0.74%
3.	2019	2,345.84	8.38	0.36%

There can be no assurance that sales returns of similar nature or otherwise shall not occur in the future during the course of the business operations of our Company and any such sales returns, whether due to factors within or outside our control, could have an adverse effect on our business, prospects, results of operations, financial condition and reputation.

23. We face foreign exchange risks that could adversely affect our results of operations and cash flows.

A significant portion of our total revenue and expenditure is denominated in currencies other than Indian Rupees. Our revenues and expenditures for Fiscals 2021, 2020 and 2019 are as follows:

(in ₹ million, except % values)

Particulars	Fiscal 2021	Fiscal 2020	Fiscal 2019
Export of goods calculated on FOB basis	1,728.65	1,075.40	1,114.33
As % of revenue from operations	50.75	44.88	46.72
Value of imports calculated on CIF basis (Raw Materials and Capital Goods)	512.76	563.68	527.89
As % of total expenditure	18.97	27.13	25.90
Other Expenses in Foreign Currency	13.92	13.58	12.23
As % of total expenditure	0.52	0.65	0.60

Although, we closely follow our exposure to foreign currencies in an attempt to reduce the risks of currency fluctuations and our results of operations, cash flows and financial performance could be adversely affected in case these currencies fluctuate significantly. For instance, the details of gains and losses to our revenue on account of foreign exchange fluctuation during Fiscals 2019, 2020 and 2021 is set forth below:

(in ₹ million, except % values)

Particulars	Fiscal 2021	Fiscal 2020	Fiscal 2019
Gain on account of foreign exchange fluctuation	6.59	10.32	-
Losses on account of foreign exchange fluctuation	-	-	(24.27)
Total Revenue	3,419.88	2,424.86	2,388.96
Total gains/losses as a percentage of Total Revenue (%)	0.19	0.43	-1.02

In addition, the policies of the RBI may also change from time to time, which may limit our ability to effectively hedge our foreign currency exposures and may have an adverse effect on our results of operations and cash flows. Any such losses on account of foreign exchange fluctuations may adversely affect our results of operations and cash flows. Certain markets in which we sell our products may be subject to foreign exchange repatriation and exchange control risks, which may result in either delayed recovery or even non-realization of revenue.

24. Under-utilization of our manufacturing capacities and an inability to effectively utilize our expanded manufacturing capacities could have an adverse effect on our business, future prospects and future financial performance.

All of our existing Manufacturing Facilities are located in Gujarat. The success of any capacity expansion and expected return on investment on capital expenditure is subject to, among other factors, the ability to procure requisite regulatory approvals in a timely manner; recruit and ensure satisfactory performance of personnel to further grow our business; and the ability to absorb additional infrastructure costs and develop new expertise. The product requirements of, and procurement practice followed by, our customers also affect our capacity utilization. In recent times, we have made significant investments for the expansion of our manufacturing capacities (specifically in relation to the Ankleshwar and Jhagadia plant acquisitions) and are continuing to undertake additional investments to increase our existing capacity. In case of oversupply in the industry or lack of demand we may not be able to utilise our expanded capacity efficiently. Our aggregate capacity utilization was 36%, 46% and 63% in Fiscals 2019, 2020 and 2021, respectively. For further information, see “Our Business - Capacity and Capacity Utilization” on page 163. Under-utilization of our manufacturing capacities over extended periods, or significant under-utilization in the short term, or an inability to fully realize the benefits of our recently implemented capacity expansion, could materially and adversely impact our business, growth prospects and future financial performance.

We also face the risk that our customers might not place any order or might place orders of lesser than expected size or may even cancel existing orders or make change in their policies, which may result in reduced quantities being manufactured by us resulting in under-utilization of our existing manufacturing capacity. Further, we make significant decisions, including determining the levels of business that we will seek and accept, production schedules, personnel requirements and other resource requirements, based on our estimates of customer orders. The changes in demand for their products (which are in turn manufactured by us) could reduce our ability to estimate accurately future customer requirements, make it difficult to schedule production and lead to over production and utilization of our manufacturing capacity for a particular product. The requirements of our customers are not restricted to one type of product and therefore variations in demand for certain types of products also requires us to make certain changes in our manufacturing processes thereby affecting our production schedules. This may lead to over production of certain products and under production of some other products resulting in a complete mismatch of capacity and capacity utilization. Any such mismatch leading to over or under utilization of our Manufacturing Facilities could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

- 25. *We currently avail benefits under certain export promotion schemes and are entitled to certain incentives. Any change in these benefits and incentives applicable to us or a delay in disbursement of benefits under such schemes may affect our results of operations.

We currently avail benefits under certain export promotion schemes and the Export Promotion Capital Goods Scheme, which allow us duty free import of certain inputs used for manufacturing. In Fiscals 2021, 2020 and 2019, export benefit (incentive) were ₹ 43.99 million, ₹ 37.75 million and ₹ 47.66 million, respectively, in the same periods. We also avail benefits under the Duty Exemption Entitlement Certificate (“DEEC”). Any reduction or withdrawal of benefits or our inability to meet any of the conditions prescribed under any of the schemes would adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. Further, the benefits/ incentives under such industrial schemes are available to us for a fixed period subject to compliance with various terms and conditions and such incentive are not subject to renewal. However, there can be no assurance that we will continue to enjoy these benefits in the future or will be able to obtain timely disbursement of such benefits or that such schemes will continue to exist in the future at all.

- 26. *Our facilities are subject to client inspections and quality audits and any failure on our part to meet their expectations or to comply with the quality standards set out in our contractual arrangements, could result in rejection of our product lot(s) and/or the termination of our contracts which may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Pursuant to our contractual arrangements, certain of our clients have the right to regularly examine our manufacturing processes, quality control and procedures and records of our Manufacturing Facilities after reasonable notice and at a reasonable time to ensure that our services are meeting their internal standards and regulatory requirements. Most of our clients routinely inspect and audit our facilities and have a right to complain against the defective product(s). Any failure on our part to meet the expectations of our clients and to comply with the quality standards set out in our contractual arrangements, could result in the rejection of our product lot(s) and/ or termination of our customer contracts and our clients may choose to source their requirements from our competitors. We may also incur significant costs to upgrade our facilities and manufacturing processes. The occurrence of any such event could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows in addition to reputational damage.

- 27. *Delay or failure in the implementation of our sales orders, on the part of our contract manufacturer may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

In relation to certain products, we outsource part of the work to contract manufacturers, by using these contract manufacturers for purpose of raw material contract manufacturing to produce final intermediate. For such orders, the performance of the product for our client depends partly on our performance and partly on that of our contract manufacturers. While there have been no material delays on part of our contract manufacturers, any such delay or failure on the part of a contract manufacturer to complete its work in the future, for any reason, could also result in: (i) delayed payment to us for our products; (ii) liquidated damages may become payable by us; (iii) claims may be brought against us for losses suffered as a result of our non-performance; (iv) our clients may terminate our contracts; (v) disruption in manufacturing schedule; (vi) increase in cost; and (vii) damage to our reputation. Additionally, our contract manufacturers may not have adequate financial resources to meet their indemnity obligations to us. The occurrence of any of these possibilities may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

- 28. *Information relating to the installed manufacturing capacity of our Manufacturing Facilities included in this Prospectus are based on various assumptions and estimates and future production and capacity may vary.

Information relating to the installed manufacturing capacity of our facilities included in this Prospectus are based on various assumptions and estimates of our management that have been taken into account by an independent chartered engineer in the calculation of the installed manufacturing capacity of our Manufacturing Facilities. These assumptions and estimates includes the standard capacity calculation practice of the industry in which we operate after examining the reactor capacities and other ancillary equipment installed at the facilities, the period during which the Manufacturing Facilities operated in a year/ period, product mix produced, assumption in relation to utilisation levels, expected operations, product manufacturing cycle, cleaning time, downtime resulting from scheduled maintenance activities, unscheduled breakdowns, as well as expected operational efficiencies. For further information, see “Our Business” on page 150. Further, the requirements of our customers are not restricted to one type of product and therefore variations in demand for certain types of products also requires us to make certain changes in our manufacturing processes thereby affecting our production schedules. We often increase capacity to meet the anticipated demand of our customers or significantly reduce production of certain products depending on potential orders. Certain products require lesser process time whereas certain products require more process time in the same manufacturing set-out that we have installed. Accordingly, actual production levels and rates may differ significantly from the installed capacity information of our facilities or historical installed capacity information of our facilities depending on the product type. Further, the installed capacity, capacity utilisation and other related information may not be computed on the basis of any standard methodology that is applicable across the industry and therefore may not be comparable to capacity information that may be computed and presented by other competitors in the same industry. Undue reliance should therefore not be placed on our historical installed capacity information for our existing facilities included in this Prospectus.

29. Our technical agreements with various customers have various quality assurance compliances to be met by us. There can be no assurance that our Company shall be in compliance with the covenants under the technical agreements to the satisfaction of our customers or at all.

The technical agreements entered into by our Company require our Company to be in compliance with numerous covenants, terms and conditions, including those which subject our Company to audits from time to time. For an instance, some of our technical agreements requires us inter-alia to: (i) make commercially reasonable efforts to exclude, during packaging, storage and shipping of the substance(s), the possibility of deterioration, contamination, or mix-up with any other material; (ii) perform manufacturing operations for the Key Starting Raw Materials (“KSM”) and ensuring that the premises and equipment being used to supply KSM being in compliance with the cGMPs, applicable current regulatory requirements and in accordance with any specific requirement approved by our customer. Although our Company follows internationally acceptable Good Manufacturing Practices (“GMPs”) including with respect to manufacturing, packaging, storage and shipping of our products, there can be no assurance that our customers at any time during the pendency of the agreement or thereafter shall not raise an objection/ claim including before a regulatory or judicial authority that our Company did not undertake commercially reasonable efforts to comply with the requirements of our technical agreements.

While there have been no instances of such claims being raised by our customers in the past three years, in the event our customers successfully raise a claim on our Company with respect to such alleged non-performance of the contractually agreed terms before a regulatory or judicial authority or otherwise in the future, the same may adversely affect the business, results of operation, financial condition and cash flows of our Company.

30. Some of our distributorship agreements restrict us from selling and marketing our products through other agencies in a particular geography. Further, such contractual arrangements are governed under the applicable laws of overseas jurisdictions. In the event of any litigation arising under these contractual arrangements, the time/cost implications with respect to same could adversely affect our business, prospects, results of operations, financial condition and reputation.

We enter into distributorship agreements with overseas distribution agents in certain geographies with a view to market, distribute and sell our products in such territories. Since these agreements are exclusive in nature, we are restricted from contracting with other agencies which are engaged in the marketing and sale of products that are manufactured by us in the same geography. Thus, the distribution and marketing of our products remains dependent on a single agency for a particular geography thereby limiting the reach of our products. Exclusive arrangements with our distribution agents restrict us from appointing other agencies or directly market and sell our products in such jurisdictions, which may lead to a material adverse effect to the results of operations and cash-flow. Delay in the marketing of our products overseas, if at all, poses a risk on our business prospects in overseas markets and could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. Further, such contractual arrangements are governed under the applicable laws of overseas jurisdictions. In the event of any litigation arising under these contractual arrangements, the time/cost implications with respect to same could also adversely affect our business, prospects, results of operations, financial condition and reputation.

31. There is a risk that our data could be lost or misused by the job workers appointed by our Company.

During the ordinary course of its business operations, our Company has entered into job work arrangements for engaging third party contractors for job work of raw materials to produce products which gets converted into intermediates at our facility. Our Company possesses valuable formulations, scientific, technical and business information of a confidential and proprietary nature including but not limited to scientific and technical information, manufacturing know-how, engineering techniques, registration data and developments relating to the manufacturing of its products (“Confidential Information”), which our Company, either in part or in entirety entrusts certain Confidential Information with such job workers who being bound by confidentiality agreements executed with our Company, are contractually restricted to not publish in whole or in part any of the Confidential Information without prior written consent of our Company. Although the job workers are contractually obligated to protect such Confidential Information received from the Company, and there have been no instances of confidentiality of such Confidential Information being breached in the last three years, there can be no assurance that such Confidential Information or any part thereof shall be so protected by the job workers in compliance with the confidentiality agreements executed by them with our Company and any such loss, disclosure and misuse of such Confidential Information may have an adverse effect on our reputation, business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

32. Our inability to accurately forecast demand for our products and manage our inventory may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Our business depends on our estimate of the long-term demand for our advance pharmaceutical intermediates and speciality chemicals from our customers. If we underestimate demand or have inadequate capacity due to which we are unable to meet the demand for our products, we may manufacture fewer quantities of products than required, which could result in the loss of business. While we forecast the demand for our products and accordingly plan our production volumes, any error in our forecast could result in surplus or shortage of stock, which may not be sold in a timely manner. At times when we have overestimated demand, we may have incurred costs to build capacity or purchased more raw materials and manufactured more products than required. Further, the number of purchase orders that our customers place with us differ from quarter to quarter, which has caused our revenues, results of operations and cash flows to fluctuate in the past and we expect this trend to occasionally continue in the future. Also, each of our products has a shelf life of a specified number of years and if not sold prior to expiry, may lead to losses or if consumed after expiry, may lead to health hazards. Our inability to accurately forecast demand for our products and manage our inventory may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

33. The industry in which we operate, provides for significant entry barriers. Our inability to compete effectively in overcoming such entry barriers to remain competitive, could result in the loss of customers and accordingly our market share, which could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and future prospects.

The industry in which we operate presents significant entry barriers, including customer validation and approvals, expectation from customers for process innovation and cost reduction, high quality standards and stringent specifications. In particular, our typical end customers are required to register the manufacturer with the regulatory bodies as a supplier of APIs, both regulated and generic. As a result, any change in the manufacturer of the API may require customers to expend significant time and resources, resulting in the acquisition of customers becoming a long process. From the product testing stage to the batch procurement phase, to the eventual customer approval stage acquiring a new end customer typically takes a significant amount of time, depending on product complexity. Further, customers in general avoid sharing product related information with numerous manufacturers in order to restrict the spread of confidential information and as a result, customers typically select manufacturers after carefully reviewing them and tend to develop long-term relationships with them as well as limit the number of such manufacturers.

34. A significant disruption to our distribution network or any disruption of civil infrastructure, transport or logistic services, may create delays in deliveries of products distributed by us.

We rely on various forms of transportation, such as marine, roadways and railways to receive raw materials required for our products and to deliver our finished products to our customers. Unexpected delays in those deliveries, including due to delays in obtaining customs clearances for raw materials imported by us, transportation strikes or increases in transportation and fuel costs, could significantly decrease our ability to make sales and earn profits. We may suffer losses due to damage or loss of raw materials and finished products in transit which may occur due to accidents or natural disasters. Manufacturing delays or unexpected demand for our products may also require us to use faster, but more expensive, transportation methods, which could adversely affect our gross margins. In addition, labour shortages or labour disagreements in the transportation or logistics industries or long-term disruptions to the national and international transportation infrastructure that lead to delays or interruptions of deliveries could materially adversely affect our business. Further, we cannot assure you that we will be able to secure sufficient transport capacity for these purposes. While there have been no instances of unexpected delays due to accidents, natural disasters, labour shortages, labour disagreements etc., in the past three years, any significant disruption to our distribution network or any disruption of civil infrastructure could lead to a failure by us to provide products distributed by us in a timely manner, which would adversely affect our business and results of operations.

35. We are yet to receive certain registrations in connection with the protection of our intellectual property rights, especially with regards to patents relating to our products. Such failure to protect our intellectual property rights could adversely affect our competitive position, business, financial condition and profitability.

We are heavily dependent on our intellectual property. We have currently applied for certain registrations in connection with the protection of our intellectual property relating to the process patents of our products. Our inability to obtain these registrations may adversely affect our competitive business position. If any of our unregistered patents are registered in favor of a third party, we may not be able to claim registered ownership of those patents and consequently, we may be unable to seek remedies for infringement of those patents by third parties other than relief against “passing off” by other entities. In addition, in certain jurisdictions, marketing authorizations in relation to our products may be held by certain third parties with whom we have not directly entered into agreements to protect our rights in relation to such marketing authorizations.

As on the date of this Prospectus, our Company has certain pending process patent and trademark applications, details of which are disclosed in “Government and Other Approvals – Intellectual Property” on page 311 of this Prospectus. The registration of any patent is a time-consuming process, and there can be no assurance that any such registration will be granted. In the absence of such registration, competitors or other companies may challenge the validity or scope of our intellectual property. Unless our patent is registered, our ability to use our intellectual property rights may be restricted, which could materially and adversely affect our brand image, goodwill and business. Until such time that we receive registered patents, we can only seek relief against “passing off” by other entities. Accordingly, we may be required to invest significant resources in developing a new brand. Furthermore, the intellectual property protection obtained by us may be inadequate, we may be unable to detect any unauthorized use and we may need to undertake expensive and time-consuming litigation to protect our intellectual property rights and this may have an adverse effect on our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition.

While we intend to defend against any threats to our intellectual property, we cannot assure you that our patents, trade secrets or other agreements will adequately protect our intellectual property. Our patent rights may not prevent our competitors from developing, using or commercializing products that are functionally equivalent or similar to our products by using processes that may be superior to the processes used by our Company. Further, our patent applications may fail to result in patents being issued, and our existing and future patents may be insufficient to provide us with meaningful protection or a commercial advantage. We cannot assure you that patents issued to or licensed by us in the past or in the future will not be challenged or circumvented by competitors or that such patents will be found to be valid or sufficiently broad to protect our processes or to provide us with any competitive advantage. We may be required to negotiate licenses for patents from third parties to conduct our business, which may not be available on reasonable terms or at all. We also rely on confidentiality agreements entered into with our contract manufacturers to protect trade secrets and other proprietary rights that belong to us. We cannot assure you that these agreements will not be breached, that we will have adequate remedies for any breach or that third parties will not otherwise gain access to our trade secrets or proprietary knowledge. Any inability to patent new processes and protect our proprietary information or other intellectual property, could adversely affect our business.

36. Our Promoters have provided personal guarantees for our loans, and any failure or default by us to repay such loans in accordance with the terms and conditions of the financing documents may adversely affect our Promoters’ ability to manage our affairs.

We have obtained loans in the ordinary course of business for the purposes of capital expenditure, vehicle purchase, working capital and other business requirements from our lenders: YES Bank Limited, Axis Bank Limited, HDFC Bank Limited and Standard Chartered Bank. Our Promoters, Nareshkumar Ramjibhai Patel and Chetankumar Chhaganlal Vaghasia have provided personal guarantees to secure our existing borrowing and may post listing continue to provide such guarantees.

In case of a default under our loan agreements, any of the guarantees provided may be invoked, which could negatively impact their reputation and net worth. Also, we may face certain impediments in taking decisions in relation to our Company, which in turn would result in a material adverse effect on our financial condition, business, results of operations, financial conditions and prospects and would negatively impact our reputation. Further, if any of these guarantees are revoked by our Promoters, our lenders may require alternate security or guarantees and may seek early repayment or terminate such facilities. We may not be successful in providing alternate guarantees satisfactory to the lenders, and as a result may be required to repay outstanding amounts or seek additional sources of capital. Any such event could adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations. For further details regarding loans availed by our Company, please refer “Financial Indebtedness” on page 302 of this Prospectus.

In case the aforesaid lenders recall the amount lent to the Company, either in part or full, our Company shall be required in such a case to repay the entirety of the loans together with accrued interest and other outstanding amounts payable in relation to the facility to the aforesaid lenders. Our Company may not be able to generate sufficient funds at short notice to be able to repay such loans and may resort to refinancing such loans at a higher rate of interest and on terms not favourable to it. Failure to repay loans in a timely manner may have a material adverse effect on our business, cash flows and financial condition. If any of lenders of these borrowings seek the accelerated repayment of any such loan, it may have a material adverse effect on the business, cash flows and financial condition of the entity against which repayment is sought, which in turn may impact our reputation and consequently our business.

37. Our funding requirements and proposed deployment of the Net Proceeds and the proceeds from the Pre-IPO Placement are based on management estimates and may be subject to change based on various factors, some of which are beyond our control.

Our funding requirements and deployment of the Net Proceeds and the proceeds from the Pre-IPO Placement are based on internal management estimates based on current market conditions and have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution. Our funding requirements may be subject to change based on various factors which are beyond our control. For details, see “Objects of the Offer” beginning on page 86.

38. Our insurance coverage may not adequately protect us against all material hazards, which may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We could be held liable for accidents that occur at our Manufacturing Facilities or otherwise arising out of our operations. In the event of personal injuries, fires or other accidents suffered by our employees or other people, we could face claims alleging that we were negligent, provided inadequate supervision or be otherwise liable for the injuries. Our principal types of coverage include insurance for (i) workmen compensation; (ii) consequential loss (fire) of profit; (iii) Directors’ and officers’ insurance and COVID-19 coverage insurance for our employees; (iv) money in safe and in transit; (v) public liability (including industrial risk); and (vi) marine cargo. As of March 31, 2021, our gross block of total fixed tangible assets and inventory was ₹1765.91 million and ₹603.63 million, respectively and the insurance coverage on such assets and inventory was ₹2,100.85 million and ₹750 million, respectively, or 118.97% and 124.24% of the total value of fixed assets and inventory, respectively.

While we believe that the insurance coverage which we maintain would be reasonably adequate to cover the normal risks associated with the operation of our business, we cannot assure you that any claim under the insurance policies maintained by us will be honored fully, in part or on time, or that we have taken out sufficient insurance to cover all our losses. Except one instance of a claim under our marine cargo policy being rejected, for which our Company incurred a loss of ₹ 1.37 million, there have been no instances of our insurance claims being rejected in the past three years. In addition, our insurance coverage expires from time to time. We apply for the renewal of our insurance coverage in the normal course of our business, but we cannot assure you that such renewals will be granted in a timely manner, at acceptable cost or at all. To the extent that we suffer loss or damage, for which we have not obtained or maintained insurance, or which is not covered by insurance, which exceeds our insurance coverage or where our insurance claims are rejected, the loss would have to be borne by us and our results of operations, cash flows and financial performance could be adversely affected. For instance, there was a recent incidence of fire at our Sachin Facility on February 26, 2021, damaging the Company's property, plant and equipment, raw material, packing material, stores and consumables, resulting in loss amounting to ₹ 107.49 Million. Our Company currently is in the process of filing an insurance claim in this regard.

39. If we inadvertently infringe on the patents of others, we may be subjected to legal action and our business and reputation may be adversely affected.

We operate in an industry characterized by extensive patent litigation, including both litigation by innovator companies relating to purported infringement of innovative products and processes by generic pharmaceuticals and litigation by competitors or innovator companies to delay the entry of a product into the market. Patent litigation can result in significant damages being awarded and injunctions that could prevent the manufacture and sale of certain products or require us to pay significant royalties in order to manufacture or sell such products. . While there have been no instances of patents infringements of our Company in the past three years, and it is not possible to predict the outcome of such patent litigation, we believe any adverse result of such litigation could include an injunction preventing us from selling our products or payment of significant damages or royalty, which would affect our ability to sell current or future products or prohibit us from enforcing our patent and proprietary rights against others. The occurrence of any of these events could subject us to legal action and adversely affect our business, reputation, cash flows and results of operations

40. Our inability to collect receivables and default in payment from our customers could result in the reduction of our profits and affect our cash flows.

The majority of our sales are to customers on an open credit basis, with standard payment terms of generally between 30 to 90 days. While we generally monitor the ability of our customers to pay these open credit arrangements and limit the credit we extend to what we believe is reasonable based on an evaluation of each customer's financial condition and payment history, we may still experience losses because of a customer being unable to pay. As a result, while we maintain what we believe to be a reasonable allowance for doubtful receivables for potential credit losses based upon our historical trends and other available information, there is a risk that our estimates may not be accurate.

Our average trade receivable days for the Fiscals 2021, 2020 and 2019 were 129 days, 81 days and 114 days of our revenue from operations, respectively. However, any increase in our trade receivable days will negatively affect our business. If we are unable to collect customer receivables or if the provisions for doubtful receivables are inadequate, it could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

41. A portion of the Net Proceeds and the proceeds from the Pre-IPO Placement may be utilized for repayment or pre-payment of loans taken from Axis Bank Limited, which is an affiliate of one of the BRLMs, namely Axis Capital Limited.

We propose to repay certain loans obtained from Axis Bank Limited, from the Net Proceeds and the proceeds from the Pre-IPO Placement as disclosed in “Objects of the Offer” on page 86. Axis Bank Limited is an affiliate of one of the BRLMs, namely Axis Capital Limited. For further details, see “Objects of the Offer” on page 86.

42. A shortage or non-availability of essential utilities such as electricity and water could affect our manufacturing operations and have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our business operations are heavily dependent on continuous and supply of electricity, water, gas and steam which are critical to our manufacturing operations. While our power requirements are met through local state power grid through interstate open access, we cannot assure you that these will sufficient and, or, that we will not face a shortage of electricity despite these arrangements. Further, while water is procured from Gujarat Industrial Development Corporation and certain other third party sources, any shortage or non-availability of water or electricity could result in temporary shut-down of a part, or all, of our operations at the location experiencing such shortage. Such shut-downs could, particularly if they are for prolonged periods, have an adverse effect our business, results of operations and financial condition. Moreover, if we are required to operate for extended periods of time on diesel-generator sets or if we are required to source water from third parties, our cost of operations would be higher during such period which could have an adverse impact on our profitability.

- 43. All our operations are operated on industrial land allotted to us by GIDC on a leasehold basis. Failure to comply with the conditions of use of such land could result in an adverse impact on our business and financial condition.

We carry out our business, research and operations on industrial land allotted to us by Gujarat Industrial Development Corporation (“GIDC”) on a leasehold basis, in terms of which we are required to comply with certain ongoing conditions. If we fail to meet any such conditions, we may be required to incur liability. Further, according to the various statutory rules governing GIDC functioning, GIDC also retains the power to cancel allotment of land in the event of breach of any rules of allotment. Cancellation of the land allotted to us due to, among other things, non-compliance of the conditions of the offer-allotment letter could have an impact on our financial condition, which could adversely impact our results of operations and financial condition.

- 44. The Company has not made provision for decline in the value of certain investments made by the Company.

Our Company has made certain investments, including overseas investments, for which the provision for decline in value of investment of the Company has not been made. If provision is made in the future on account of permanent decrease in value of these investments, our profits would reduce to the extent of such provision. This may have an impact on our results of operations and financial conditions. For more details, please see “Financial Information” on page 214.

- 45. Although our Group Company is undertaking different businesses in the pharma sector, the charter documents of our Group Company has objects similar to the objects of our Company, which may be a potential source of conflict of interest for us and which may have an adverse effect on our business, financial conditions and results of operations.

Our Group Company, Ami Lifesciences Private Limited, is operating in the pharma sector and engaged in the business of inter-alia manufacturing of APIs and other research and development activities and could offer services that are related to the business of our Company. The constitutional documents of our Group Company authorises them to conduct business similar to that of our Company. Although, as on date of this Prospectus, the aforesaid company is not into the manufacturing of the same products as our Company, future conflicts of interests may arise in allocating business opportunities among our Company and Group Companies in circumstances where our respective interests diverge. Further, our Promoters may become involved in ventures that may potentially compete with our Company. We have not entered into any non-compete agreement with any of our Group Companies and/ or our Promoters. We cannot assure you that our Promoters or our Group Entities or members of the Promoter Group will not compete with our existing business or any future business that we may undertake or that their interests will not conflict with ours. Any such present and future conflicts could have a material adverse effect on our reputation, business, results of operations and financial condition.

- 46. We may face liability if we inappropriately disclose confidential customer information which could adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations.

Our Company is frequently provided with access to our customers’ proprietary intellectual property and confidential information. Although there have been no instances of security breaches in the past, we cannot assure you that our customers’ intellectual property and confidential information is adequately safeguarded. Further, there may be inappropriate disclosure of customer confidential information for reasons other than misappropriation, such as a breach of our computer systems, system failures or otherwise, for which we may have substantial liabilities to our customers. While we have not been subject to any security breaches in the past, particularly in relation to confidential information, there can be no assurance that such security breaches shall not occur in the future and our customers may assert claims against us for damages they might suffer due to breach of confidentiality or loss of data on the occurrence of unanticipated events. Such risks, whether actual or perceived, may adversely affect our growth strategy.

In addition, we may not always be aware of intellectual property registrations or applications belonging to our customers. We cannot assure you that we will adequately address the risks created by any contractual or legal obligations that we are bound by. In the event of any breach or alleged breach of our confidentiality agreements with our customers, these customers may terminate their engagements with us or sue us for breach of contract, resulting in the associated loss of revenue and increased costs. As a result, if our customers’ proprietary rights are misappropriated by us or our employees, our customers may consider us liable for that act and seek damages and compensation from us in addition to seeking termination of the contract. Assertions of misappropriation of confidential information or the intellectual property of our customers against us, if successful, could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. Even if such assertions against us are unsuccessful, they may cause us to incur reputational harm and substantial legal fees. We may also be subject to civil or criminal liability if we are deemed to have violated applicable regulations. Any such acts could also cause us to lose existing and future business and damage our reputation in the pharmaceutical industry in India.

47. We are involved in certain outstanding tax proceedings, any adverse developments related to which could materially and adversely affect our business, reputation and cash flows.

There are outstanding tax proceedings involving our Company, our Promoters and our Directors which are pending adjudication. For further details of material legal proceedings involving our Company, our Promoters and our Directors, see “Outstanding Litigation and Other Material Developments” on page 305 of this Prospectus. Further, our Company endeavours to pay its tax liabilities on time. The table below sets forth details of certain outstanding tax proceedings against our Company, Promoters and Directors.

The amounts claimed in these legal proceedings have been disclosed to the extent ascertainable and include amounts claimed jointly and severally. If any new developments arise, such as a change in the applicable laws or rulings against us by appellate courts or tribunals, we may need to make provisions in our financial statements that could increase our expenses and current liabilities. We cannot assure you that these legal proceedings will be decided in favor of our Company, our Promoters or our Directors, as the case may be, or that no further liability will arise out of these proceedings. Further, such legal proceedings could divert management time and attention and consume financial resources. In the event of adverse rulings in these proceedings or consequent actions by regulatory and other statutory authorities, our Company, Directors or Promoters may need to make payments, which may adversely affect our profitability, reputation, business, results of operations and financial condition. Additionally, we have on certain occasions in the past, been delayed in the payment of statutory dues, income tax demands and repayment of dues to financial institution(s), including in relation to TDS, GST, income tax demand and ESIC. We cannot assure you that we will pay all our statutory dues, income tax demands and repayment of dues to financial institution(s) on time in the future, the failure of which will lead to imposition of interests, penalties and may lead to potential defaults on our part, which may have an adverse impact on our results of operations in such future fiscal periods.

48. We require a number of approvals, licences, registrations and permits to operate our business and the failure to obtain or renew these licences in a timely manner, or at all, may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our business operations require us to obtain and renew, from time to time, certain approvals, licenses, registrations and permits under central, state and local government rules in India, generally for carrying out our business and for our Manufacturing Facilities. While we have obtained registrations for all material approvals required for carrying out our business, a majority of these approvals are granted for a limited duration. The introduction of additional government control or newly implemented laws and regulations, depending on the nature and extent thereof and our ability to make corresponding adjustments, may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial conditions. These laws and regulations and the way in which they are implemented and enforced may change from time to time and there can be no assurance that future legislative or regulatory changes will not have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

The approvals required by us are subject to numerous conditions and we cannot assure you that these would not be suspended or revoked in the event of non-compliance or alleged noncompliance with any terms or conditions thereof, or pursuant to any regulatory action. If there is any failure by us to comply with the applicable regulations or if the regulations governing our business are amended, we may incur increased costs, be subject to penalties, have our approvals and permits revoked or suffer a disruption in our operations, any of which could adversely affect our business. In case we fail to comply with these requirements, or a regulator alleges we have not complied with these requirements, we may be subject to penalties and compounding proceedings. Additionally, the currently applicable approvals and licenses in relation to the Ankleshwar and Jhagadia plants which we acquired from GOL, are in the name of GOL and in the process of being transferred to the name of our Company. We cannot assure you the time which such transfer shall take place to complete, or if at all such transfer shall be completed.

While we are required to obtain a number of approvals for legally conducting our business operations and we shall submit the applications for renewal of such approvals, as and when required, during the course of our business operations, we cannot assure you that we will be able to obtain approvals in respect of such applications, or any application made by us in the future. While we have not had any instances of failure or delay in renewal of our existing licences resulting in loss to our Company in the past three years, in the event we fail to obtain such registrations and licenses or renewals, in a timely manner in the future, we may not then be able to carry on certain operations of our business, which may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. For details, see “Government and Other Approvals” on page 309.

49. If we are unable to establish and maintain an effective system of internal controls and compliances, our business and reputation could be adversely affected.

We manage regulatory compliance by monitoring and evaluating our internal controls and ensuring that we are in compliance with all relevant statutory and regulatory requirements. However, there can be no assurance that deficiencies in our internal controls and compliances will not arise, or that we will be able to implement, and continue to maintain, adequate measures to rectify or mitigate any such deficiencies in our internal controls, in a timely manner or at all. As we continue to grow, there can be no assurance that there will be no other instances of inadvertent non-compliances with statutory requirements, which may subject us to regulatory action, including monetary penalties, which may adversely affect our business and reputation.

50. The industry we operate in is intensely competitive and our inability to compete effectively may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition and cash flows.

Our industry is highly competitive market with several major players present, and therefore it is challenging to improve market share and profitability. Many of our competitors may have greater financial, manufacturing, R&D, marketing and other resources, more experience in obtaining regulatory approvals, greater geographic reach, broader product ranges or a stronger sales force. Our competitors may succeed in developing products that are more effective, popular or cheaper than ours, which may render our products uncompetitive and adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

Further, some of our competitors may be consolidating and integrating, and the strength of combined companies could affect our competitive position in our business areas. Consolidated corporations may have greater financial, manufacturing, R&D, marketing and other resources, broader product ranges and larger, stronger sales forces, which may make them more competitive than us. Pricing pressure could also arise due to the consolidation in trade channels and the formation of large buying groups, like we have witnessed in the United States. Additionally, if one of our competitors or their customers acquire any of our customers or suppliers, we may lose business from the customer or lose a supplier of a critical raw material or component, which may adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

Being a REACH registered supplier of pharmaceutical products to vendors in the EU countries, our Company enjoys a significant advantage over non-REACH registered suppliers since as per a recent regulation, drugs exported by manufacturers from non-EU countries which are not REACH registered have been barred from being imported in the EU countries. If such bar were to be removed, our clients in EU countries would be able to procure their raw materials from our competitors thereby affecting our revenues and market capitalisation.

51. Our operations are labour intensive and our manufacturing operations may be materially adversely affected by strikes, work stoppages or increased wage demands by our employees or those of our suppliers.

Our operations are labour intensive and we are dependent on a large labour force for our manufacturing operations. As of June 30, 2021, we had 515 permanent employees. The success of our operations depends on availability of labour and maintaining good relationship with our workforce. Shortage of skilled/ unskilled personnel or work stoppages caused by disagreements with employees could have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations. While we have not experienced any major prolonged disruption in our business operations due to disputes or other problems with our work force in the past, there can be no assurance that we will not experience any such disruption in the future. Such disruptions may adversely affect our business and results of operations and may also divert the management's attention and result in increased costs.

Further, we engage independent contractors through whom we engage contract labour for performance of certain functions at our manufacturing units as well as at our offices. Although we do not engage these labourers directly, we are responsible for any wage payments to be made to such labourers in the event of default by such independent contractors. Any requirement to fund their wage requirements may have an adverse impact on our results of operations and our financial condition. India has stringent labour legislation that protects the interests of workers, including legislation that sets forth detailed procedures for the establishment of unions, dispute resolution and employee removal and legislation that imposes certain financial obligations on employers upon retrenchment. We are also subject to laws and regulations governing relationships with employees, in such areas as minimum wage and maximum working hours, overtime, working conditions, hiring and terminating of employees and work permits.

52. The industry in which we operate is capital intensive, and we may need to seek additional financing in the future to support our growth strategies. Any failure to raise additional financing and in a timely manner could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

We will continue to incur significant expenditure in maintaining and growing our existing infrastructure. We cannot assure you that we will have sufficient capital resources for our current operations or any future expansion plans that we may have. While we expect our cash on hand and cash flow from operations to be adequate to fund our existing commitments, our ability to incur any future borrowings is dependent upon the success of our operations. Additionally, the inability to obtain sufficient financing and in a timely manner could adversely affect our ability to complete expansion plans. Our ability to arrange financing and the costs of capital of such financing are dependent on numerous factors, including general economic and capital market conditions, credit availability from banks, investor confidence, the continued success of our operations and other laws that are conducive to our raising capital in this manner. If we decide to meet our capital requirements through debt financing, we may be subject to certain restrictive covenants. If we are unable to raise adequate capital in a timely manner and on acceptable terms, or at all, our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows could be adversely affected.

53. We are dependent on a number of key personnel, including our senior management, and the loss of or our inability to attract or retain such persons could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Our performance depends largely on the efforts and abilities of our senior management and other key personnel. We believe that the inputs and experience of our senior management and key managerial personnel are valuable for the development of business and operations and the strategic directions taken by our Company. We cannot assure you that we will be able to retain these employees or find adequate replacements in a timely manner, or at all. We may require a long period of time to hire and train replacement personnel when qualified personnel terminate their employment with our Company. We may also be required to increase our levels of employee compensation more rapidly than in the past to remain competitive in attracting employees that our business requires. The loss of the services of such persons may have an adverse effect on our business, our results of operations and our cash flows. The following are the relevant details of the promoters/ directors/ key managerial personnel who have in-depth knowledge of the operation, technology, financial and investment aspects and management of the pharmaceuticals industry:

The continued operations and growth of our business is dependent upon our ability to attract and retain personnel, including our scientists, who have the necessary and required experience and expertise. Competition for qualified personnel with relevant industry expertise in India is intense. A loss of the services of our key personnel may adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

54. Significant disruptions of information technology systems or breaches of data security could adversely affect our business.

We depend upon information technology systems, including internet-based systems, for our business operations. The size and complexity of our computer systems make them potentially vulnerable to breakdown, malicious intrusion and computer viruses. Although we have not experienced any disruptions to our information technology systems, we cannot assure you that we will not encounter disruptions in the future. Any such disruption may result in the loss of key information and disruption of production and business processes, which could adversely affect our business, results of operations and cash flows.

In addition, our systems are potentially vulnerable to data security breaches, whether by employees or others that may expose sensitive data to unauthorized persons. Such data security breaches could lead to the loss of trade secrets or other intellectual property or could lead to the public exposure of personal information (including sensitive personal information) of our employees, customers and others. Any such security breaches could have an adverse effect on our business, reputation, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

55. Certain of our Directors hold Equity Shares in our Company and are therefore interested in the Company's performance in addition to their normal remuneration or benefits.

Certain of our Directors, as reproduced below, are interested in our Company, in addition to regular remuneration or benefits and reimbursement of expenses, to the extent of their shareholding or the shareholding of their relatives in our Company. We cannot assure you that our Directors and our key managerial personnel will exercise their rights as shareholders to the benefit and best interest of our Company:

56. We have certain contingent liabilities that have not been provided for in our financial statements, which, if they materialize, may adversely affect our results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

As on the date of this RHP, we have certain contingent liabilities. If at any time we are compelled to realize all or a material proportion of these contingent liabilities or if certain contingent liabilities which we have not provided for eventually materialise, it may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Sr. No	Particulars	Amount (₹ million)
1.	Disputed tax liabilities*	3.48

*1. The Company has contingency relating to notices under Section 148(1) of the Income Tax Act, 1961, received for re-assessment of assessment years 2012-13, 2013-14, 2015-16 and 2017-18 and for assessment of assessment year 2020-21 for which liability cannot be quantifiable, as the order from the assessing officer is still pending.

2. Show cause notice issued under Rule 14 of CCR, 2014 on August 11, 2016, for utilisation of CENVET Credit of Service tax of ₹ 3.48 million, order from assessing officer is still pending.

 To the extent quantifiable.

57. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend on our earnings, financial condition, working capital requirements, capital expenditures and restrictive covenants of our financing arrangements.

Our Company has not declared any dividend in the last three Fiscals. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend on our earnings, financial condition, cash flow, working capital requirements, capital expenditure and restrictive covenants of our financing arrangements. Any future determination as to the declaration and payment of dividends will be at the discretion of our Board and will depend on factors that our Board deems relevant, including among others, our future earnings, financial condition, cash requirements, business prospects and any other financing arrangements. We cannot assure you that we will be able to pay dividends in the future.

58. We may not be able to implement our business strategies or sustain and manage our growth, which may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

In recent years, we have experienced significant growth. Our revenue from operations, on a consolidated basis, grew at a CAGR of 19.50% between Fiscals 2019 and 2021. Our growth strategy includes expanding our existing business and product portfolio in specific therapeutic areas. We cannot assure you that our growth strategies will be successful or that we will be able to continue to expand further or diversify our product portfolio. For instance, we have recently acquired manufacturing plants in Ankleshwar and Jhagadia from Gujarat Organics Limited on a slump sale basis in line with our strategies to attain inorganic growth opportunities. Pursuant to the acquisition, the Ankleshwar and Jhagadia units which includes, inter alia, the property, plant and equipment, tangible and intangible assets, identified employees, license stood transferred to our Company. We cannot guarantee that we will be able to on a sustainable basis, manage the growth, integration, profitability, scale and operations of the Ankleshwar and Jhagadia units. Further, if we are unable to manage any future capital expenditure at our Ankleshwar and Jhagadia units, it may lead to time and cost over-runs.

Accordingly, our ability to sustain and manage our growth, including by way of such inorganic growth, depends significantly upon our ability to manage key issues such as selecting, recruiting, training and retaining scientists, marketing representatives, maintaining effective risk management policies, continuing to offer products which are relevant to our customers, developing and maintaining our Manufacturing Facilities and ensuring a high standard of product quality. Our failure to do any of the preceding could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition and cash flows.

59. Our Promoters and Promoter Group will continue to retain control over our Company after completion of the Offer, which will allow them to influence the outcome of matters submitted for approval of our shareholders.

Our Promoters and Promoter Group currently own 15,658,710 Equity Shares, aggregating to 47.22% of our Equity Shares. Following the completion of the Offer, our Promoters and Promoter Group will continue to hold a significant percentage of our post-Offer Equity Share capital. This concentration of ownership could limit your ability to influence corporate matters requiring shareholder approval. As a result, they will have the ability to influence matters requiring shareholders' approval, including the ability to appoint Directors to our Board and the right to approve significant actions at Board and at shareholders' meetings, including the issue of Equity Shares and dividend payments, business plans, mergers and acquisitions, any consolidation or joint venture arrangements, any amendment to our Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association and any assignment or transfer of our interest in any of our licenses. In addition, if Our Promoters and Promoter Group do not act together, such matters requiring shareholder approval may be delayed or not occur at all, which could adversely affect our business. Moreover, our Promoters are not obligated to provide any business opportunities to us. If our Promoters and Promoter Group invest in another company in competition with us, we may lose the support provided to us by them, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations. We cannot assure you that our Promoters and Promoter Group will not have conflicts of interest with other shareholders or with our Company. Any such conflict may adversely affect our ability to execute our business strategy or to operate our business.

60. Restrictions on import of raw materials and an increase in shipment cost may adversely impact our business and results of operations

In Fiscal 2021, we imported raw materials amounting to ₹ 510.21 million, which amounted to 26.78% of our total expenses incurred on raw materials. Some of our raw material imports are regulated by the Manufacture, Storage and Import of Hazardous Chemical Rules, 1989 that, inter alia, allows the concerned authority to take any action if it deems that the chemicals proposed to be imported may cause major accidents or stop an import of chemicals based on safety and environmental considerations. We are unable to assure you that such regulations (including stringent anti-dumping measures) would not be made more stringent which would consequently restrict our ability to import raw materials from other jurisdictions. We also cannot assure you that, under these circumstances, we will be successful in identifying alternate suppliers for raw materials or we will be able to source the raw materials at favourable terms in a timely manner. Any restriction on import of raw materials could have an adverse effect on our ability to deliver products to our customers, business and results of operations. Further, any increase in export tariff will increase expenses which in turn may impact our business and results of operations.

61. If we are unable to establish and maintain an effective system of internal controls and financial risk management, our business and reputation may be adversely affected.

We are responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal measures commensurate and financial risk management with the size and complexity of our operations. Our internal audit functions make an evaluation of the adequacy and effectiveness of internal systems on an ongoing basis. Our Board is actively involved in designing, implementing, and maintaining adequate internal control relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements. While we periodically test and update our internal processes and systems, we are exposed to operational risks arising from the potential inadequacy or failure of internal processes or systems, and our actions may not be sufficient to ensure effective internal checks and balances in all circumstances. If our efforts to manage these risks are ineffective, we could suffer losses that may adversely affect our results of operations. Any future expansion and diversification in business will require us to continue to enhance our efforts to manage risks.

Our management information systems and internal procedures that are designed to monitor our operations and overall compliance may not identify every instance of non-compliance or every suspicious transaction. If internal system or processes weaknesses are identified, our actions may not be sufficient to correct such weaknesses. Failures or material errors in our internal systems may lead to failure of critical systems and infrastructure.

EXTERNAL RISK FACTORS

Risks Relating to India

62. Political, economic or other factors that are beyond our control may have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

The Indian economy and its securities markets are influenced by economic developments and volatility in securities markets in other countries. Investors' reactions to developments in one country may have adverse effects on the market price of securities of companies located elsewhere, including India. Adverse economic developments, such as rising fiscal or trade deficit, in other emerging market countries may also affect investor confidence and cause increased volatility in Indian securities markets and indirectly affect the Indian economy in general. Any of these factors could depress economic activity and restrict our access to capital, which could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations and reduce the price of our Equity Shares. Any financial disruption could have an adverse effect on our business, future financial performance, shareholders' equity and the price of our Equity Shares.

We are dependent on domestic, regional and global economic and market conditions. Our performance, growth and market price of our Equity Shares are and will be dependent to a large extent on the health of the economy in which we operate. There have been periods of slowdown in the economic growth of India. Demand for our products may be adversely affected by an economic downturn in domestic, regional and global economies. Economic growth in the countries in which we operate is affected by various factors including domestic consumption and savings, balance of trade movements, namely export demand and movements in key imports, global economic uncertainty and liquidity crisis, volatility in exchange currency rates, and annual rainfall which affects agricultural production. Consequently, any future slowdown in the Indian economy could harm our business, results of operations and financial condition. Also, a change in the government or a change in the economic and deregulation policies could adversely affect economic conditions prevalent in the areas in which we operate in general and our business in particular and high rates of inflation in India could increase our costs without proportionately increasing our revenues, and as such decrease our operating margins.

63. Natural disasters, fires, epidemics, pandemics, acts of war, terrorist attacks, civil unrest and other events could materially and adversely affect our business.

Natural disasters (such as typhoons, flooding and earthquakes), epidemics, pandemics such as COVID-19, acts of war, terrorist attacks and other events, many of which are beyond our control, may lead to economic instability, including in India or globally, which may in turn materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. While we believe that the COVID-19 pandemic has not adversely affected our operations, we cannot assure you that it will not adversely affect us in the future. Our operations may be adversely affected by fires, natural disasters and/or severe weather, which can result in damage to our property or inventory and generally reduce our productivity and may require us to evacuate personnel and suspend operations. Any terrorist attacks or civil unrest as well as other adverse social, economic and political events in India or countries to who we export our products could have a negative effect on us. Such incidents could also create a greater perception that investment in Indian companies involves a higher degree of risk and could have an adverse effect on our business and the price of the Equity Shares. A number of countries in Asia, including India, as well as countries in other parts of the world, are susceptible to contagious diseases and, for example, have had confirmed cases of diseases such as the highly pathogenic H7N9, H5N1 and H1N1 strains of influenza in birds and swine and more recently, the COVID-19 virus. A worsening of the current outbreak of COVID-19 pandemic or future outbreaks of COVID-19 virus or a similar contagious disease could adversely affect the Indian economy and economic activity in the region. As a result, any present or future outbreak of a contagious disease could have a material adverse effect on our business and the trading price of the Equity Shares.

64. Adverse geopolitical conditions such as increased tensions between India and China, could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Adverse geopolitical conditions such as increased tensions between India and China resulting in any military conflict in the region could adversely affect our business and operations. Such events may lead to countries imposing restrictions on the import or export of products or raw materials, among others, and affect our ability to procure raw materials required for our manufacturing operations. We could also be affected by the introduction of import tariffs in India, or in the countries to which we export our products, or changes in trade agreements between countries.

65. A downgrade in ratings of India, may affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Our borrowing costs and our access to the debt capital markets depend significantly on the credit ratings of India. India's sovereign rating decreased from Baa2 with a "negative" outlook to Baa3 with a "negative" outlook by Moody's and from BBB with a "stable" outlook to BBB with a "negative" outlook (Fitch) in June 2020; and from BBB "stable" to BBB "negative" by DBRS in May 2020. India's sovereign ratings from S&P is BBB-with a "stable" outlook. Any further adverse revisions to India's credit ratings for domestic and international debt by international rating agencies may adversely impact our ability to raise additional financing. A downgrading of India's credit ratings may occur, for example, upon a change of government tax or fiscal policy, which are outside our control. This could have an adverse effect on our ability to fund our growth on favorable terms and consequently adversely affect our business and financial performance and the price of the Equity Shares.

66. Financial instability in other countries may cause increased volatility in Indian financial markets.

The Indian market and the Indian economy are influenced by economic and market conditions in other countries, including conditions in the United States, Europe and certain emerging economies in Asia. Financial turmoil in Asia, Russia and elsewhere in the world in recent years has adversely affected the Indian economy. Any worldwide financial instability may cause increased volatility in the Indian financial markets and, directly or indirectly, adversely affect the Indian economy and financial sector and us. Although economic conditions vary across markets, loss of investor confidence in one emerging economy may cause increased volatility across other economies, including India. Financial instability in other parts of the world could have a global influence and thereby negatively affect the Indian economy. Financial disruptions could materially and adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. Further, economic developments globally can have a significant impact on our principal markets. Concerns related to a trade war between large economies may lead to increased risk aversion and volatility in global capital markets and consequently have an impact on the Indian economy. Following the United Kingdom's exit from the European Union ("Brexit"), there remains significant uncertainty around the terms of their future relationship with the European Union and, more generally, as to the impact of Brexit on the general economic conditions in the United Kingdom and the European Union and any consequential impact on global financial markets. For example, Brexit could give rise to increased volatility in foreign exchange rate movements and the value of equity and debt investments.

In addition, China is one of India's major trading partners and there are rising concerns of a possible slowdown in the Chinese economy as well as a strained relationship with India, which could have an adverse impact on the trade relations between the two countries. In response to such developments, legislators and financial regulators in the United States and other jurisdictions, including India, implemented a number of policy measures designed to add stability to the financial markets. However, the overall long-term effect of these and other legislative and regulatory efforts on the global financial markets is uncertain, and they may not have the intended stabilizing effects. Any significant financial disruption could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operation. These developments, or the perception that any of them could occur, have had and may continue to have a material adverse effect on global economic conditions and the stability of global financial markets? and may significantly reduce global market liquidity, restrict the ability of key market participants to operate in certain financial markets or restrict our access to capital. This could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations and reduce the price of the Equity Shares.

67. If there is any change in laws or regulations, including taxation laws, or their interpretation, such changes may significantly affect our financial statements

Any change in Indian tax laws could have an effect on our operations. For instance, the Taxation Laws (Amendment) Ordinance, 2019, a new tax ordinance issued by India's Ministry of Finance on September 20, 2019, prescribes certain changes to the income tax rate applicable to companies in India. According to this new ordinance, companies can henceforth voluntarily opt in favor of a concessional tax regime (subject to no other special benefits/exemptions being claimed), which could ultimately reduce the effective tax rate (on gross basis) for Indian companies from 30% to 22% (exclusive of applicable health and education cess and surcharge). Any such future amendments may affect our other benefits such as exemption for income earned by way of dividend from investments in other domestic companies and units of mutual funds, exemption for interest received in respect of tax free bonds, and long-term capital gains on equity shares if withdrawn by the statute in the future, and the same may no longer be available to us. Any adverse order passed by the appellate authorities/ tribunals/ courts would have an effect on our profitability.

The Finance Act, 2020 (“Finance Act”), has, amongst others things, provided a number of amendments to the direct and indirect tax regime, including, without limitation, a simplified alternate direct tax regime and that dividend distribution tax (“DDT”), will not be payable in respect of dividends declared, distributed or paid by a domestic company after March 31, 2020, and accordingly, such dividends would not be exempt in the hands of the shareholders, both resident as well as non-resident and are likely be subject to tax deduction at source. The Company may or may not grant the benefit of a tax treaty (where applicable) to a non-resident shareholder for the purposes of deducting tax at source from such dividend. Investors should consult their own tax advisors about the consequences of investing or trading in the Equity Shares.

Further, a draft of the Personal Data Protection Bill, 2019 has been introduced before the Lok Sabha on December 11, 2019, which is currently being referred to a joint parliamentary committee by the Parliament. We may incur increased costs and other burdens relating to compliance with such new requirements, which may also require significant management time and other resources, and any failure to comply may adversely affect our business, results of operations and prospects. Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may impact the viability of our current businesses or restrict our ability to grow our businesses in the future.

In addition, we are subject to tax related inquiries and claims. We may be particularly affected by claims from tax authorities on account of income tax assessment and GST that combined multiple taxes and levies by the central and state governments into a unified tax structure with effect from July 1, 2017.

For instance, the Finance Act, 2019 stipulates any sale, transfer and issue of securities through exchanges, depositories or otherwise to be charged with stamp duty. The Finance Act, 2019 has also clarified that the liability to pay stamp duty in case of sale of securities through stock exchanges will be on the buyer, while in other cases of transfer for consideration through a depository, the onus will be on the transferor. The stamp duty for transfer of securities other than debentures, on a delivery basis is specified at 0.015% and on a non-delivery basis is specified at 0.003% of the consideration amount. As such, there is no certainty on the impact that the Finance Act, 2019 may have on our Company’s business and operations.

Further, the Government of India has notified the Finance Act, 2021 which has introduced various amendments to taxation laws in India. As such, there is no certainty on the impact that the Finance Act, 2021 may have on our business and operations or on the industry in which we operate. In addition, unfavourable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment laws governing our business, operations and group structure could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws or may require us to apply for additional approvals. We may incur increased costs relating to compliance with such new requirements, which may also require management time and other resources, and any failure to comply may adversely affect our business, results of operations and prospects. Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may affect the viability of our current business or restrict our ability to grow our business in the future.

We cannot predict whether any new tax laws or regulations impacting our services will be enacted, what the nature and impact of the specific terms of any such laws or regulations will be or whether, if at all, any laws or regulations would have an adverse effect on our business.

68. If inflation were to rise in India, we might not be able to increase the prices of our services at a proportional rate in order to pass costs on to our clients thereby reducing our margins.

Inflation rates in India have been volatile in recent years, and such volatility may continue in the future. India has experienced high inflation in the recent past. Increased inflation can contribute to an increase in interest rates and increased costs to our business, including increased costs of transportation, wages, raw materials and other expenses relevant to our business.

High fluctuations in inflation rates may make it more difficult for us to accurately estimate or control our costs. Any increase in inflation in India can increase our expenses, which we may not be able to adequately pass on to our clients, whether entirely or in part, and may adversely affect our business and financial condition. In particular, we might not be able to reduce our costs or increase the price of our products to pass the increase in costs on to our clients. In such case, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition may be adversely affected.

Further, the Government of India has previously initiated economic measures to combat high inflation rates, and it is unclear whether these measures will remain in effect. There can be no assurance that Indian inflation levels will not worsen in the future.

69. Rights of shareholders under Indian laws may be more limited than under the laws of other jurisdictions.

Indian legal principles related to corporate procedures, directors' fiduciary duties and liabilities, and shareholders' rights may differ from those that would apply to a company in another jurisdiction. Shareholders' rights including in relation to class actions, under Indian law may not be as extensive as shareholders' rights under the laws of other countries or jurisdictions. Investors may have more difficulty in asserting their rights as shareholder in an Indian company than as shareholder of a corporation in another jurisdiction.

70. A third party could be prevented from acquiring control of us post this Offer, because of anti-takeover provisions under Indian law.

As a listed Indian entity, there are provisions in Indian law that may delay, deter or prevent a future takeover or change in control of our Company. Under the Takeover Regulations, an acquirer has been defined as any person who, directly or indirectly, acquires or agrees to acquire shares or voting rights or control over a company, whether individually or acting in concert with others. Although these provisions have been formulated to ensure that interests of investors/shareholders are protected, these provisions may also discourage a third party from attempting to take control of our Company subsequent to completion of the Offer. Consequently, even if a potential takeover of our Company would result in the purchase of the Equity Shares at a premium to their market price or would otherwise be beneficial to our shareholders, such a takeover may not be attempted or consummated because of Takeover Regulations.

71. Investors may not be able to enforce a judgment of a foreign court against us.

Our Company is incorporated under the laws of India. Our Company's Directors and officers are residents of India and a substantial portion of our assets and such persons are located in India. As a result, it may not be possible for investors to effect service of process upon our Company or such persons in jurisdictions outside India, or to enforce judgments obtained against such parties outside India. Furthermore, it is unlikely that an Indian court would enforce foreign judgments if that court was of the view that the amount of damages awarded was excessive or inconsistent with public policy, or if judgments are in breach or contrary to Indian law. In addition, a party seeking to enforce a foreign judgment in India is required to obtain approval from the RBI to execute such a judgment or to repatriate outside India any amounts recovered.

Recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments is provided for under Section 13 and Section 44A of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908. India has reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters with only a limited number of jurisdictions, such as the United Kingdom, Singapore and Hong Kong. In order to be enforceable, a judgment from a jurisdiction with reciprocity must meet certain requirements established in the Indian Code of Civil Procedure, 1908. The CPC only permits the enforcement and execution of monetary decrees in the reciprocating jurisdiction, not being in the nature of any amounts payable in respect of taxes, other charges, fines or penalties. Judgments or decrees from jurisdictions which do not have reciprocal recognition with India, including the United States, cannot be enforced by proceedings in execution in India. Therefore, a final judgment for the payment of money rendered by any court in a non-reciprocating territory for civil liability, whether or not predicated solely upon the general laws of the non-reciprocating territory, would not be directly enforceable in India. The party in whose favour a final foreign judgment in a non-reciprocating territory is rendered may bring a fresh suit in a competent court in India based on the final judgment within three years of obtaining such final judgment. However, it is unlikely that a court in India would award damages on the same basis as a foreign court if an action were brought in India or that an Indian court would enforce foreign judgments if it viewed the amount of damages as excessive or inconsistent with the public policy in India.

RISKS RELATING TO THE OFFER AND THE EQUITY SHARES

72. The trading volume and market price of the Equity Shares may be volatile following the Offer.

The market price of the Equity Shares may fluctuate as a result of, among other things, the following factors, some of which are beyond our control:

- quarterly variations in our results of operations;
- results of operations that vary from the expectations of securities analysts and investors;
- results of operations that vary from those of our competitors;
- changes in expectations as to our future financial performance, including financial estimates by research analysts and investors;
- a change in research analysts' recommendations;
- announcements by us or our competitors of significant acquisitions, strategic alliances, joint operations or capital commitments;
- announcements by third parties or governmental entities of significant claims or proceedings against us;
- new laws and governmental regulations applicable to our industry;
- additions or departures of key managerial personnel;
- changes in exchange rates;
- fluctuations in stock market prices and volume; and
- general economic and stock market conditions.

Changes in relation to any of the factors listed above could adversely affect the price of the Equity Shares.

73. The Offer Price of the Equity Shares may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares after the Offer.

The Offer Price of the Equity Shares will be determined by our Company in consultation with the Book Running Lead Managers through the Book Building Process. This price will be based on numerous factors, as described under “Basis for Offer Price” on page 96 and may not be indicative of the market price for the Equity Shares after the Offer. The market price of the Equity Shares could be subject to significant fluctuations after the Offer, and may decline below the Offer Price. We cannot assure you that you will be able to resell their Equity Shares at or above the Offer Price.

74. The Equity Shares have never been publicly traded and the Offer may not result in an active or liquid market for the Equity Shares. Further, the price of the Equity Shares may be volatile, and the investors may be unable to resell the Equity Shares at or above the Offer Price, or at all.

Prior to the Offer, there has been no public market for the Equity Shares, and an active trading market on the stock exchanges may not develop or be sustained after the Offer. Listing and quotation does not guarantee that a market for the Equity Shares will develop, or if developed, the liquidity of such market for the Equity Shares. The market price of the Equity Shares may be subject to significant fluctuations in response to, among other factors, variations in our operating results, market conditions specific to the industry we operate in, developments relating to India and volatility in the Stock Exchanges and securities markets elsewhere in the world.

75. Investors may be subject to Indian taxes arising out of income arising on the sale of the Equity Shares.

Under current Indian tax laws, unless specifically exempted, capital gains arising from the sale of equity shares held as investments in an Indian company are generally taxable in India. Any capital gain realised on the sale of listed equity shares on a Stock Exchange held for more than 12 months immediately preceding the date of transfer will be subject to long term capital gains in India at the specified rates depending on certain factors, such as whether the sale is undertaken on or off the Stock Exchanges, the quantum of gains and any available treaty relief. Accordingly, you may be subject to payment of long term capital gains tax in India, in addition to payment of Securities Transaction Tax (“STT”), on the sale of any Equity Shares held for more than 12 months immediately preceding the date of transfer. STT will be levied on and collected by a domestic stock exchange on which the Equity Shares are sold. Further, any capital gains realised on the sale of listed equity shares held for a period of 12 months or less immediately preceding the date of transfer will be subject to short term capital gains tax in India as well as STT. Capital gains arising from the sale of the Equity Shares will not be chargeable to tax in India in cases where relief from such taxation in India is provided under a treaty between India and the country of which the seller is resident and the seller is entitled to avail benefits thereunder. Generally, Indian tax treaties do not limit India’s ability to impose tax on capital gains. As a result, residents of other countries may be liable for tax in India as well as in their own jurisdiction on a gain upon the sale of the Equity Shares.

Similarly, any business income realised from the transfer of Equity Shares held as trading assets is taxable at the applicable tax rates subject to any treaty relief, if applicable, to a non-resident seller. Additionally, in terms of the Finance Act, 2018, which has been notified on March 29, 2018, with effect from April 1, 2018, the tax payable by an assessee on the capital gains arising from transfer of long term capital asset (introduced as section 112A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961) shall be calculated on such long-term capital gains at the rate of 10%, where the long-term capital gains exceed ₹100,000, subject to certain exceptions in case of a resident individuals and HUF.

76. Investors will not be able to sell immediately on an Indian stock exchange any of the Equity Shares they purchase in the Offer.

The Equity Shares will be listed on the Stock Exchanges. Pursuant to applicable Indian laws, certain actions must be completed before the Equity Shares can be listed and trading in the Equity Shares may commence. Investors’ book entry, or ‘demat’ accounts with depository participants in India, are expected to be credited with the Equity Shares within one working day of the date on which the Basis of Allotment is approved by the Stock Exchanges. The Allotment of Equity Shares in this Offer and the credit of such Equity Shares to the applicant’s demat account with depository participant could take approximately six Working Days from the Bid Closing Date and trading in the Equity Shares upon receipt of final listing and trading approvals from the Stock Exchanges is expected to commence within six Working Days of the Bid Closing Date. There could be a failure or delay in listing of the Equity Shares on the Stock Exchanges. Any failure or delay in obtaining the approval or otherwise any delay in commencing trading in the Equity Shares would restrict investors’ ability to dispose of their Equity Shares. There can be no assurance that the Equity Shares will be credited to investors’ demat accounts, or that trading in the Equity Shares will commence, within the time periods specified in this risk factor. We could also be required to pay interest at the applicable rates if allotment is not made, refund orders are not dispatched or demat credits are not made to investors within the prescribed time periods.

77. Any future issuance of Equity Shares, or convertible securities or other equity linked instruments by us may dilute your shareholding and sale of Equity Shares by the Promoters may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

We may be required to finance our growth through future equity offerings. Any future equity issuances by us, including a primary offering of Equity Shares, convertible securities or securities linked to Equity Shares including through exercise of employee stock options, may lead to the dilution of investors’ shareholdings in our Company. Any future equity issuances by us or sales of our Equity Shares by the Promoters may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares, which may lead to other adverse consequences including difficulty in raising capital through offering of our Equity Shares or incurring additional debt. In addition, any perception by investors that such issuances or sales might occur may also affect the market price of our Equity Shares. There can be no assurance that we will not issue Equity Shares, convertible securities or securities linked to Equity Shares or that our Shareholders will not dispose of, pledge or encumber their Equity Shares in the future.

78. Under Indian law, foreign investors are subject to investment restrictions that limit our ability to attract foreign investors, which may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Under foreign exchange regulations currently in force in India, transfer of shares between non-residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain restrictions), if they comply with the pricing guidelines and reporting requirements specified by the RBI. If the transfer of shares, which are sought to be transferred, is not in compliance with such pricing guidelines or reporting requirements or falls under any of the exceptions referred to above, then a prior regulatory approval will be required. Additionally, shareholders who seek to convert Rupee proceeds from a sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India require a no-objection or a tax clearance certificate from the Indian income tax authorities. We cannot assure investors that any required approval from the RBI or any other governmental agency can be obtained on any particular terms or at all. For further information, see “Restrictions on Foreign Ownership of Indian Securities” on page 348.

79. Significant differences exist between Ind AS and other accounting principles, such as Indian GAAP, U.S. GAAP and IFRS, which investors may be more familiar with and may consider material to their assessment of our financial condition.

Our Restated Consolidated Financial Statements for Fiscals 2019, 2020 and 2021 have been prepared and presented in conformity with Ind AS. Ind AS differs in certain significant respects from Indian GAAP, IFRS, U.S. GAAP and other accounting principles with which prospective investors may be familiar in other countries. If our financial statements were to be prepared in accordance with such other accounting principles, our results of operations, cash flows and financial position may be substantially different. Prospective investors should review the accounting policies applied in the preparation of our financial statements, and consult their own professional advisers for an understanding of the differences between these accounting principles and those with which they may be more familiar. Any reliance by persons not familiar with Indian accounting practices on the financial disclosures presented in this Prospectus should be limited accordingly.

80. QIBs and Non-Institutional Investors are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after the submission of their Bid, and Retail Individual Bidders are not permitted to withdraw their Bids after closure of the Bid/ Offer Closing Date.

Pursuant to the SEBI ICDR Regulations, QIBs and Non-Institutional Investors are required to pay the Bid Amount on submission of the Bid and are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid. Retail Individual Bidders can revise their Bids during the Bid/ Offer Period and withdraw their Bids until the Bid/ Offer Closing Date. While we are required to complete all necessary formalities for listing and commencement of trading of the Equity Shares on all Stock Exchanges where such Equity Shares are proposed to be listed, including Allotment, within six Working Days from the Bid/ Offer Closing Date or such other period as may be prescribed by the SEBI, events affecting the investors’ decision to invest in the Equity Shares, including adverse changes in international or national monetary policy, financial, political or economic conditions, our business, results of operations, cash flows or financial condition may arise between the date of submission of the Bid and Allotment. We may complete the Allotment of the Equity Shares even if such events occur, and such events may limit the Investors’ ability to sell the Equity Shares Allotted pursuant to the Offer or cause the trading price of the Equity Shares to decline on listing.

81. Investors may be restricted in their ability to exercise pre-emptive rights under Indian law and thereby may suffer future dilution of their ownership position.

Under the Companies Act, a company having share capital and incorporated in India must offer its holders of equity shares pre-emptive rights to subscribe and pay for a proportionate number of shares to maintain their existing ownership percentages before the issuance of any new equity shares, unless the pre-emptive rights have been waived by adoption of a special resolution by holders of three-fourths of the equity shares voting on such resolution.

However, if the law of the jurisdiction the investors are in, does not permit them to exercise their pre-emptive rights without our Company filing an offering document or registration statement with the applicable authority in such jurisdiction, the investors will be unable to exercise their pre-emptive rights unless our Company makes such a filing. If we elect not to file a registration statement, the new securities may be issued to a custodian, who may sell the securities for the investor’s benefit. The value such custodian receives on the sale of such securities and the related transaction costs cannot be predicted. In addition, to the extent that the investors are unable to exercise pre-emptive rights granted in respect of the Equity Shares held by them, their proportional interest in our Company would be reduced.

82. The requirements of being a publicly listed company may strain our resources.

We are not a publicly listed company and have not, historically, been subjected to the increased scrutiny of our affairs by shareholders, regulators and the public at large that is associated with being a listed company. As a listed company, we will incur significant legal, accounting, corporate governance and other expenses that we did not incur as an unlisted company. We will be subject to the SEBI Listing Regulations, which will require us to file audited annual and unaudited quarterly reports with respect to our business and financial condition. If we experience any delays, we may fail to satisfy our reporting obligations and/or we may not be able to readily determine and accordingly report any changes in our results of operations as promptly as other listed companies.

Further, as a publicly listed company, we will need to maintain and improve the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting, including keeping adequate records of daily transactions. In order to maintain and improve the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting, significant resources and management attention will be required. As a result, our management's attention may be diverted from our business concerns, which may adversely affect our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition. In addition, we may need to hire additional legal and accounting staff with appropriate experience and technical accounting knowledge, but we cannot assure you that we will be able to do so in a timely and efficient manner.

⁽²⁾ This amount has been derived by subtracting the Offer expenses (including the expenses for the Pre-IPO Placement) from the total of gross proceeds of the Fresh Issue and the proceeds from the Pre-IPO Placement. For details, See “- Offer Related Expenses” below.

The requirement and deployment of funds as indicated above are based on our internal management estimates, prevailing market conditions and have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution. We may have to revise our funding requirements and deployment from time to time on account of various factors, such as, change in cost, financial and market conditions, business and strategy and interest/exchange rate fluctuations or other external factors, which may not be within the control of our management. This may entail rescheduling and revising the funding requirement for a particular object or increasing or decreasing the amounts earmarked towards any of the objects at the discretion of our management, subject to compliance with applicable law. For details, see “Risk Factors –Our funding requirements and proposed deployment of the Net Proceeds and the proceeds from the Pre-IPO Placement are based on management estimates and may be subject to change based on various factors, some of which are beyond our control” on page 43.

Our Company proposes to deploy the entire Net Proceeds and the proceeds from the Pre-IPO Placement towards the aforementioned objects during Fiscals 2022 to 2023. If the Net Proceeds and the proceeds from the Pre-IPO Placement are not utilized (in full or in part) for the objects of the Offer during the period stated above due to factors such as (i) the timing of completion of the Offer; (ii) market conditions outside the control of our Company; and (iii) any other business and commercial considerations, the remaining Net Proceeds shall be utilized (in part or full) in subsequent periods as may be determined by our Company, in accordance with applicable laws.

In case of any surplus after utilization of the Net Proceeds and the proceeds from the Pre-IPO Placement towards the aforementioned objects, we may use such surplus towards general corporate purposes, provided that the total amount to be utilized towards general corporate purposes does not exceed 25% of the gross proceeds from the Fresh Issue and Proceeds from the Pre-IPO Placement in accordance with applicable law. Further, in case of any variations in the actual utilisation of funds earmarked towards the objects set forth above, then any increased fund requirements for a particular object may be financed by surplus funds (subject to utilisation towards general corporate purposes does not exceed 25% of the gross proceeds from the Fresh Issue and Proceeds from the Pre IPO Placement), if any, available in respect of the other objects for which funds are being raised in this Offer. In case of a shortfall in raising requisite capital from the Net Proceeds and the proceeds from the Pre-IPO Placement towards meeting the aforementioned objects, we may explore a range of options including utilising our internal accruals and seeking additional debt from existing and future lenders. We believe that such alternate arrangements would be available to fund any such shortfalls.

Details of the Objects

1. Repayment of loans

Our Company has entered into borrowing arrangements with banks and financial institutions including borrowings in the form of terms loans and fund based and non-fund based working capital facilities. For details of these financing arrangements including indicative terms and conditions, see “Financial Indebtedness” on page 302.

Our Company intends to utilize ₹ 1,400.00 million of the Net Proceeds and the proceeds from the Pre-IPO Placement towards repayment or prepayment of all or a portion of the principal amount on certain loans availed by our Company and the accrued interest thereon. Pursuant to the terms of the borrowing arrangements, prepayment of certain indebtedness may attract prepayment charges as prescribed by the respective lender. Such prepayment charges, as applicable, will also be funded out of the Net Proceeds and the proceeds from the Pre-IPO Placement. Given the nature of the borrowings and the terms of repayment or prepayment, the aggregate outstanding amounts under the borrowings may vary from time to time and our Company may, in accordance with the relevant repayment schedule, repay or refinance some of their existing borrowings prior to Allotment. Also, our Company may avail additional loan facilities or draw down on in its working capital facilities from time to time to meet its business requirements. Accordingly, our Company may utilise the Net Proceeds and the proceeds from the Pre-IPO Placement for repayment/prepayment of any such refinanced facilities (including any prepayment fees or penalties thereon), any additional facilities obtained by our Company or working capital borrowings outstanding at the time utilising the Net Proceeds and the proceeds from the Pre-IPO Placement. However, the aggregate amount to be utilised from the Net Proceeds and the proceeds from the Pre-IPO Placement towards prepayment or repayment of borrowings (including refinanced or additional facilities availed, if any), in part or full, will not exceed ₹1,400.00 million. We believe that such repayment or prepayment will help reduce our outstanding indebtedness and debt servicing costs and enable utilization of the internal accruals for further investment towards business growth and expansion. In addition, we believe that this would improve our ability to raise further resources in the future to fund potential business development opportunities.

The selection of borrowings proposed to be prepaid or repaid amongst our borrowing arrangements availed will be based on various factors, including (i) cost of the borrowing, including applicable interest rates, (ii) any conditions attached to the borrowings restricting our ability to prepay/ repay the borrowings and time taken to fulfil, or obtain waivers for fulfilment of such conditions, (iii) receipt of consents for prepayment from the respective lenders, (iv) terms and conditions of such consents and waivers, (v) levy of any prepayment penalties and the quantum thereof, (vi) provisions of any laws, rules and regulations governing such borrowings, and (vii) other commercial considerations including, among others, the amount of the loan outstanding and the remaining tenor of the loan.

SECTION IV - ABOUT OUR COMPANY

INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

The information contained in this section, unless otherwise specified, is derived from a report titled “Global and India Pharmaceuticals, API, Intermediates and Speciality Chemicals Market” dated May 27, 2021 prepared by Frost & Sullivan (the “F&S Report”), and commissioned by our Company in connection with the Offer. Neither we, nor the BRLMs, nor any other person connected with the Offer has independently verified this information. Industry sources and publications generally state that the information contained therein has been obtained from sources generally believed to be reliable, but that their accuracy, completeness and underlying assumptions are not guaranteed and their reliability cannot be assured. Accordingly, investment decisions should not be based on such information. See “Certain Conventions, Presentation of Financial, Industry and Market Data and Currency of Presentation – Industry and Market Data” on page 13.

Macroeconomic Overview – Global

Gross Domestic Product (GDP) Growth

The baseline forecast envisions a 6.0% growth in global GDP in 2021. 2020 experienced downfall of nearly -3.3% in Global GDP. Using market exchange rate weights—this has been the deepest global recession in decades, despite the extraordinary efforts of governments to counter the downturn with fiscal and monetary policy support. The deep recession triggered by this pandemic is expected to have short-term repercussions like low investments with the erosion of human capital and fragmentation of the global trade linkages. However, the medium-long term health of the economy will be healthy, with the demand expected to soar back to its pre-COVID levels. This is expected to be driven by the increased government investments and incentive schemes.

Real GDP Growth (%) 2012- 2026F

The near-term outlook remains highly uncertain and different growth outcomes are still possible. A downside scenario in which infections continue to rise and the rollout of a vaccine is delayed could limit the global expansion to 1.6% in 2021. Meanwhile, in an upside scenario with successful pandemic control and a faster vaccination process, global growth could accelerate to nearly 6%.

Chemicals - The Recovery Driver

The emerging market and developing economies are expected to lead the overall growth rebound, with the chemicals sector driving the growth story. As the chemical industry lies at the heart of several value chains and acts as a solution provider to other sectors of the economy, it plays a pivotal role in leading a sustainable recovery. As economies are gradually reopening for business, companies are turning their attention to recovery. As the market stands now, we forecast the following developments in the chemical industry over the mid-term (2-3 years).

- Specialty chemicals to drive growth, Agro-chemicals and Pharma-chemicals to be focus areas: Post the opening of the lockdown across major global economies, the specialty chemical industry was amongst the first to recover, given the increasing need for its inputs towards essential supplies such as pharmaceuticals, personal health and hygiene and agrochemicals. This sector is expected to be the key driver for growth in the chemicals sector, out-pacing petrochemicals and other bulk chemicals in the next 2-3 years.
- China's loss, India's gain: Several global players are opting for a "China + 1 offshore strategy", with capacities shifting to cost efficient markets with strong technology capabilities like India. Stringent environmental regulations and increased cost of labor have already stifled growth in China, which contributes 35-40% to the global chemical industry. The pandemic has compounded the situation further as companies across the world are looking for alternate supply solutions. Japan's announcement to offer incentives to companies shifting base from China to India further proves the desperation engulfing countries to reduce dependence on China and develop local supply chains. JVs / Technology transfers will drive the knowledge wave for the Indian industry, given stronger IP protection rights. China's Chemical Industry is very large, approximately 10 times, as compared to India; even a small shift from China to India will be a big boost for India. The spillover impact of China's declining competitiveness has set the stage for India to intensify its effort to capture larger market share.

Macroeconomic Overview of India

Gross Domestic Product (GDP) Growth and Outlook

An already-sliding Indian economy has been derailed from its growth track after a stringent shutdown was imposed in March-2020 to halt the spread of Covid-19. India's GDP in 2020 contracted by 8.0% – for the first time in four decades. The recovery in 2021 is expected to be in double digit following a better start to the year as compared to 2020. Near-term prospects are favourable but second covid wave is a risk to recovery. However, the medium term growth outlook is expected to improve and record a growth rate of ~6.5% by 2025F, on an account of the strong macroeconomic fundamentals which include moderate inflation, the implementation of key structural reforms and the improved fiscal and monetary policies.

Index of Industrial Production (IIP)

India's industrial production contracted in Jan 2021 to -1.6% from 2.2% in Jan 2020, underscoring the flattening of the recovery trend seen in Oct-Dec quarter. The fall also marked a weak start to the calendar year 2021. Second wave of Covid started in March-end of 2021. The new surge is taking place despite a year of awareness about the crying need to follow Covid-appropriate behaviour.

Strong Growth Path

The government has taken several measures to revive the economy and to return to a normal to high growth trajectory. As the monetary and fiscal stimuli work their way through, India can expect an economic turnaround soon. In the current slowdown, India has several advantages and comforting factors including the following:

Aatmanirbhar Bharat Abhiyan: Prime Minister Narendra Modi on May 12, 2020 announced the Aatmanirbhar Bharat Abhiyan which combined relief, policy reforms and fiscal and monetary measures to help businesses and individuals to cope with the situation created by the pandemic and helps transform India into a self-reliant economy. Government seized the crisis to push forward long-pending industrial & other economic reforms in a least political resistant atmosphere.

- This campaign is especially expected to benefit the Specialty chemicals sector, with several players hoping to position themselves as an alternative to China as the coronavirus crisis prompts companies to diversify their supply chains.
- Govt. announced a production linked incentive (PLI) scheme for the promotion and manufacturing of pharmaceutical raw materials in India. The government's move is aimed to boost domestic manufacturing and cut dependence on imports of critical Active Pharmaceutical Ingredients (APIs). Further, the government has also decided to develop three mega bulk drug parks in partnership with states. These schemes will likely appeal more to the smaller players and should foster more investments.
- The government is also in the process of launching a production-linked incentive (PLI) for the chemical sector to increase self-reliance in the country. This move is to reduce country's dependency on imports of basic chemicals. The PLI scheme will help the sector to identify import-dependent chemicals and work towards producing them within the country.
- Specialty chemical companies will look at import substitution along with export opportunities to further drive their business. Historically, domestic consumption has been the driving metric for Specialty chemicals manufacturing in India, with exports playing a much smaller part – owing to reduced raw material availability, higher utility tariffs and a stricter regulatory structure. However, owing to the current geo-political issues, India's focus on being a manufacturing hub for exports of specialty chemicals will increase, subsequently increasing the share of exports in the overall market.

Aatmanirbhar Bharat Abhiyan - 02: These announcements were made on 12th Oct 2020:

- Rs 25,000 crores provided as additional capital expenditure to Ministry of Road Transport and Ministry of Defence
- 11 States were sanctioned Rs. 3,621 crores as interest free loan towards capital expenditure

Aatmanirbhar Bharat Abhiyan- 03:

- Prime Ministers Rozgar Protsahan Yojana (PMRPY) was implemented upto 31.3.2019 to incentivize formalization and creation of new employment
- Total benefit of Rs. 8300 Crore has been given to 1,52,899 Establishments covering 1,21,69,960 Beneficiaries under PMRPY

To sum up, India's growth story at a fast pace is likely to continue because of its strong macroeconomic fundamentals. The way forward is too uncertain and it is not possible to have a precise road map for the foreseeable future. However, given India's strong fundamentals and a clear roadmap to maintain the growth trajectory, the country will remain at the forefront of global economic growth.

Global Chemical Industry Overview

Global Chemicals Market

The global chemicals market is valued at around USD 4,738 Bn in 2019 with China accounting for major market share (40%) in the segment followed by European Union (14%) and United States (13%). India accounts for ~3.5% market share in the global chemicals market. The global chemicals market is expected to grow at 6.2% CAGR; reaching USD 6,785 Bn by 2025. Going forward the APAC is anticipated to grow at the fastest rate of 7-8% during the forecast period (2019-25F). The chemicals markets in Western Europe, North America, and Japan are relatively mature and hence would record slow growth rates of around 3-4%.

Global Specialty Chemicals Market

Specialty chemicals are low-volume and high-value products which are sold on the basis of their quality or utility, rather than composition. Thus, they may be used primarily as additives or to provide a specific attribute to the end product. Specialty chemicals are more likely to be prepared and processed in batches. The focus is on value addition to the end-product and the properties or technical specifications of the chemical.

Rapid industrialisation in India and China is expected to drive demand for specialty chemicals. The Asia Pacific (APAC) dominates the market across the world, with a share of 42% in 2019, owing to the huge customer base, leading to high demand for specialty chemicals, increasing industrial production, and robust growth of the construction sector in the region.

Note: Indian chemical industry generally showcases Agrochemicals & Fertilizers and Pharma API outside of Specialty chemicals. In the above graph the specialty chemicals section, however, is inclusive of the 2 categories to maintain consistency with the Global section. Agrochemical & Fertilizer and Pharma API contribute to more than 58% of the specialty chemical space in India.

2019-25F	12.2%	11.2%	14.3%	11.9%

The Specialty chemicals industry is driven by both domestic consumption and exports. India's specialty chemical companies are gaining favour with global MNCs because of the geopolitical shift after the outbreak of Covid-19 as the world looks to reduce its dependence on China. Currently China accounts for ~15-17% of the world's exportable specialty chemicals, whereas India accounts for merely 1-2% indicating that the country has large scope of improvement and widespread opportunity. It is anticipated that Specialty chemicals will be the next great export pillar for India.

The scheme intends to boost domestic manufacturing of identified KSMs, Drug Intermediates and APIs by attracting large investments in the sector and thereby reduce India's import dependence in critical APIs. The Government of India announced INR 9,940 crore packages to boost the domestic API manufacturing industry. Impact of Make in India

The chemical industry contributes approximately 6.6% of national gross domestic product and accounts for 15-17% of India's manufacturing sector in FY19. The government permits 100% foreign direct investment (FDI) in this sector under the automatic approval route. The manufacturing of most chemical products inter-alia covering organic/inorganic, dyestuff and pesticides is de-licensed. The factors such as boost to specialty (as well as fine agrochemicals) chemicals due to rapid development in construction and agricultural sector, inadequate per capita consumption and strong demand from paints, textiles and diversified manufacturing base shall aid towards the development of Indian chemicals sector.

Frost & Sullivan's analysis indicates that the major indicators like success of Make in India and governments' permit for 100% FDI is positively impacting specialty chemicals segment; pertaining to competitive manufacturing costs, higher investments in R&D, cheaper raw material availability/transport, strong demand from end-use segments, overall supportive ecosystem, etc. Within the specialty chemicals, manufacturing of fine chemicals (pesticide ingredients as well active pharmaceutical ingredients), flavour & fragrance ingredients, surfactants and colorants will be most attractive segments in the next half decade. This is due to their strong growth potential, highly differentiated products and high penetration levels predominantly.

On the pharmaceutical industry front, realigned government policies to reduce the manufacturing facility approval time with a less than two weeks timeline for receiving NOC for export licenses will support the leading players such as Dr Reddy's Laboratories Ltd, Cadila Pharmaceuticals Ltd, Cipla Ltd etc. to continue to dominate the API manufacturing in India. Furthermore, with a cost advantage of almost 40-50% as compared to regulated markets and the availability of sufficient R&D infrastructure, India is expected to continue to enjoy a competitive advantage in the region there by assuring a strong CRAMS (Contract Research & Manufacturing Services) industry growth.

The Government of India is committed to ensuring the delivery of affordable healthcare in the country as well as ensuring that there is a steady supply of critical drugs. This has resulted in the launch of the Production Linked Incentive Scheme (PLI) for APIs, KSMs and DIs as well as the Scheme for Promotion of Bulk Drug Parks. These schemes have been constructed to incentivize large-scale manufacturing of critical bulk drugs and to build the required infrastructure for developing manufacturing clusters for across India. This aligns with the Government's mission for self-reliance (atmanirbharta).

In addition to the production linked incentive (PLI) scheme, the Department of Pharmaceuticals (DoP) is planning to allow the industry to import a maximum of 30% of the total value of chemicals/ intermediates. Having categorised Pharmaceuticals as a 'priority sector', the government is aggressively working on creating a single-window clearance to expedite FDI and domestic investment in the Pharmaceuticals sector. The government is also expected to introduce a production-linked incentive scheme for the agro-chemicals sector with incentives of 10-20% output and creating an end-to-end manufacturing ecosystem through cluster development. The government has taken initiative to promote and facilitate 'Aatmanirbhar Bharat' (self-reliance India) in the chemicals and petrochemicals sector.

India – Racing Ahead of China

China's specialty chemicals market has seen a downturn in recent years due to various factors. Most prominent amongst these are the recent environmental norms introduced by the Chinese government, which have led to shutdown of a number of chemical plants.

The Chinese government started implementing stricter environmental protection norms from January 2015. With the focus on controlling pollution, the Chinese Ministry of Environmental Protection enforced strict penalties on polluting industries, including chemicals. Some of the major steps taken were:

- Shift towards gas-based power plants from coal-based ones
- Implementation of strict penalties for noncompliance
- Construction of compulsory effluent treatment plants
- Mandatory for all polluting industries to operate from industrial clusters away from habitat
- Small to mid-size chemicals plants to relocate by the end of 2020
- All larger plants must relocate by the end of 2025 and start the process by no later than 2020
- Taxes to be levied on polluting industries based on pollution type, location and severity

As a result of all of the above, the Chinese chemical companies are witnessing a rise in capex and opex costs, making them less competitive in the export market. In 2017, an estimated 40% of the chemical manufacturing capacity in China was temporarily shut down for safety inspections, with over 80,000 manufacturing units charged and fined for breaching emission limits.

Chemicals Exports Trend – India vs China (2015-24F), USD Bn

Source: World Bank, Frost & Sullivan

Note: The forecasted data is not published by World Bank; it has been calculated considering the same CAGRs (as historical trends) for both the countries. The actual CAGR for India and China respectively for the period 2015-2019 stood at around 13% and 7%; as World Bank does not forecast the export trends, the same CAGR (13% for India and 7% for China) has been considered for the forecast period 2020-2024.

There is an ample replaceable export market for India to capitalize on, and weave a strong growth story for chemicals – led by Specialty chemicals.

Several global players prefer a “China + 1 offshore strategy”, with capacities shifting to cost efficient markets with strong technology capabilities like India. Stringent environmental regulations and increased cost of labor have already stifled growth in China, which contributes 35-40% to the global chemical industry. The pandemic has compounded the situation further as companies across the world are looking for alternate supply solutions. Japan's announcement to offer incentives to companies shifting base from China to India further proves the desperation engulfing countries to reduce dependence on China and develop local supply chains. JVs/ Technology transfers will drive the knowledge wave for the Indian industry, given stronger IP protection rights. The spillover impact of China's declining competitiveness has set the stage for India to intensify its effort to capture larger market share.

Currently Indian companies are experiencing wave of bigger orders from Global companies who previously used to purchase from Chinese counterparts. Many customers have been dependent on China for a long time and they are looking for an alternative and India is their preferred choice. Many small and large companies are experiencing surge in demand from global companies who are shifting their source from China to India.

With new regulations in place and the Chinese companies adhering to new norms, they are expected to bounce back with certain level of reforms in the way of operations. Whenever the Chinese companies make a comeback, it would be at a significantly higher cost of production given the significant investment in environmentally compliant equipment and manufacturing practices. India, in the meantime, would have significantly strengthened its position in the global supply chain and would be a very viable alternative for global players looking to de-risk their supply chain, while retaining their sourcing costs. Pharmaceuticals and agrochemicals are some of the key sectors that are particularly set to benefit from this shift in dynamics, wherein the Chinese manufacturers continue to operate at lower capacity levels, given the increased monitoring of safety standards and compliance norms.

The powering trend of de-risking of input procurement from China by global chemical leaders offers great export as well as domestic sales opportunity for Indian specialty chemical industry.

Cost and Availability of Skilled Labour in India and China

Labour represents one of the main costs of manufacturing goods. And importers have watched China's labour costs soar in recent decades, often growing by 10-15% annually. China's minimum wages, which now range from about USD 140 to USD 346 per month, are set at the provincial level.

Region-wise Specialty Chemicals Growth, 2019-24F, %

Source: Frost & Sullivan

In terms of region-wise demand, India's specialty chemicals industry is expected to witness the maximum growth of 11-12% CAGR over the next five years compared with other markets, due to rising demand from end-user industries, coupled with tight global supply on account of stringent environmental norms in China. Markets like Americas, Europe and Japan are expected to clock less than 4% CAGR over the next five years, due to industry saturation in these regions.

Global manufacturers have initiated talks with Indian firms to explore the possibility of shifting a part of their supply chains from China as they seek to diversify their operations following the covid-19 outbreak. First of the lot are companies interested in sourcing automobile components and electronic products from India. In the chemicals sector, India could become global specialty chemical export hub. The key growth accelerator would be our readiness in responding to the strong demand of key global markets to de-risk their supply chain by diversifying their base beyond China. In a way China's loss is India's gain. The tightening of environmental protection norms in China since January 2015 resulting in increase in operating costs, closure and relocation of manufacturing facilities along with rising labour costs and the recent trade dispute between China and United States have reduced Chinese exports and resulted in shifting the source of key raw materials from China to India.

India Pharmaceutical Market - Industry Drivers

1. Rising Healthcare Expenditure

The Indian healthcare industry is expected to be among the top-3 healthcare industries globally in terms of incremental growth by 2020. The growing prevalence of chronic diseases due to an increasing aged population in India and globally, coupled with government initiatives for manufacturing under 'Make in India' and the global need for lower cost therapies at high quality has led to health investments from pharmaceutical players, fostering development of the healthcare industry

2. Increasing Income

In India, domestic consumption has increased 3.5 times over the past decade from about 31 trillion to about 110 trillion. BCG forecasts that by 2028 this will exceed approximately 335 trillion. Consumers are increasing their discretionary spending on healthcare, with several APIs expected to grow exponentially owing to this trend of increased per capita consumption. Also, ~73Mn households expected to shift to middle class over next 10 years

3. Growth in Application segment for Intermediates

Indian API sector is growing at a promising rate (The Indian API market has shown steady growth of 9% since 2015 and is expected to further expand at nearly 8% going forward till 2025.) due to its research-based processes, low-cost operations and availability of skilled manpower. Many of the companies are also investing to have a strong backward integration and source intermediates locally. To meet the global demand, many international players are now integrating with Indian companies.

4. Growing Geriatric Population

India is seeing an ageing population increase. The percentage of old people (60 years or over) in India will increase from 8.9% in 2015 to 12.5% in 2030, according to UN projections. In addition, 19.4% of the total population of India will be over 60 years of age by 2050. The nation would also see an improvement in the ratio of old age dependence from 13% in 2000 to 32.8% in 2050.

5. Cardiovascular Diseases

Cardiovascular disorders are among the world's deadliest disorders, with India being a victim of them as well. Of the total deaths in India, these diseases account for 26% (2.5 million). In addition, the cumulative economic burden of non-communicable diseases (including mental health conditions) is expected to cross US$ 4.58 trillion in India between 2012 and 2030.

6. Diabetes

India is one of the world's fastest-growing markets for diabetes. There were 69.18 million individuals with diabetes in India in 2015. This number is expected to grow to 79.4 million individuals 2030 and around 123.5 million by 2040. (Source: National Centre for Biotechnology Information – NCBI)

Global Active Pharmaceutical Ingredients Market

The Global API market has shown steady growth of 5.9% since 2015 and is expected to further expand at 6.1% due to an increased focus on developing geographies.

Growth in the Active Pharmaceutical Ingredients market will be primarily driven by government initiatives, regional penetration, increasing aged population and patent expiration of prominent drugs. Investments in R&D coupled with patent expirations of drugs will make Asia Pacific the fastest growing API market. Synthetic API's form about 70% of the total market and Biologics about 30%.

Cardiovascular is one of the growing segments associated with growth in lifestyle diseases. Cardiovascular diseases (CVDs) became the leading cause of mortality in India. The anticoagulants market is anticipated to show significant market growth during the forecast period, owing to increase in prevalence of ischemic heart disease and venous thromboembolism (VTE) and awareness of novel oral anticoagulants (NOACs).

Some of the other API classes which are experiencing good market growth are Antipsychotic, Antidepressants, Parkinson's, Anticoagulants, ARVs among others.

Outbreak of Covid-19 in 2020 and second-wave peaking in 2021 has led to growing cases of people across the world undergoing depression phase. Owing to this the Antipsychotic and Antidepressants drug are highly sought and the therefore these markets are expected to grow with a decent CAGR.

Domestic Consumption vs. Exports

Of the total domestic API demand, about 32–35% was imported in 2019. India imported USD 3.48 Bn worth of bulk drugs in FY19. Of the overall imports, 57-60% of the imported APIs originate from China alone.

Imports: Bulk Drugs & API

While India is one of the world's leading exporters of formulated drugs, its pharmaceutical industry relies heavily on bulk drug imports.

The Indian pharma industry is highly dependent on imports from China for some of the key APIs: penicillin G, levodopa, streptomycin, meropenem, carbidopa, vancomycin, gentamicin and progesterone. Domestically produced APIs account for 60 – 70% of the total quantity; however, key starting material (KSMs) for some key APIs like caffeine, chloramphenicol, azithromycin, sulfadoxine, ciprofloxacin, metformin, ciprofloxacin, levofloxacin, ofloxacin, ampicillin, amoxicillin and cephalosporins are sourced from China. All fermentation-based products like penicillin G, amoxicillin and tetracycline, which are used as base chemicals for most antibiotics, have a very high dependence on China.

Source: CII, Frost & Sullivan Analysis

Imports from China have been on a steady rise over the years (from 62% in FY12 to 64% in FY19) due to the low-cost advantage enjoyed by Chinese manufacturers. In FY19, India imported USD 2.23 billion worth of APIs from China while exporting merely USD 0.224 billion worth of APIs to China. However India is trying to reduce its dominance on China for APIs. India plans API production push and hopes to challenge Chinese dominance. India is reportedly working on a plan to supersize its own ingredient manufacturing to combat Chinese dominance in the market. The Indian government is planning to escalate domestic production of pharmaceutical ingredients to counteract a perceived over-reliance on Chinese imports now hampered by COVID-19 shutdowns. India has identified and prioritized production of 53 raw materials and active pharmaceutical ingredients (APIs) as part of its "China-plus-one" policy to fill in supply gaps of affordable medicines.

Why is India well placed to see growth in this market

The key strategy of the Indian manufacturers till date has been to do a higher value addition to the products and then explore markets across the globe for better realization. As such most companies focused on producing speciality products and started importing the basis key starting materials and intermediates. Many of the key starting materials and intermediates thus have been imported to large extent from over a decade from China, which has been an economical sourcing option. Almost 80% of the intermediates as of 2019 were imported.

Cost Head	China Advantage
Raw Material	Cheaper by 25-30% as compared to India
Electricity	Lower by 20% compared to India
Labour	1.8 times higher than India
Other Costs	Cheaper by 30%

The Government of India's proposition to support local manufacturing of many possible raw materials and intermediates especially in the Pharmaceutical space will enhance the growth in domestic market and reduce imports, especially from China. With shift in investments from regulated markets like Europe to developing countries like India, domestic production is expected to increase, reducing dependency on imports encouraging the current trend of exports of intermediates to grow substantially.

Government Initiatives

India has plans to give impetus to domestic API production. The report released in 2015 by the committee made recommendations as follows: Setting up of six large API manufacturing clusters or mega parks in five to six states. These clusters would be equipped with facilities such as common effluent plants, testing facilities, assured power supply, and IPR management

- Provision of financial benefits to producers: -A 15-year tax holiday for developers / participants of clusters
- The government is also considering exempting producers from the Drug Price Control Order (DPCO) if a drug is made from a locally produced API⁵⁷⁷.
- Land and other infrastructure installations at concessional rates, interest subsidies on bank loans (up to 7.5% interest subsidy)
- Single-window environmental clearance of all drugs to API manufacturers until the plant is authorised by the Ministry of the Environment
- Income tax advantages for an initial duration of 10 years from the date of launch of the product for each product
- A plan to provide a corpus of about INR5 billion in venture capital funding to support pharmaceutical SMEs was also submitted
- Liberalize FDI policies with 100% FDI in the pharmaceutical industry-74% under the automatic route for brownfield projects and 100% under the automatic route for greenfield projects. The government has adopted this Unique zones and bulk drug parks- A cluster structure specific to bulk drugs was created by the Department of Pharmaceutical in 2016. It proposed a public-private partnership (PPP) model for setting up a cluster with government funding of up to 70% of the project cost, subject to an INR 0.2 billion cap. A sum of INR 1.25 billion was allocated for this cluster creation scheme in the 2012-17 five-year plan.

Overview of Therapeutics

Global Antidepressants Market

Antidepressants are medications that can help relieve depression symptoms. The objective is to correct the chemical imbalances of neurotransmitters in the brain that are believed to be responsible for changes in behavior and mood. They can also be used to treat several other conditions, including generalized anxiety disorder, obsessive-compulsive disorder (OCD), post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), and are sometimes used when treating people with chronic pains. Although antidepressants can treat the symptoms of depression, they don't address the causes, hence are typically used in combination with other therapies.

Global Antidepressants, Industry size (USD Bn), 2015-2025F

The Antidepressants market is primarily driven by the increase in the prevalence of depression, raising awareness regarding depression, and required clinical needs. According to WHO, depression affects 300 million people worldwide and is a common illness. Depression can become a severe health condition when long-lasting with moderate or severe intensity and can even lead to suicide. Moreover, the rising number of people suffering from stress, the emergence of novel drugs with lesser side-effects and growing elderly population, who are prone to suffer from subsyndromal depression, are expected to drive the market further. The global demand for antidepressants has grown as mental health issues have surged due to the effect of the Covid-19 pandemic making an impact on the global economy. Isolation and anxiety triggered by the coronavirus have heightened demand for mental-health medication. In USA, prescriptions for the antidepressant drug grew 12% in March versus the same month last year. Across the globe there was shortage of antidepressants and its generics. A number of drugmakers are having trouble keeping up with higher demand as they are not able to adequate supply of active pharmaceutical ingredients (APIs) to make the medicines.

North America accounts for the largest share in the global antidepressant drugs market. This can be mainly attributed to factors the increasing prevalence of depression and government incentives to promote awareness regarding depression.

Global Antipsychotic Drugs Market

Psychosis is a disorder where the person may face serious distortion of behavior, thought, perception and recognition of reality. The patients may experience hallucinations and delusions along with having wrong evaluation and misperception of other people, facts or situations. Psychosis is not a condition but rather gets triggered due to other conditions such as stress, traumatic experiences or physical conditions namely brain tumor, Parkinson's disease or due to alcohol or drug misuse. The Global Antipsychotic Drugs Market was valued at USD 13.9 Bn in 2020 and is expected to grow at 4.3% over the forecast period till 2025.

Global Antipsychotic Drugs Market, Industry size (USD Bn), 2015-2025F

Global estimates suggest that over 1.25% of the global population suffers from psychosis and related disorders. This translates into a potential market of about 7.5 mn people as target consumers for antipsychotic drugs. Although the potential consumer base for the market is relatively much smaller than that for diseases such as cancer and diabetes, the high costs of antipsychotic drugs make the market one with promising returns. The market holds immense growth promise for future years as the patient pool of psychotic conditions rises at an alarming rate across the globe. The introduction of newer antipsychotic compounds and the vast funds poured in for research and development activities are also expected to have a significant positive impact on the overall development of the market in the near future.

Extensive geographical presence and diversified customer base with long standing relationships

We cater to domestic and certain multi-national pharmaceutical companies which cater to the large and fast-growing markets of Europe, China, Japan, Israel, UK, Latin America and the USA. In Fiscals 2021, 2020 and 2019, our revenue from exports contributed 51.57%, 45.89% and 49.61%, respectively of our revenue from operations. We supply our products to 25 countries and have long standing relationships with numerous domestic and global pharmaceutical companies. Specifically, we cater extensively to the large geographies of Italy, Finland, France and China, which contributed to 35.47%, 17.67%, 10.55% and 9.45% respectively, of our total revenue from exports for Fiscal 2021.

Diversification of our customer base across the domestic and global markets has limited our exposure to a risk of concentration, enabling us to further diversify and expand our business relationships. Some of our domestic customers includes Laurus Labs Limited and Cipla Limited and our export customers includes Organike s.r.l.a Socio Unico, Fermion Oy, Fabbrica Italiana Sintetici S.p.A, Chori Co. Ltd., Medichem S.A. and Midas Pharma GmbH. We believe that our ability to diversify into new markets, with limited exposure to the risk of dependence on any specific market is a key strength in our business operations.

We have established long standing relationships with our key customers. Our top ten customers for Fiscal 2021 have been our customers for over 3 years and have contributed to 60.99% of our total revenue from operations. Further thirteen of our customers have been customers since the past 10 years and fifty of our customers have been customers since the past five years. Ability to address the varied and stringent client requirements over long periods enables the Company to obtain additional business from existing clients as well as new clients in an industry marked by high entry barriers.

High entry barriers in the chemicals manufacturing industry in which the Company operates.

We manufacture and market advanced pharmaceutical intermediates used for manufacturing of APIs and NCEs in select therapeutic areas such as anti-retroviral, anti-inflammatory, anti-psychotic, anti-cancer, anti-Parkinson, anti-depressant and anti-coagulant. This pharmaceutical intermediates business has high entry barriers inter alia due to: (a) a long gestation period to be enlisted as a supplier with the customers, particularly with the customers in US and European countries, which requires suppliers to adhere to strict compliance requirements, leading to a high regulatory gestation period; and (b) the involvement of complex chemistries in the manufacturing process, which is difficult to commercialize on a large scale. Our Sachin facility is USFDA inspected and in respect of which we have received the EIR twice, in 2018 and 2020.

Further, APIs and NCEs manufactured by our customers, where our products are used, and where such use has been formally recognised in filings with regulatory agencies, any change in the vendor of the product may require significant time and cost for the customer resulting in a propensity amongst customers to continue with the same set of suppliers. Hence, customer acquisition involves a long gestation period, resulting in a very few players being involved in manufacturing of the products.

Further, post 2018, in order to import into, market and sell chemical drugs in the European Union, the drugs need to be registered under the Registration, Evaluation, Authorization and Restriction of Chemicals (“REACH”) Regulations. A registration under REACH is primarily a comfort registration for the purposes of ensuring local support point on behalf of the non-EU manufacturer that does not have a local presence in the said country within the European Union. As a consequence of this measure, no new entrants can supply products into the European Union market unless such entrant holds a valid registration under the REACH Regulations. Our Company secured REACH registration for some of its products for the purposes of selling and marketing these products in the European Union with an added advantage of being a ‘preferred supplier’ to its customers in the said territory. We believe that this is a significant entry barrier that works in favour of our Company and places it in a major advantageous position vis-à-vis its competitors in the critical European market wherein our Company intends to cater to the regulated players (i.e., the originators and not generic makers).

Further, given the nature of the application of our products, our processes and products are subject to, and measured against, high quality standards and stringent impurity specifications. We believe that we have, over the years, built strong relationships with our customers, who recognise our technical capabilities and timely deliveries and associate our Company with good and consistent quality products.

Moreover, handling of some of the raw materials that we use such as Thionyl Chloride, Phosphorus Oxychloride and Sodium Methoxide requires a high degree of technical skill and expertise, and operations involving such hazardous chemicals ought to be undertaken only by personnel who are well trained to handle such chemicals. We believe that the level of technical skill and expertise that is essential for handling such chemicals can only be achieved over a period of time, creating a further barrier for new entrants.

Strong sales and marketing capabilities

We believe we have strong sales, marketing and distribution capabilities. Since our Company’s incorporation in 2007, we have created a sales division, aligned with our key therapeutic areas and have focused on developing and growing our engagement with specialists and super specialists. Our marketing team utilizes a variety of sales and marketing techniques and programs to promote our products, including promotional materials, speaker programs, key pharmaceutical trade exhibitions such as CPHI and CHEMSPEC, industry publications, advertising and other media besides reliance on a strong market research-based model wherein we focus on development of advanced pharmaceutical intermediates either for molecules which are under clinical trials; or for molecules which have been launched and approved by pharmaceutical regulators worldwide, including the US-FDA.

As a result of its continuous marketing efforts, our Company has received new product requirements from multiple innovators which shall help our Company remain relevant with respect to our reliability for servicing future product requirements. Our Company services its domestic and its export customers through its marketing and sales team in India and by way of certain distributorship arrangements in overseas jurisdictions.

Experienced and Dedicated Management Team

We are led by qualified and experienced Board of Directors and key managerial personnel, who we believe have extensive knowledge and understanding of the global generic pharmaceutical business environment and have the expertise and vision to organically scale up our business. Our executive directors have a collective pharmaceutical industry experience of more than 5 decades and almost all of them have been associated with our Company since our formative years.

Our Executive Chairman and Managing Director, Nareshkumar Ramjibhai Patel (who is also our Promoter since inception of our Company), a qualified chemical engineer has been associated with the Company since 2004 and has been responsible for chemical engineering & project implementation and our Whole-time Director, Chetankumar Chhaganlal Vaghasia (who is also our Promoter) has been associated with the Company since its inception and has over 17 years of experience in the chemical industry. Both Nareshkumar Ramjibhai Patel and Chetankumar Chhaganlal Vaghasia are ably supported by Virendranath Mishra who was earlier a KMP and now also a Whole-time Director and have been instrumental in formulating and executing the core strategy of our Company. We believe that our stable, senior management team has helped us in successfully implementing our development and operating strategies over the years. We believe that owing to the understanding of the industry trends, demands and market changes of our senior management team, we have been able to adapt and diversify our operating capabilities and take advantage of market opportunities since the incorporation of the Company.

Apart from the members on our Board, we believe that the knowledge and experience of our senior and middle-level management team members in the pharmaceutical business provides us with a significant competitive advantage as we seek to grow our business. For further details of our key managerial personnel, see “Our Management” on page 187.

Our Strategies

Diversification of product portfolio by strengthening R&D capabilities

With the objective of early identification and attaining early development, we constantly seek to introduce new product verticals and develop our R&D capabilities to distinguish ourselves from our competitors particularly with a view to enhance our development of advanced pharmaceutical intermediates used for manufacturing of APIs and NCEs, either for molecules under clinical trial or those which have been launched. We have a state of art R&D centre which has been approved by DSIR for developing advanced pharmaceutical intermediates and has specialised team of over 60 people across various teams including R&D, regulatory affairs, quality control, quality assurance and analytical development laboratory. Our total spend on R&D vis-à-vis our turnover has increased from 0.99% in Fiscal 2019 to 1.91% in Fiscal 2021. Of our current (as of June 30, 2021) team of 66 R&D professionals, 6 hold Ph.Ds. and 41 hold a master's degree.

With a view to further strengthen our R&D capabilities, we continuously recruit and appoint scientists of varied experience and expertise at our R&D laboratory with an objective to successfully implement our strategy of early identification of development and manufacturing opportunities. Strategic investments in R&D has been critical to our success and a differentiating factor vis-à-vis our competitors in becoming one of the key suppliers of pharmaceutical intermediates for API in both domestic and global markets.

We have also developed and manufacture specialty chemicals for pharmaceutical, cosmetics, food processing, flavour and fragrance, dyes, polymer, agrochemicals and animal feed industries.

Our Company's focus has been to develop cost effective processes for manufacturing our products and we have filed eight process patent applications in relation to the same and three additional pending process patent applications for which applications were made recently, in March 2021 and has developed significant expertise in chemistry and series of molecules. In addition to production of pharmaceutical intermediates for several API's such as Trazodone, Quetiapine, Mirtazapine, Aripirazole, Naftopidil, Vilazodone etc., our Company also has a presence in heterogenous nitrogen compounds such as Piperazine, Piperidine, Quinolines, Acetonitrile etc. Additionally, we have recently diversified our product portfolio as a result of the acquisition of GOL, by virtue of which we have inducted preservatives and other specialty chemicals in our existing product portfolio, including Methyl paraben, Methyl Salicylate, Para Ethoxy Ethyl Benzoate (PEEB), 5-chloro Salicylic acid, Para Anisic Acid and Propyl Paraben.

We intend to develop, test and manufacture new products meeting regulatory standards subsequent to receipt of requisite regulatory approvals from the relevant authorities in India and overseas and make investments on an ongoing basis in new product launches and research and development for future products. We also intend to invest in development of products which are used in manufacture of APIs being used in formulations whose patents are expiring, which would lead to increase in demand for the Pharma Intermediates for such APIs. Additionally, our recent acquisition of GOL's business has now enabled us to manufacture certain products which are manufactured by us in India like PHBA, Paraben derivatives and Cyano phenol.

Augmenting scale through organic and inorganic routes in the current geographic markets and expanding into new geographic markets

As per the F&S Report, the Government of India's proposition to support local manufacturing of many possible raw materials and intermediates especially in the pharmaceutical space will enhance the growth in domestic market and reduce imports, especially from China. With shift in investments from regulated markets like Europe to developing countries like India, domestic production is expected to increase, reducing dependency on imports encouraging the current trend of exports of intermediates to grow substantially. With many global end users looking for alternative to China, India stands as an immediate alternate due to its significant years of experience in handling global regulatory requirements, strong process know how, strength in R&D and low cost. India has good number of well-trained chemists and R&D scientists to support the ever-evolving pharmaceuticals industry.

Our Company supplies advanced pharmaceutical intermediates used for manufacturing of APIs and NCEs to over 150 customers in India and 25 countries overseas and has established itself as a trusted and reliable supplier of advanced pharmaceutical intermediates used for manufacturing of APIs and NCEs, globally.

As on March 31, 2021, the annual installed capacity of our Manufacturing Facilities was 6,060 MTPA. Our Ankleshwar and Jhagadia Facilities (with annual installed capacities of 1,200 MTPA and 2,400 MTPA respectively) were acquired on March 31, 2021, and were accordingly not utilised in Fiscal 2021. We believe that our Company is well positioned to consolidate its existing capacity to capitalise upon future growth that is envisaged. We aim to strengthen our manufacturing capability and achieve better economies of scale by organic and inorganic growth. We have, and continue to, expand our business through organic growth to increase our production capacities and product portfolio, including by way of our recent acquisitions which we believe significantly increases our production capabilities. Consistent with past practice, we will look to add capacity in a phased manner to ensure that we utilize our capacity at optimal levels.

In Fiscal 2018, we established a new state-of-the-art fully GMP-compliant manufacturing unit at the Sachin Facility, and we believe that this new and excess capacity will help us capitalize on the growth opportunities. In addition, the acquisition of the Ankleshwar Facility and the Jhagadia Facility, both multipurpose backward integrated facilities in Fiscal 2021, has enabled us to expand our product portfolio to include the manufacture of speciality chemicals including Ortho Anisic Acid, Para Anisic Acid, Para Cyano Phenol, Para Ethoxy Ethyl Benzoate, Para Iso Propoxy Ethyl Benzoate, 5-Chloro Salicylic Acid, 2-Ethoxy Benzoic Acid, Methyl Salicylate, Meta Anisic Acid Propyl and paraben and paraben formations including Propyl Paraben Sodium, Methyl Paraben Sodium, Methyl Paraben, Ethyl Paraben and Propyl Paraben.

Going forward, we may consider acquisition/ investment opportunities to selectively expand in other verticals. We believe such acquisitions will support our long-term strategy, strengthen our competitive position, particularly in acquiring technical expertise and provide greater scale to grow our earnings and increase shareholder value.

Continue to focus on cost efficiency and improving productivity while employing environmentally friendly processes.

Our Company strongly believes in conducting its business operations in an environmentally responsible manner. We have set up a Zero Liquid Discharge based in-house effluent plant at our Sachin Unit.

As we operate in a fiercely competitive industry wherein technology plays a critical role for being a relevant market player with no assurance that the technology developed or adopted by our peers and competitors shall not render our products less competitive or attractive, we continuously strive to keep our technology, facilities and machinery current and updated with the latest international standards. Further, we intend to position ourselves as a leading market player in our product verticals, both domestically and internationally by adopting the latest technological changes and be responsive to the constant technological upgradations and emerging standards to ensure cost efficiency and environmentally friendly processes in our business operations. We believe that making timely and cost-effective enhancements and additions to our technological infrastructure shall ensure that we keep up with technological improvements in order to meet our customer requirements.

Sourcing of raw materials also plays an important part in ensuring competitiveness, price flexibility and profitability. We usually do not enter into long-term supply contracts with any of our raw material suppliers. Pricing and volumes are negotiated for each purchase order. The purchase price of our raw materials generally follows market prices. We depend on third-party vendors and suppliers for the purchase of raw materials. We have historically sourced raw materials from multiple vendors in India, China, Europe, Israel and Japan and continue to diversify our procurement base.

We have also developed backward integration capabilities for key raw materials which has helped us in minimising reliance on third party vendors. We also enter into contract manufacturing agreements with vendors to supply raw materials. This allows us to minimise supply failure risk and generate greater negotiating power over our suppliers.

Diversification of our business by focussing on organic and inorganic growth opportunities

We intend to pursue strategic acquisitions and partnerships to complement our organic growth and internal expertise. We also intend to develop our internal capacities and production abilities to achieve intended levels of organic growth. We believe that by pursuing strategic acquisitions including the recently concluded acquisition of the business of GOL, we will add to our capabilities and technical expertise or enter into partnerships to strengthen our product infrastructure and overall manufacturing capabilities in the specialty chemicals sector. We are in the process of building our synergies and we believe that such inorganic expansion will help us building synergies going forward. We may in the future, use some of the land area available to us (which currently stands at 15,830.00 sq mtr, in our Jhagadia facility to explore brownfield expansion opportunities.

This R&D facility employs equipment and systems such as modern fume hood systems, autoclave, vacuum tray dryers, high vacuum distillation assembly, large flasks & glass reactor assembly, and Analytical Development Laboratory (ADL) is supported with analytical instruments like LCMass, GCMASS, HPLCs, GCs, UV spectrophotometer, ultrasonic bath, FTIR, auto-titrator, photo stability & stability chambers, digital polarimeter etc.

Warehouse

For the purposes of supporting the production facility subsequent to the capacity expansion, our Company has built a 1050 MT warehouse facility for storage of raw materials and packing materials which is spread over 2,812 sq. mtrs in the vicinity of our Sachin facility in compliance with the standards applicable to the companies engaged in pharmaceutical and good market practices and which also comprises of a quality control area for cold storage of raw materials. Considering that the storage of chemicals is significantly critical wherein materials with incompatible chemical properties should not be stored next to each other to avoid any reactive accident, the said risk is covered with allocation of dedicated storage space for water reactive chemicals and alkaline and acidic chemicals in the warehouse.

Capacity and Capacity Utilization

As on the date of this DRHP we have three manufacturing facilities and our total annual installed capacity is 6,060.00 MTPA. Our Sachin Facility has an annual installed capacity of 2,460.00 MTPA.

Our installed capacity and capacity utilisation of our products at the Sachin Facility for the last three Fiscals is set out in the table below:

Particulars	Fiscal 2021	Fiscal 2020	Fiscal 2019
Installed capacity (MTPA)	2,460 ⁽¹⁾	2,109 ⁽²⁾	2,706
Available Capacity (MTPA)	2,255 ⁽¹⁾	2,557 ⁽²⁾	2,706
Production (MT) ⁽³⁾	1,425	1,164	962
Capacity Utilisation (%) ⁽⁴⁾	63%	46%	36%

⁽¹⁾In Fiscal 2021 one new unit with capacity of 351MTPA were installed on November 1, 2020.

⁽²⁾In Fiscal 2020 one unit with capacity of 597 MTPA were demolished on December 31, 2019.

⁽⁴⁾Capacity utilization (%) has been calculated on the basis of production in the relevant period divided by the available capacity during the relevant Fiscal year.

Our Ankleshwar Facility and Jhagadia Facility have an annual installed capacity to manufacture 1,200.00 MTPA and 2,400.00 MTPA, respectively. As we acquired the Ankleshwar Facility and Jhagadia Facility in March 2021, our Company has not utilised the facility for manufacturing any of our products in the Fiscal 2021.

Utilities

Our manufacturing operations require a significant amount of power and water. Our power requirements are fulfilled through electricity connection from the state electricity board for a maximum contracted demand of 1,000 KvAH at Sachin facility, 1,000 KvAH at Ankleshwar Facility and 1,000 KvAH at Jhagadia Facility, and the state water board provides potable water for operating our Manufacturing Facilities. We have entered into an arrangement with Gujarat Gas Company Limited for supply of natural gas and also have an in-house captive power generation plant.

Order processing and dispatch process

The above chart describes the process flow that we employ from the stage of receiving a purchase order from a customer till the dispatch of the product.

The process typically commences with our Company receiving the purchase order(s) from the customer(s) providing for, inter-alia, the product description, quantity, rate and the delivery address basis which our Company secures the raw materials from the approved vendors to manufacture the final product(s). The raw materials received are then subjected to an in-house sampling exercise and are evaluated on the basis of out-of-specification (“OOS”) test results which include all the test results that fall outside the specifications or acceptance criteria established in drug applications or by the manufacturer. In case the raw materials do not qualify to be suitable for the product specification(s) received by our Company under the purchase orders, the same are rejected.

The manufacturing equipment is then cleansed for production and subsequently, the approved raw materials are processed for manufacturing as per the approved batch production and control record with in-process product sampling being done in parallel. This is followed by the final product sampling exercise and the products are evaluated on the basis of OOS test results. In case the final product(s) do not qualify to be suitable for the product specification(s) received by our Company under the purchase orders, the same are rejected. Thereafter, the approved product(s) are reviewed, and the batch of product is released finally leading to dispatch of the product(s) to the customer.

Research and Development

We are focused on undertaking dedicated R&D in areas, which we believe, have significant growth potential. We continually invest in R&D activities to stay ahead and create a differentiating factor and sustainability vis-à-vis our competitors. We believe that our systematic approach to selection of molecules, which involves evaluation of technical, and commercial feasibility data, and customer feedback has resulted in the growth of our business operations. Our ADL support R&D in the development activities, freezing specifications and developing the method of analysis for finished products, in process intermediates and key starting raw materials. As part of our recognition towards R&D, we were felicitated at the 16th FGI Awards for Excellence (Research in Science & Technology) in 2021.

We have a dedicated in-house R&D facility located at GIDC Sachin and is also supported by the ADL equipped with in-house LCMass, GCMAss, Stability Chamber etc., in relation to developmental activities, freezing specifications and developing the method of analysis for finished products, in process intermediates, key starting materials (KSMs) and raw materials. Our R&D facility has been approved and certified by the DSIR.

Our Company is mainly focussed on development of advanced pharmaceutical intermediates either for molecules (i) under clinical trials; or (ii) launched and approved. Towards the end of catering to this strategy, our Company has divided its research team in the following four groups:

- (i) Group 1: Group 1 focusses on developing molecule for NCE which are used in clinical trials. The requirement for such molecules is received from the customers of our Company who ensure guaranteed business to our Company in case of successful launching of the NCE and provide a long-term advantage to our business operations.
- (ii) Group 2: Group 2 focusses on working for the products already launched and approved and ensuring the preparedness of our Company to serve the generic market and generic developers. This group works towards securing future business opportunities for use of the intermediates of our Company at the time of expiration of the patent rights.
- (iii) Group 3: Group 3 works on the enquiries other than the focus areas of Group 1 and Group 2 and remains available for any trouble shooting from the production team in addition to catering to the ongoing requirements from other research companies.
- (iv) Group 4: Group 4 focusses on the improvement of the processes developed by Group 1, Group 2 and Group 3 on an ongoing basis in addition to supporting the quality assurance department of our Company in relation to preparation of impurity and other samples for finalization of the intermediate master file which is submitted to the customer for preparation and filing of the DMF of their API.

In line with our focus on R&D activities, we have also made an investment in our Joint Venture, Ami Onco-Theranostics, LLC, a Delaware, USA entity (“AOL”), which, by way of a transfer of patent usage rights by our JV Partner Photolitec LLC, is entitled to the worldwide usage (except China) of certain patents used in the development of new photosensitizing compounds used to identify and treat cancer through patent and patent applications and additional know-how regarding the same.

Our research team consists of a dedicated team of 66 experienced junior and senior scientists in QC, QA, ADL and R&D laboratories (“R&D Team”) and is well supported by equipment and facilities required for high quality research and scale-up tasks.

In addition, as of March 31, 2021, our Company has eight process innovation patent applications in India applications (in respect of intermediates used in the manufacture of Apixaban, Rivaroxaban, Nintedanib, Vortioxetine, Selexipag, Pimavanserin, Efinaconazole and Eliglustat) which are presently published in the Official Journal of the Patent Office in India and three additional pending patent applications for which applications were made recently, in March 2021 and May 2021.

We believe that our R&D has led, and will continue to lead to new, innovative processes that can increase the efficiencies of production including developing cost-effective manufacturing processes, as well as address opportunities that we have identified in the global market for our businesses. We have incurred an expenditure of ₹ 64.99 million, ₹ 85.94 million and ₹ 23.63 million towards R&D activities during the Fiscals 2021, 2020 and 2019 representing 1.91%, 3.59%, and 0.99%, our revenue from operations in such periods, respectively.

Competition

We compete against domestic companies operating in our industry. Some of our competitors have (i) greater financial and other resources and better access to capital than we do, which may enable them to compete more effectively; and (ii) better geographical reach which gives them the ability to quote competitively as the transportation costs are limited. However, depending on various factors, and the extent of our presence in the relevant geographical region, we are able to leverage our experience, established relationships and familiarity with the industry to provide cost effective products than our competitors or offer a better value proposition.

Corporate Social Responsibility

We have adopted a Corporate Social Responsibility (“CSR”) policy and have constituted a CSR Committee in compliance with the requirements of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Companies (Corporate Social Responsibility) Rules, 2014 notified by Central Government and amendments thereto. Laws in relation to our business

The Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940 (“DCA”) and Drugs and Cosmetics Rules, 1945 (“DC Rules”)

DCA and DC Rules regulate the import, manufacture, distribution and sale of drugs and cosmetics in India including labelling, packing and testing as well as matters pertaining to drug formulations and all substances used as components for drugs such as Active Pharmaceutical Ingredient (“API”).

It empowers the Central government to prescribe rules for testing and licensing new drugs. The procedures provide for obtaining a series of approvals at different stages of testing drugs, before the Drug Controller General of India (“DCGI”), an authority established under the DCA which grants the final license to allow the drug to be manufactured and marketed. Obtaining an approval from DCGI involves an application to be made to the DCGI. Upon examining the medical data, the chemical data and the toxicity of the drug, the DCGI issues a no objection certificate. The no objection certificate allows the manufacturer of the drug to move on to the next stage of testing at the central drug laboratories. The drug is subject to a series of tests at the central drug laboratories, for its chemical integrity and analytical purity. If the drug meets the standards required by the authority, the authority issues a certificate in that respect. The DCGI issues a manufacturing and marketing license in respect of APIs. These licenses are submitted by the company seeking to produce the drug, to the drug control administration of the state which clears the drug for manufacturing and marketing. The drug control administration also provides the approval for technical staff as per the DCA and DC Rules framed under the DCA. The approvals for licensing are to be obtained from the drug control administration. The Central Drugs Standard Control Organisation is responsible for testing and approving APIs and formulations in consultation with the DCGI. The approval process for conducting clinical trials, manufacturing and marketing of a drug depends on whether the drug is new chemical entity or a Recombinant Deoxyribonucleic Acid (“RDNA”) product. The DCA mandates that every person holding a license must keep and maintain such records, registers and other documents as may be prescribed which may be subject to inspection by the relevant authority.

DC Rules enacted to give effect to the provisions of the DCA to regulate the manufacture, distribution and sale of drugs and cosmetics in India. The DC Rules prescribe the procedure for submission of samples of drugs for analysis or test to the Central Drugs Laboratory, the forms of Central Drugs Laboratory’s certificates thereon and the fees payable in respect of such reports. The DC Rules also prescribe the drugs or classes of drugs or cosmetics or classes of cosmetics for the import of which a licence is required, and prescribe the form and conditions of such licences, the authority empowered to issue the same and the fees payable therefore. The DC Rules provide for the cancellation or suspension of such licence in any case where any provisions or rule applicable to the import of drugs and cosmetic is contravened or any of the conditions subject to which the licence is issued is not complied with. The DC Rules further prescribe the manner of labelling and packaging of drugs.

The DC Rules lay down the process mechanics and guidelines for clinical trial, including procedure for approval for clinical trials. Clinical trials require obtaining of free, informed and written consent from each study subject. The DC Rules also provide for compensation in case of injury or death caused during clinical trials along with free medical management. The Central Drugs Standard Control Organization has issued the guidelines for submission of clinical trial application for evaluating safety and efficacy, for the purpose of submission of clinical trial application as required under the DC Rules. The Indian Council of Medical Research has issued the National Ethical Guidelines for Biomedical Research Involving Human Participants, 2017 which envisage that medical and related research using human beings as research participants must, necessarily, inter alia, ensure that the research is conducted in a manner conducive to, and consistent with, their dignity, well-being and under conditions of professional fair treatment and transparency. Further, such research is subjected to evaluation at all stages.

The Essential Commodities Act, 1955 (“ECA”)

The ECA gives powers to the Central Government to control production, supply and distribution of trade and commerce in certain essential commodities for maintaining or increasing supplies, and for securing their equitable distribution and availability at fair prices or for securing any essential commodity for the defence of India or the efficient conduct of military operations. Using the powers under it, various ministries or departments of the Central Government have issued control orders for regulating production, distribution, quality aspects, movement and prices pertaining to the commodities which are essential and administered by them. The State Governments have also issued various control orders to regulate various aspects of trading in essential commodities such as food grains, edible oils, sugar and drugs. Penalties in terms of fine and imprisonment are prescribed under the ECA for contravention of its provisions.

The Drugs (Price Control) Order, 2013 (“DPCO 2013”)

The DPCO 2013 was issued by the Central Government under Section 3 of the ECA and in supersession of the Drugs (Prices Control) Order, 1995, thereby giving effect to the National Pharmaceuticals Pricing Policy, 2012. The DPCO 2013, inter alia, provides that the Central Government may issue directions to the manufacturers of active pharmaceutical ingredients or bulk drugs and formulations to increase production or sell such active pharmaceutical ingredient or bulk drug to such manufacturer of formulations and direct the formulators to sell the formulations to institutions, hospitals or any agency, procedures for fixing the ceiling price of scheduled formulations of specified strengths or dosages, retail price of new drug for existing manufacturers of scheduled formulations, method of implementation of prices fixed by Government and penalties for contravention of its provisions. The Government has the power under the DPCO 2013 to recover amounts charged in excess of the notified price from the manufacturer, importer or distributor and the said amounts are to be deposited in the Drugs Prices Equalization Account. The DPCO 2013 prescribes certain instances in which case the provision of the DPCO 2013 will not be applicable. These provisions are applicable to all scheduled drugs and other drugs may be regulated, if warranted in public interest.

The Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 (“Narcotic Act”)

The Narcotic Act sets out the statutory framework for drug law enforcement in India. It prohibits cultivation, production, manufacture, possession, sale, purchase, transportation, warehousing, consumption, inter-state movement, trans-shipment and import and export of narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances, except for medical or scientific purposes. It also controls and regulates selected chemicals, commonly known as precursors, which can be used in the illicit manufacture of narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances. Offences under the Narcotic Act are essentially related to violations of the various prohibitions imposed under it, punishable by both imprisonment and monetary fines. The Narcotic Act was amended in 1989 to mandate death penalty for offences after previous conviction relating to contraventions involving more than certain quantities of specified narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances.

The Poisons Act, 1919 (“Poisons Act”)

The Poisons Act regulates the import, possession and sale of poisons. It empowers the State Government to frame rules for regulation of possession for sale and sale of poisons. It also empowers the Central Government to prohibit the import of any specified poison into India across any customs frontier defined by the Central Government and also regulates the grant of license. Any contravention of the provisions of the Poisons Act may be punished with imprisonment or fine or both.

The Indian Boilers Act, 1923 (“Boilers Act”) and the Indian Boiler Regulations, 1950 (“Boiler Regulations”)

The Boilers Act seeks to regulate inter alia, the manufacture, possession and use of boilers. In terms of the provisions of the Boilers Act, an owner of a boiler is required to get the boiler registered and certified for its use, by an inspector appointed by the relevant State Government. The Boiler Regulations have been framed under the Boilers Act. The Boiler Regulations deal with the materials, procedure and inspection techniques to be adopted for the manufacture of boilers and boiler mountings and fittings.

The Explosives Act, 1884 (“Explosives Act”) and the Explosives Rules, 2008 and amendments thereto (“Explosives Rules”)

The Explosives Act is a comprehensive law to regulate the manufacturing, possession, sale, transportation, export and import of explosives. The Central Government may, for any part of India, make rules consistent with this act to regulate or prohibit, except under and in accordance with the conditions of a license granted as provided by those rules, the manufacture, possession, use sale, transport, import and export of explosives, or any specified class of explosives. Extensive penalty provisions have been provided for manufacture, import or export, possession, usage, selling or transportation of explosives in contravention of the Explosives Act. In furtherance to the purpose of this Act, the Central Government has notified the Explosive Rules in order to regulate the manufacture, import, export, transport and possession for sale or use of explosives.

The Petroleum Act, 1934 (“Petroleum Act”) and the Petroleum Rules, 2002 and amendments thereto (“Petroleum Rules”)

The Petroleum Act regulates the import, transport and storage of petroleum, among other things. Persons intending to use petroleum in the manner provided by the Petroleum Act need to acquire a license for the same from relevant authorities. The Central Government, may from time to time, declare by rules and notifications places where petroleum may be imported, the periods within which license shall be applied for, regulations relating to transport of petroleum, nature and conditions in which they may be stored etc. The Petroleum Rules were enacted by the Central Government to further provide a framework for inter alia the storage, delivery, dispatch, transport, importation of petroleum, importation of petroleum.

Legal Metrology Act, 2009 (“LM Act”) and the Legal Metrology (Packaged Commodities) Rules, 2011 (“Packaged Commodity Rules”)

The LM Act seeks to establish and enforce standards of weights and measures, regulate trade and commerce in weights, measures and other goods which are sold or distributed by weight, measure or number. The LM Act and rules framed thereunder regulate inter alia, the labelling and packaging of commodities, verification of weights and measures used, and lists penalties for offences and compounding of offences under it. The Controller of Legal Metrology Department is the competent authority to grant the licence under the LM Act. Any manufacturer dealing instruments for weights and measuring of goods must procure a license from the state department under the LM Act. Any non-compliance or violation under the LM Act may result in inter alia a monetary penalty on the manufacturer or seizure of goods or imprisonment in certain cases.

The Packaged Commodity Rules regulate the pre-packing and the sale of commodities in a packaged form, and provide certain rules to be adhered to by wholesale and retail dealers, the declarations to be made on every package, the manner in which the declarations shall be made, etc. These declarations that are required to be made include, inter alia, the name and address of the manufacturer, the dimensions of the commodity and the weight and measure of the commodity in the manner as set forth in the Packaged Commodity Rules. The Packaged Commodity Rules were amended in the year 2017 to increase protection granted to consumers. Some recent additions include increased visibility of retail price, removal of dual MRP and bringing e-commerce within the ambit of these rules.

The Patents Act, 1970

The Patents Act, 1970 governs the patent regime in India. As a signatory to the Trade Related Agreement on Intellectual Property Rights (“TRIPS”), India was required to ensure that its patent laws were in compliance with the TRIPs by January 1, 2005. Under this new patent regime, India is required to recognise product patents as well as process patents. The new regime provides for:

- Recognition of product patents in respect of food, medicine and drugs;
- Patent protection period of 20 years as opposed to the earlier seven-year protection for process;
- Patent protections allowed on imported products; and
- Under certain circumstances, the burden of proof in case of infringement of process patents may be transferred to the alleged infringer.

The Patents (Amendment) Act, 2005 has made certain changes to the Patents Act, 1970 (“Patents Act”). The definition of inventive step in the Patents Act has been amended to exclude incremental improvements or ever greening of patents. Now, (a) an inventive step must involve a technical advance as compared to the existing knowledge or must have economic significance or both, and (b) the invention must be non-obvious to a person skilled in the art. Section 3(d) of the Patents Act has been amended to exclude the following from the definition of patents:

- the mere discovery of a new form of a known substance which does not result in the enhancement of the known efficacy of that substance, or
- the mere discovery of any new property or new use for a known substance or of the mere use of a known process, machine or apparatus unless such known process results in a new product or employs at least one new reactant.

The explanation to Section 3(d) clarifies that salts, esters, ethers, polymorphs, metabolites, pure form, particle size, isomers, mixtures of isomers, complexes, combinations, and other derivatives of known substance shall, unless they differ significantly in properties with regard to efficacy, be considered the same substance. Thus, the law now stipulates that derivatives, isomers, metabolites of known substances are not easily patentable without the establishment of significant improvements in properties. The proviso to Section 11A(7) has been introduced in the Patents Act to provide protection to those Indian enterprises which have made significant investment in and have been producing and marketing a product prior to January 1, 2005, for which a patent has been granted through an application made under Section 5(2) of the Patents Act and have continued to manufacture the product covered by the patent on the date of grant of the patent. In such a case, the patent-holder shall only be entitled to receive reasonable royalty from such enterprises and cannot institute infringement proceedings against such enterprises.

The Trade Marks Act, 1999 (“Trademarks Act”)

The Trademarks Act provides for the application and registration of trademarks in India for granting exclusive rights to marks such as a brand, label and heading and obtaining relief in case of infringement. The Trademarks Act also prohibits any registration of deceptively similar trademarks or chemical compounds among others. It also provides for infringement, falsifying and falsely applying for trademarks.

Environmental Laws

The Environment Protection Act, 1986 (“EPA”) the Environment Protection Rules, 1986

The EPA is an umbrella legislation designed to provide a framework for the Government to co-ordinate the activities of various central and state authorities established under other laws, such as the Water (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1974 and the Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1981. The EPA vests the Government with various powers including the power to formulate rules prescribing standards for the discharge of environment pollutants from various sources as given under the Environment (Protection) Rules, 1986, inspection of any premises, plant, equipment or machinery, and examination of processes and materials likely to cause pollution.

The EPA provides for the protection and improvement of the environment and for matters connected therewith, and includes, without limitation, the rule making power of the central government to determine the standards of quality of air, water or soil for various areas and purposes, the maximum allowable units of concentration of various environmental pollutants, the procedure for handling of hazardous substances, the prohibition and restrictions on the location of industries, and the carrying on of processes and operations in different areas. Among other things, these rules regulate the environmental impact of construction and development activities, emission of air pollutants, and discharge of chemicals into surrounding water bodies. The responsibility of primary environmental oversight authority is given to the Ministry of Environment and Forest (“MoEF”), the Central Pollution Control Board and the State Pollution Control Board (“SPCB”). Penalties for violation of the EPA include fines up to ₹100,000, imprisonment of up to 5 years, or both. In addition, the MoEF looks into Environment Impact Assessment (“EIA”), wherein it assesses the impact that proposals for expansion, modernization and setting up of projects would have on the environment before granting clearances.

The Water (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1974 (“Water Act”)

The Water Act mandates that the previous consent of the SPCB be taken before establishing any industry, operation or process, or any treatment and disposal system or an extension or addition thereto, which is likely to discharge waste or trade effluents into a stream, well, sewer or onto land, bring into use any new or altered outlet for the discharge of sewage, or begin to make any new discharge of sewage. In addition, a cess is payable under the Water (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Cess Act, 1977 by a person carrying on any specified industry..

The Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1981 (“Air Act”)

The Air Act was enacted for the prevention, control and abatement of air pollution. The State Government may declare any area as an “air pollution control area” and the previous consent of the SPCB is required for establishing or operating any industrial plant in an area so declared. Further, no person operating any industrial plant in any such area is permitted to discharge any air pollutant in excess of the standard laid down by the SPCB. The persons managing industry are to be penalized if they produce emissions of air pollutants in excess of the standards laid down by the SPCB. The SPCB may also apply to the Court to restrain persons causing air pollution. Whoever contravenes any of the provisions of the Air Act or any order or direction issued is punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to 3 months or with a fine of ₹10,000 or with both, and in case of a continuing offence, with an additional fine which may extend to ₹5,000 for every day during which such contravention continues after initial conviction.

Hazardous and Other Wastes (Management and Transboundary Movement) Rules, 2016 (“HWM Rules”)

The HWM Rules allocate the responsibility to the occupier and operator of any facility that treats hazardous wastes to collect, treat, store or dispose them without adverse effects accruing to the environment. Moreover, the occupier and the operator must take steps to ensure that persons working at the site are given adequate training and equipment for performance of their work. Hazardous wastes can be collected, treated, stored and disposed of only in such facilities as may be authorised for this purpose. The occupier is liable for damages caused to the environment resulting from the improper handling and disposal of hazardous waste, and any fine that may be levied by the respective SPCB.

The Bio Medical Waste (Management and Handling) Rules, 2016 (“BMW Rules”)

The BMW Rules apply to all persons who generate, transport, treat, dispose or handle bio-medical waste in any form. Now, their scope has been widened to now also provide for the pre-treatment of lab waste, blood samples, etc. It mandates the use of a barcode system for proper control. It has simplified categorisation and authorisation. The BMW Rules mandate every occupier of an institution generating bio-medical waste to take steps to ensure that such waste is handled without any adverse effect to human health or the environment, and to set up biomedical waste treatment facilities as prescribed under them. They further require such persons to apply to the prescribed authority for grant of authorization and submit to them an annual report. Finally, these persons are also required to maintain records related to the generation, collection, storage, transportation, treatment, disposal and/or any form of handling of bio-medical waste in accordance with the BMW Rules and the guidelines issued thereunder.

The Manufacturing, Storage and Import of Hazardous Chemicals Rules, 1989 (“MSIHC Rules”)

The MSIHC Rules, as amended, stipulate that an occupier in control of an industrial activity has to provide evidence for having identified major accident hazards and having taken adequate steps to prevent such accidents and limiting their consequences to persons and the environment. Further, the occupier has an obligation to show that he has provided necessary information, training and equipment, including antidotes, to the persons working on the site to ensure their safety. They are also under an obligation to notify the concerned authority on the occurrence of a major accident on the site or pipeline within 48 hours of occurrence.

Public Liability Insurance Act, 1991 (“Public Liability Act”)

The Public Liability Act, as amended, imposes liability on the owner or controller of hazardous substances for any damage arising out of an accident involving such substances. A list of ‘hazardous substances’ covered by the legislation has been enumerated by the Government by way of a notification under the EPA. The owner or handler is also required to take out an insurance policy that insures against liability under the legislation. The rules made under the Public Liability Act mandate that the employer has to contribute towards the Environment Relief Fund a sum equal to the premium payable to the insurer on the policies taken out.

Gas Cylinder Rules, 2016 (“Gas Cylinder Rules”)

The Department of Labour, Government of India, has declared compressed gas filled in metallic containers as explosives under Section 17 of the Explosives Act, 1884 (IV of 1884). The Central Government, in exercise of powers under Section 5 and Section 7 of the said Act, had promulgated the Gas Cylinder Rules, 2016, to regulate filling, possession, transport and import of such gases. The objective of these Rules is to ensure safety of persons engaged in the filling, possession, transportation and import of such gases in compressed or liquefied state. A person can fill or possess such cylinders filled with compressed gas only once they have duly obtained the license from Chief Controller, who will certify compliance with the construction standards after being shown the necessary test and inspection certificates.

Chemical Accidents (Emergency Planning Preparedness and Response) Rules, 1996 (“Chemical Accidents Rules”)

The Chemical Accidents Rules had been promulgated under the EPA for preparedness and response during chemical disasters and the operation of on-site and off-site emergency plans. They provide for the creation of the “State Crisis Group”, “District Crisis Groups” and the “Local Crisis groups”. The major function of the State Crisis Group is to review all district off-site emergency plans in the State with a view to examine their adequacy, to assist the State Government in the planning, preparedness and mitigation of harm during a major chemical accident, to continuously monitor the post-accident situation arising out of major chemical accident in the State, and to forward a report to the Central Crisis Group. The District Crisis Group assists in the preparation of the district off-site emergency plan, reviews all the on-site emergency plans, assists the district administration in the management of chemical accidents at a site in the district, and continuously monitors chemical accidents. The “Local Crisis Group” is a body in the industrial pocket, constituted to deal with chemical accidents and to coordinate efforts in planning, preparedness and mitigation efforts during such an accident.

GST is an indirect tax applicable throughout India which replaced multiple cascading taxes levied by the central and state governments. The GST is levied as Dual GST separately but concurrently by the Union (central tax - CGST) and the States (including Union Territories with legislatures) (State tax - SGST) / Union territories without legislatures (Union territory tax- UTGST). The Parliament has exclusive power to levy GST (integrated tax- IGST) on inter-State trade or commerce (including imports) in goods or services. It was introduced as The Constitution (One Hundred and First Amendment) Act, 2017, following the passage of Constitution 122nd Amendment Bill. The GST is governed by a GST Council and its Chairman is the Finance Minister of India.

- Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 (“CGST Act”)

CGST Act regulates the levy and collection of tax on the intra-State supply of goods and services by the Central Government or State Governments. The CGST Act amalgamates a large number of Central and State taxes into a single tax. The CGST Act mandates every supplier providing the goods or services to be registered within the State or Union Territory it falls under, within 30 days from the day on which he becomes liable for such registration. Such registrations can be amended, as well as cancelled by the proper office on receipt of application by the registered person or his legal heirs.

- Gujarat Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 (“GGST Act”)

The interest on levy of or exemption of customs duty is laid down under Chapter V of the Act. The clearance of imported goods and export shall not apply to baggage and goods imported or to be exported by post.

Regulation of Foreign Investment

Foreign investment in Indian securities is governed by the provisions of the Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999, as amended (“FEMA”) read with the applicable FEMA Regulations. The Consolidated Foreign Direct Investment Policy (“FDI Policy”) consolidates and supersedes all previous press notes, press releases and clarifications on FDI issued by the DIPP. The FDI Policy will be valid until the DIPP issues an updated circular. Foreign investment is permitted (except in the prohibited sectors) in Indian companies either through the automatic route or the approval route, where approval from the Government or the RBI is required, depending upon the sector in which foreign investment is sought to be made.

Under the automatic route, the foreign investor or the Indian company does not require any approval of the RBI or Government for investments. Where FDI is allowed on an automatic basis without the approval of the Government, the RBI would continue to be the primary agency for the purposes of monitoring and regulating foreign investment. Subject to the provisions of the FDI Policy, FDI is allowed under the automatic route in the greenfield pharmaceutical projects up to 100% and in the brownfield pharmaceutical projects up to 74% under the automatic route and beyond 74% under the approval route.

Remission of Duties and Taxes on Exported Products (“RoDTEP”)

Through a press release dated March 13, 2020, the Cabinet Committee on Economic Affairs approved the RoDTEP scheme for reimbursement of taxes, duties, or levies, at the Central, State and local level, which are currently not being refunded under any other mechanism, but which are incurred in the process of manufacture and distribution of exported products. This scheme has replaced the ongoing Merchandise Export from India Scheme (“MEIS”) introduced by the Foreign Trade Policy 2015-2020.

By way of notification bearing number 30/2015-2020 dated September 1, 2020, the Department of Commerce, Ministry of Commerce and Industry imposed a ceiling on the benefits under the MEIS available to exporters from September 1, 2020 and discontinued all benefits under the MEIS with effect from January 1, 2021. The detailed operational framework for the RoDTEP, particularly the rates under the RoDTEP have not yet been notified. The notified rates will apply to all products from January 1, 2021, irrespective of the date of the notification.

The Foreign Trade Policy 2015-2020 also makes provisions for duty free import for export production through various means including Duty Exemptions Schemes such as Advance Authorizations and Duty Free Import Authorizations and Duty Drawback Scheme administered by the Department of Revenue

HISTORY AND CERTAIN CORPORATE MATTERS

3.01 Basis of preparation of financial statements

Basis of consolidation

Investments in associates and joint ventures

An associate is an entity over which the Group has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee but is not control or joint control over those policies. A joint venture is a joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the joint arrangement. Joint control is the contractually agreed sharing of control of an arrangement, which exists only when decisions about the relevant activities require unanimous consent of the parties sharing control.

The results and assets and liabilities of associates or joint ventures are incorporated in these consolidated financial statements using the Proportionate consolidation. Proportionate consolidation is a method of accounting whereby a venturer's share of each of the assets, liabilities, income and expenses of a jointly controlled entity is combined line by line with similar items in the venturer's financial statements or reported as separate line items in the venturer's financial statements.

The Group discontinues the use of the proportionate consolidation method from the date when the investment ceases to be an associate or a joint venture, or when the investment is classified as held for sale. When the investment becomes a subsidiary, the Group accounts for its investment in accordance with Ind AS 103 'Business Combination'. When the Group retains an interest in the former associate or joint venture and the retained interest is a financial asset, the Group measures it at fair value at that date and the fair value is regarded as its fair value on initial recognition in accordance with Ind AS 109. The difference between the carrying amount of the associate or joint venture at the date the equity method was discontinued, and the fair value of any retained interest and any proceeds from disposing of a part interest is included in the determination of the gain or loss on disposal of the associate or joint venture.

3.02 Current and non-current classification

The Company presents assets and liabilities in the balance sheet based on current / non-current classification.

An asset is classified as current when it satisfies any of the following criteria: it is expected to be realised in, or is intended for sale or consumption in, the Company's normal operating cycle.

it is held primarily for the purpose of being traded;

- It is expected to be realised within 12 months after the reporting date; or
- It is cash or cash equivalent unless it is restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least 12 months after the reporting date.
- All other assets are classified as non-current.
- A liability is classified as current when it satisfies any of the following criteria:
- It is expected to be settled in the Company's normal operating cycle;
- It is held primarily for the purpose of being traded
- It is due to be settled within 12 months after the reporting date; or the Company does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the reporting date. Terms of a liability that could, at the option of the counterparty, result in its settlement by the issue of equity instruments do not affect its classification.

All other liabilities are classified as non-current.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current only

The Ind AS are prescribed under Section 133 of the Act read with Rule 3 of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 and relevant amendment rules issued thereafter. Accounting policies have been consistently applied except where a newly issued accounting standard is initially adopted or a revision to an existing accounting standard requires a change in the accounting policy hitherto in use.

The Consolidated Financial Statements have been presented in Indian Rupees (INR), which is the Company's functional currency. All financial information presented in INR has been rounded off to the nearest two decimals of Crore, unless otherwise stated.

3.03 Use of estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with Ind AS requires the Management to make estimates, judgments and assumptions. These estimates, judgments and assumptions affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

This note provides an overview of the areas where there is a higher degree of judgment or complexity. Detailed information about each of these estimates and judgments is included in relevant notes together with information about the basis of calculation.

The areas involving critical estimates or judgments are:

Valuation of financial instruments
Useful life of property, plant and equipment
Defined benefit obligation
Provisions
Recoverability of trade receivables
Recognition of revenue and allocation of transaction price
Current tax expense and current tax payable

Annexure - V Significant accounting policies and explanatory notes to Restated Consolidated Statements

Estimates and judgments are regularly revisited. Estimates are based on historical experience and other factors, including futuristic reasonable information that may have a financial impact on the company.

Summary of significant accounting policies

A summary of the significant accounting policies applied in the preparation of the financial statements is as given below. These accounting policies have been applied consistently to all the periods presented in the financial statements.

3.04 Fair value measurement

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorised within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

Level 1 - Quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities

Level 2 - Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable.

Level 3 - Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable.

For assets and liabilities that are recognised in the financial statements on a recurring basis, the Company determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by re-assessing categorisation (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period.

The Company's Management determines the policies and procedures for both recurring fair value measurement, such as derivative instruments and unquoted financial assets measured at fair value, and for non-recurring measurement, such as assets held for distribution in discontinued operations.

At each reporting date, the Management analyses the movements in the values of assets and liabilities which are required to be remeasured or re-assessed as per the Company's accounting policies. For this analysis, the Management verifies the major inputs applied in the latest valuation by agreeing the information in the valuation computation to contracts and other relevant documents.

The Management also compares the change in the fair value of each asset and liability with relevant external sources to determine whether the change is reasonable.

For the purpose of fair value disclosures, the Company has determined classes of assets and liabilities on the basis of the nature, characteristics and risks of the asset or liability and the level of the fair value hierarchy as explained above.

This note summarises accounting policy for fair value. Other fair value related disclosures are given in the relevant notes.

Disclosures for valuation methods, significant estimates and assumptions (note 39)

Financial instruments (including those carried at amortised cost) (note 38)

Annexure - V Significant accounting policies and explanatory notes to Restated Consolidated Statements

3.05 Revenue recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable. The Company recognises revenues on sale of products, net of discounts, sales incentives, rebates granted, returns, sales taxes/GST and duties when the products are delivered to customer or when delivered to a carrier for export sale, which is when title and risk and rewards of ownership pass to the customer. Export incentives are recognised as income as per the terms of the scheme in respect of the exports made and included as part of export turnover.

Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue can be reliably measured, regardless of when the payment is being made. Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, taking into account contractually defined terms of payment and excluding taxes or duties collected on behalf of the government.

Interest and dividend income

Dividend income from investments is recognised when the shareholder's right to receive payment has been established (provided that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the amount of income can be measured reliably). Interest income from a financial asset is recognised when it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the amount of income can be measured reliably. Interest income is accrued on a time basis, by reference to the principal outstanding and at the effective interest rate applicable, which is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to that asset's net carrying amount on initial recognition

3.06 Inventories:

- i) Raw materials - is valued at the lower of cost or net realisable value. The cost is determined on FIFO /specific identification basis.
- ii) Finished goods - valued at the lower of cost or net realisable value. The cost of material is determined on FIFO/specific identification basis.
- iii) Work-in-progress is valued at material cost including appropriate production overhead.
- iv) Stores and spares are valued at the lower of cost or net realisable value. Cost is determined on FIFO basis.

3.07 Foreign currency transactions and translation

- i) Transactions in foreign currencies are recorded at the exchange rate prevailing on the date of transaction. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated in functional currency at closing rates of exchange at the reporting date.
- ii) Exchange differences arising on settlement or translation of monetary items recognised in statement of profit and loss.
- iii) As the Company enters into business transactions based on the prevailing exchange rate, forward premium and other related factors, the gain/(loss) on this account is considered to be an integral part of the operations of the Company in accordance with industry practice and to avoid distortion of operating performance.

Annexure - V Significant accounting policies and explanatory notes to Restated Consolidated Statements

3.08 Taxes

Current income tax

Current income tax assets and liabilities are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities. The Company determines the tax as per the provisions of Income Tax Act 1961 and other rules specified thereunder.

Current income tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity). Current tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in the tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations are subject to interpretation and establishes provisions where appropriate.

Deferred tax

Deferred tax is provided in full using the liability method on temporary differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes at the reporting date.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences, except:

When the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, the carry forward of unused tax credits and any unused tax losses. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised, except when the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are re-assessed at each reporting date and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profits will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

Deferred tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity). Deferred tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset if a legally enforceable right exists to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and the deferred taxes relate to the same taxable entity and the same taxation authority.

Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT)

Deferred tax assets include Minimum Alternative Tax (MAT) paid in accordance with the tax laws in India, which is likely to give future economic benefits in the form of availability of set off against future income tax liability. Accordingly, MAT is recognised as deferred tax asset in the balance sheet when the asset can be measured reliably, and it is probable that the future economic benefit associated with asset will be realised.

Current and deferred tax expense is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss, except when they relate to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax are also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity respectively. Where current tax or deferred tax arises from the initial accounting for a business combination, the tax effect is included in the accounting for the business combination.

3.09 a) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment is stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and where applicable accumulated impairment losses. Property, plant and equipment and capital work in progress cost include expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the asset. The cost of self-constructed assets includes the cost of materials, direct labour and any other costs directly attributable to bringing the asset to a working condition for its intended use, and the costs of dismantling and removing the items and restoring the site on which they are located. Purchased software that is integral to the functionality of the related equipment is capitalized as part of that equipment.

When parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, they are accounted for as separate items (major components) of property, plant and equipment.

Subsequent Cost

The cost of replacing part of an item of property, plant and equipment is recognised in the carrying amount of the item if it is probable that the future economic benefits embodied within the part will flow to the Company and its cost can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is de-recognised and charged to the statement of Profit and Loss. The costs of the day-to-day servicing of property, plant and equipment are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

b) Intangible assets

Intangible assets are stated at cost less accumulated amortisation and impairment loss. The system software which is expected to provide future enduring benefits is capitalised. The capitalised cost includes license fees and cost of implementation/system integration.

Depreciation and amortisation

The depreciation on tangible assets is calculated on SLM method over the estimated useful life of assets prescribed by the Schedule II to the Companies Act 2013 as follows:

Asset class	Useful life as per management
Plant and machinery:	15 years
Office equipment	5 years
Computers/Servers	3/6 years
Vehicles	8 years
Furniture and fixtures	10 years
Electrical installation	10 years
Office premises	60 years
Residential premises	60 years
Factory Building	30 years

The residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation of property, plant and equipment are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

Derecognition of assets

An item of property plant & equipment and any significant part initially recognised is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of the asset is included in the income statement when the asset is derecognised.

3.10 Investment property

Property that is held for long term rental yield or for capital appreciation or both, and that is not occupied by the Company, is classified as Investment property. Investment properties measured initially at cost including related transitions cost and where applicable borrowing cost. Subsequent expenditure is capitalised to the assets carrying amount only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the expenditure will flow to the entity and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. All other repairs and maintenance costs are expensed when incurred. When part of an investment property is incurred the carrying amount of replaced part is derecognised.

Investment properties other than land are depreciated using SLM method over the estimated useful life of assets prescribed by the Schedule II to the Companies Act 2013 i.e. 60 years for office premises. Investment properties include:

- (i) Land
- (ii) Office premises.

3.11 Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of an asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale are capitalised as part of the cost of the asset. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they occur. Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds. Borrowing cost also includes exchange differences to the extent regarded as an adjustment to the borrowing costs.

3.12 Contingent liabilities

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the company or a present obligation that is not recognised because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation. A contingent liability also arises in extremely rare cases where there is a liability that cannot be recognised because it cannot be measured reliably. The contingent liability is not recognised in books of account but its existence is disclosed in financial statements.

3.13 Contingent Assets

A contingent asset is a possible asset that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by future events not wholly within the control of the entity.

Contingent assets require disclosure only. If the realisation of income is virtually certain, the related asset is not a contingent asset and recognition is required.

3.14 Impairment of non-financial assets

The Company assesses, at each reporting date, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Company estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's (CGU) fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. Recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or Company's assets. When the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount.

Annexure - V Significant accounting policies and explanatory notes to Restated Consolidated Statements

3.15 Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. When the Company expects some or all of a provision to be reimbursed the reimbursement is recognised as a separate asset, but only when the reimbursement is virtually certain. The expense relating to a provision is presented in the statement of profit and loss net of any reimbursement.

If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, when appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as a finance cost.

3.16 Financial instruments

Initial recognition

The company recognise the financial asset and financial liabilities when it becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments. All the financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised at fair value on initial recognition, except for trade receivable which are initially recognised at transaction price. Transaction cost that are directly attributable to the acquisition of financial asset and financial liabilities, that are not at fair value through profit and loss, are added to the fair value on the initial recognition.

Subsequent measurement

(A) Non derivative financial instruments

(i) Financial Assets at amortised cost

A financial assets is measured at the amortised cost if both the following conditions are met :

- a) The asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets for collecting contractual cash flows, and
- b) Contractual terms of the asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI) on the principal amount outstanding.

This category is the most relevant to the Company. All the Loans and other receivables under financial assets (except Investments) are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. Trade receivables do not carry any interest and are stated at their nominal value as reduced by impairment amount.

(ii) Financial Assets at Fair Value through Profit or Loss/Other comprehensive income

Instruments included within the FVTPL category are measured at fair value with all changes recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

If the company decides to classify an instrument as at FVTOCI, then all fair value changes on the instrument, excluding dividends, are recognised in the OCI. There is no recycling of the amounts from OCI to P&L, even on sale of investment. However, the company may transfer the cumulative gain or loss within equity.

Annexure - V Significant accounting policies and explanatory notes to Restated Consolidated Statements

(iii) Financial liabilities

The measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification, as described below:

(a) Loans and borrowings

After initial recognition, interest-bearing loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method. However, the Company has borrowings at floating rates. Considering the impact of restatement of Effective interest rate, transaction cost is being amortised over the tenure of loan and borrowing.

(b) Trade & other payables

After initial recognition, trade and other payables maturing within one year from the Balance sheet date, the carrying amounts approximate fair value due to the short maturity of these instruments.

(B) Derivative financial instruments

The company holds derivatives financial instruments such as foreign exchange forward and option contracts to mitigate the risk of changes in exchange rates on foreign currency exposures. Company has taken all the forward contract from the bank.

The company have derivative financial assets/financial liabilities which are not designated as hedges;

Derivatives not designated are initially recognised at the fair value and attributable transaction cost are recognised in statement of profit and loss, when incurred. Subsequent to initial recognition, these derivatives are measured at fair value through profit and loss. Asset/Liabilities in this category are presented as current asset/current liabilities.

Derecognition

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

3.17 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and short-term deposits, as defined above, as they are considered an integral part of the Company's cash management.

Annexure - V Significant accounting policies and explanatory notes to Restated Consolidated Statements

3.18 Employee Benefits

i) Defined contribution plans (Provident Fund)

In accordance with Indian Law, eligible employees receive benefits from Provident Fund, which is defined contribution plan. Both the employee and employer make monthly contributions to the plan, which is administrated by the Government authorities, each equal to the specific percentage of employee's basic salary. The Company has no further obligation under the plan beyond its monthly contributions. Obligation for contributions to the plan is recognised as an employee benefit expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss when incurred.

ii) Defined benefit plans (Gratuity)

In accordance with applicable Indian Law, the Company provides for gratuity, a defined benefit retirement plan (the Gratuity Plan) covering eligible employees. The Gratuity Plan provides a lumpsum payment to vested employees, at retirement or termination of employment, and amount based on respective last drawn salary and the years of employment with the Company. The Company's net obligation in respect of the Gratuity Plan is calculated by estimating the amount of future benefits that the employees have earned in return of their service in the current and prior periods; that benefit is discounted to determine its present value. Any unrecognised past service cost and the fair value of plan assets are deducted. The discount rate is yield at reporting date on risk free government bonds that have maturity dates approximating the terms of the Company's obligation. The calculation is performed annually by a qualified actuary using the projected unit credit method. When the calculation results in a benefit to the Company, the recognised asset is limited to the total of any unrecognised past service cost and the present value of the economic benefits available in the form of any future refunds from the plan or reduction in future contribution to the plan.

The Company recognises all Remeasurement of net defined benefit liability/asset directly in other comprehensive income and presented within equity.

iii) Short term benefits

Short term employee benefit obligations are measured on an undiscounted basis and are expensed as a related service provided. A liability is recognised for the amount expected to be paid under short term cash bonus or profit sharing plans if the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation to pay this amount as a result of past service provided by the employee and the obligation can be estimated reliably.

3.19 Lease

Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The company has elected not to recognise right-of-use assets and lease liabilities for short-term leases of real estate properties that have a lease term of 12 months. The company recognises the lease payments associated with these leases as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

3.20 Earnings per share

Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises three types of risk: interest rate risk, currency risk and other price risk, such as equity price risk and commodity risk. Financial instruments affected by market risk include loans and borrowings, deposits and derivative financial instruments.

Credit risk on financial assets

Financial assets that are potentially subject to concentrations of credit risk and failures by counterparties to discharge their obligations in full or in a timely manner consist principally of cash balances with banks, cash equivalents and receivables, and other financial assets. The maximum exposure to credit risk is: the total of the fair value of the financial instruments and the full amount of any loan payable commitment at the end of the reporting year. Unless otherwise indicated, industry and market data used in this section has been derived from the report "Global and India Pharmaceuticals, API, Intermediates and Speciality Chemicals Market" dated May 27, 2021 (the "F&S Report") prepared and released by Frost & Sullivan and commissioned and paid for by us in connection to the Offer. Unless otherwise indicated, all financial, operational, industry and other related information derived from the F&S Report and included herein with respect to any particular year refers to such information for the relevant calendar year.

OVERVIEW

We are a research and development ("R&D") driven manufacturer of specialty chemicals with varied end usage, focussed towards the development and manufacturing of advanced pharmaceutical intermediates ("Pharma Intermediates") for regulated and generic active pharmaceutical ingredients ("APIs") and New Chemical Entities ("NCE") and key starting material for agrochemical and fine chemicals, especially from our recent acquisition of the business of Gujarat Organics Limited ("GOL") ("Acquisition"). As per the F&S Report, we are one of the major manufacturers of Pharma Intermediates for certain key APIs, including Dolutegravir, Trazodone, Entacapone, Nintedanib and Rivaroxaban. The Pharma Intermediates which we manufacture, find application in certain high-growth therapeutic areas including anti-retroviral, anti-inflammatory, anti-psychotic, anti-cancer, anti-Parkinson, anti-depressant and anti-coagulant, commanding significant market share both in India and globally.

We have developed and commercialised over 450 Pharma Intermediates for APIs across 17 key therapeutic areas since inception and NCE, with a strong focus on R&D across select high-growth high margin therapeutic areas such as anti-retroviral, anti-inflammatory, anti-psychotic, anti-cancer, anti-Parkinson, anti-depressant and anti-coagulant, for use across the global pharmaceutical market. Our Pharma Intermediates used for manufacturing of APIs and NCEs portfolio has expanded from over 425 products as of March 31, 2019, to over 450 products as of March 31, 2021. We believe that our focus on R&D and continuous process improvement has positioned us as a preferred supplier to our customers. Our revenue from operations from our Pharma Intermediates business was 3,011.41 million, ₹2,178.83 million and ₹2,033.91 million respectively, for Fiscals 2021, 2020 and 2019, accounting for 88.41%, 90.92% and 85.28% of our total revenue from operations respectively, for the same periods. The sales turnover for Fiscal 2021 (which is based on verification of form GSTR-1) of the 2 plants acquired as part of the recent Acquisition, was ₹ 1,060.37 million.

In addition, we recently completed the acquisition of two additional manufacturing facilities operated by GOL which has added preservatives (parabens and parabens formulations which have end usage in cosmetics, animal food and personal care industries) and other specialty chemicals (with end usage in inter alia the cosmetics, dyes polymers and agrochemicals industries) in our existing product portfolio, which command significant market share globally in the supply of certain paraben derivatives, as per the F&S Report). The Acquisition is in line with our inorganic growth strategy of foraying further into the specialty chemicals sector and we believe that it will enable us to significantly diversify our existing product portfolio, with an objective of attaining inorganic expansion of our business.

As on the date of this Prospectus, we have eight process patent applications (in respect of intermediates used in the manufacture of Apixaban, Rivaroxaban, Nintedanib, Vortioxetine, Selexipag, Pimavanserin, Efinaconazole and Eliglustat) which have been published in the Official Journal of the Patent Office in India and three additional pending process patent applications for which applications were made recently, in March 2021. For further details, see “Government and Other Approvals” on page 309.

The management systems of our Sachin Facility has been certified by the Bureau Veritas Certification Holding SAS – UK Branch to be compliant with ISO 9001:2015, ISO 14001:2015, ISO 45001:2018 and SA 8000:2014 for designing, manufacturing and dispatching of pharmaceutical intermediates for bulk drugs. Similarly, our Jhagadia and Ankleshwar Facilities, which have been acquired by our Company in the Fiscal 2021 are compliant with ISO 9001:2015 and ISO 14001:2015 standards.

We continually invest in R&D activities to stay ahead and create a differentiating factor and sustainability vis-à-vis our competitors. In addition to the Manufacturing Facilities, we have a dedicated in-house R&D facility located in GIDC, Sachin (“R&D Facility”) spread over an aggregate built-up area of 2,200 sq. mtrs and is also supported by our analytical development laboratory (“ADL”) in relation to developmental activities, freezing specifications

For the Fiscals 2021, 2020 and 2019, our restated profit after tax for the year was ₹ 539.99 million, ₹ 274.70 million and ₹ 232.95 million, respectively. Our restated profit after tax, grew at a CAGR of 52.25% between the Fiscals 2019 and 2021.

KEY FACTORS AFFECTING OUR RESULTS OF OPERATIONS AND FINANCIAL CONDITIONS

The results of our operations and our financial conditions are affected by numerous factors and uncertainties, many of which may be beyond our control, including as discussed in “Risk Factors”, beginning on page 23. The following is a discussion of certain factors that we believe have had and will continue to have or expected to have a significant effect on our financial conditions and results of operations:

R&D and innovation efforts and growth of our new products

Our business depends to a significant degree on the outcome our R&D and innovation efforts as well as the growth of our new products. We need to continually invest in R&D activities to stay ahead and create a differentiating factor and sustainability vis-à-vis our competitors. We have a dedicated R&D Center that is recognized by the Department of Scientific and Industrial Research (“DSIR”), Government of India, at GIDC, Sachin in Surat.

We are focused on undertaking dedicated R&D in our existing product lines and in areas where we believe there is significant growth potential. Our Company has strong market research-based model wherein it focuses on development of advanced pharmaceutical intermediates either for molecules which are under clinical trials; or for molecules which have been launched. Based on our existing business strategy of early identification of molecules for development and supply, we have developed and commercialised over 460 Pharma Intermediates for APIs including Dolutegravir, Trazodone, Entacapone, Aripiprazole and Lurasidone and NCEs across 17 high growth therapeutic areas such as anti-retroviral, anti-inflammatory, anti-psychotic, anti-cancer, anti-Parkinson, anti-depressant and anti-coagulant. Our Pharma Intermediates used for manufacturing of APIs and NCEs portfolio has expanded from over 425 products as of March 31, 2019, to over 460 products as of March 31, 2021, which enables us to cater to a wide range of customers in domestic and international markets.

In line with our focus on R&D activities, we have also made an investment in our Joint Venture, Ami Oncotheronostic LLC, a Delaware, USA in 2015 (“AOL”), which is engaged in the business of commercialisation, production, marketing and selling of certain licenced products which, inter alia, include patents and know-how of certain products and compounds in various geographic locations except China (including Macau, Hong Kong and Taiwan) and south east Asian countries..

To develop our product pipeline, we commit substantial time, funds and other resources in R&D. In terms of our R&D spent, we have incurred an expenditure of ₹ 64.99 million, ₹ 85.94 million and ₹ 23.63 million towards R&D activities during the Fiscals 2021, 2020 and 2019 representing 1.91%, 3.59%, and 0.99% of our revenue from operations in such periods, respectively. We have a team of 66 R&D professionals at our R&D Centre, of which seven hold Ph.Ds. and 39 hold a master’s degree.

In addition, we must adapt to rapid changes in our industry due to technological advances and scientific discoveries. We strive to keep our technology, facilities and machinery current with the latest international standards. The cost of implementing new technologies, upgrading our manufacturing facilities and retaining our research staff is significant and affects our results of operations and cash flows.

Expansion of our existing product categories

Our ability to develop and manufacture products is critical to launch new products and grow revenues. Our results of operations also depend on our ability to manufacture existing and new products for sale in India and abroad. Our manufacturing process is designed to facilitate production flexibility and deliver high and consistent product quality. We consider that diversification of our product portfolio across our multiple manufacturing units (including the units recently acquired by our Company) mitigates our exposure to regulatory risk with respect to any particular manufacturing unit and provides increased certainty of supply.

Specifically, owing to the Acquisition of GOL, we have acquired the preservatives (parabens and parabens formulations which have end usage in cosmetics, animal food and personal care industries) and specialty chemicals business of GOL (with end usage in inter alia the cosmetics, dyes and agrochemicals industries), by which our product portfolio has expanded significantly. Further in the certain Parabens derivative our acquired products commands significant market shares globally (Source: F&S Report). We believe that this acquisition will also enable us to significantly diversify our existing product portfolio.

We expect our revenue to continue to grow due to both continued commercial success of our existing products and the launch of new products. The timing of new product launches and their commercial success will impact our results of operations. Our future growth is dependent on our ability to expand our product segments. The process of expanding our business requires long-term investments and commitment of significant resources before knowing whether these investments will eventually result in businesses that achieve customer acceptance (which, in turn, is dependent on whether the relevant products of our customers achieve market acceptance) and generate the revenues required to provide desired returns. We may face difficulties in developing and growing the demand for our new products, which may affect our result of operations. Please see “Risk Factors - Our operations are dependent on continuous R&D to develop and commercialise products, our inability to identify and understand evolving industry trends, technological advancements, customer preferences and develop new products to meet our customers’ demands may adversely affect our business.” on page 28.

Our Relationship with Customers

We supply our products to more than 150 customers (including international customers) directly in India and in 25 countries overseas, using a distributorship network in certain cases. Some of our key customers include Organike s.r.l.a Socio Unico, Fermion Oy, Fabbbrica Italiana Sintetici S.p.A, Mylan Laboratories Limited, Cadila Healthcare Limited, Chori Co. Limited, Laurus Labs Limited, Medichem S.A., Midas Pharma GmbH, Wavelength Enterprises Limited, Cipla Limited and Natco Pharma Limited.

We have established long standing relationships with some of our key customers. 13 of our customers have been our customers since the past 10 years and 50 of our customers have been customers since the past five years. Further our top ten customers for Fiscal 2021 have been our customers for over 3 years and who have contributed to 60.99% of our total revenue from operations.

Our top five customers constituted 44.43%, 44.61% and 44.81% of our revenue from operations for the Fiscal 2021, 2020 and 2019, respectively. The demand from our customers, in particular our top five customers, determines our revenue levels and results of operations, and our sales are directly affected by the production and inventory levels of our customers. Our customers in turn are dependent on demand from corporate and government buyers, as well as general trends in the global pharmaceutical industry. Our sales to our key customers are conducted on the basis of purchase orders that they place with us from time to time. Most of our customers provide us with forecasts of order volumes that help us estimate our production volumes and our revenue for that particular product. However, it is difficult for us to predict with certainty when our customers will decide to increase or reduce inventory levels or levels of production, which strategic direction they will pursue, when they might launch new products or open new facilities, or whether future inventory levels will be consistent with historical levels.

Volume of Products Manufactured and Sold

Since our inception in 2004 we have developed and commercialised over 460 Pharma Intermediates and NCEs across 17 key therapeutic areas, with a strong focus on R&D across select high-growth high margin therapeutic areas such as anti-retroviral, anti-inflammatory, anti-psychotic, anti-cancer, anti-Parkinson, anti-depressant and anti-coagulant, for use across the global pharmaceutical market. Our revenue from operations, on a consolidated basis, our sales grew at a CAGR of 19.50% between the Fiscal 2019 and Fiscal 2021. In order to meet the growing demand for our products, we have also undertaken an expansion of our Sachin Facility.

As per the F&S Report, the Government of India’s proposition to support local manufacturing of many possible raw materials and intermediates especially in the pharmaceutical space will enhance the growth in domestic market and reduce imports, especially from China. With shift in investments from regulated markets like Europe to developing countries like India, domestic production is expected to increase, reducing dependency on imports encouraging the current trend of exports of intermediates to grow substantially. With many global end users looking for alternative to China, India stands as an immediate alternate due to its significant years of experience in handling global regulatory requirements, strong process know how, strength in R&D and low cost. India has good number of well-trained chemists and R&D scientists to support the ever-evolving pharmaceuticals industry. To take advantage of this shift and expand our speciality chemicals portfolio our Company has acquired two facilities i.e., the Ankleshwar Facility and the Jhagadia Facility from Gujarat Organics Limited which has resulted in increase in installed capacity by 1,200 MTPA and 2,400 MTPA, respectively. With addition of these facilities our total installed capacity has increased to 6,060 MTPA. Our aggregate capacity utilization of Sachin Facility was 63%, 46% and 36% in Fiscals 2021, 2020 and 2019 respectively.

Actual volumes and specifications of customer orders are fixed only if and when customers place purchase orders with us. Our actual production volumes may differ significantly from our estimates due to variations in product demand. When actual production volumes differ significantly from our estimates, we generally seek to make up any shortfalls through new orders, either with existing or with new customers. Further, since the number of purchase orders that our customers place with us may differ from quarter to quarter, our revenues, results of operations and cash flows have fluctuated in the past and we expect this trend to continue in the future.

Availability and Cost of Raw Materials

Our cost of raw materials consumed constitutes the largest component of our expenses structure. For Fiscals 2021, 2020 and 2019, our cost of raw materials consumed was ₹1,746.87 million, ₹1,378.99 million and ₹1,520.52 million, comprising 51.29%, 57.54% and 63.75% of our total revenue from operations, respectively. The key raw materials that we use for our manufacturing operations include including Chloroacetaldehyde Dimethylacetal, Semicarbazide HCl, Meta Chloro Aniline, 1-Bromo 3-Chloro Propane and Bis-(2-Chloethyl) Amine HCl etc. We identify and approve multiple vendors to source our key raw materials and we place purchase orders with them from time to time. We currently source our key raw materials domestically and from vendors in China, Japan and Europe. Our domestic purchase was 73.22%, 62.62% and 65.65% of our total raw material purchase during Fiscal 2021, 2020 and 2019, respectively and 19.39%, 21.85% and 22.11%, of our total raw material purchases during Fiscals 2021, 2020 and 2019 were imported from China, respectively.

As we continue to grow our product portfolio and increase our production capacities, we would need to procure additional volumes of raw materials. We typically do not enter into long term supply contracts with any of our vendors and instead place purchase orders with them from time to time. We are thus exposed to fluctuations in availability and prices of our raw materials and we may not be able to effectively pass on any increase in cost of raw materials to our customers, which may affect our margins, sales, results of operations and cash flows. Any inability on our part to procure sufficient quantities of raw materials and on commercially acceptable terms, could lead to a change in our manufacturing and sales volumes.

Nature of Operations

Due to the various hazards associated with the production of chemicals, such as the use, handling, processing, storage and transportation of hazardous materials, as well as accidents such as leakage or spillages of chemicals, we have incurred significant capital expenditure in installing machinery and equipment to control the discharge of effluents including: (i) a Zero Liquid Discharge based effluent plant spread at Sachin Facility; (ii) a state of art effluent treatment plant equipped with zero liquid discharge solutions including multiple effect evaporator, reverse osmosis for purification of waste and bioreactors for treatment of effluents and removal of organic load at Jhagadia Facility; (iii) a soil biological treatment system (“SBT System”) based on bioconversion process adopted by our Company; and (iv) an RO plant with a pre-treatment section consisting of pressure sand filter, activated carbon filter and micron filters followed by chemical dosing system such as Antiscalent, SMBS and HCL. Material future expenditures may be necessary if compliance standards change, if material unknown conditions that require remediation are discovered or if required remediation of known conditions becomes more extensive than expected. If we fail to comply with present and future environmental laws and regulations, we could be subject to future liabilities or the suspension of production, which could harm our business or results of operations.

Competition

Our industry is highly competitive market with several major players present, and therefore it is challenging to improve market share and profitability. Many of our competitors may have greater financial, manufacturing, R&D, marketing and other resources, more experience in obtaining regulatory approvals, greater geographic reach, broader product ranges or a stronger sales force. Our competitors may succeed in developing products that are more effective, popular or cheaper than ours, which may render our products uncompetitive and adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

Further, the industry in which we operate presents significant entry barriers, including customer validation and approvals, expectation from customers for process innovation and cost reduction, high quality standards and stringent specifications. From the product testing stage, to the batch procurement phase, to the eventual customer approval stage – acquiring a new end customer typically takes a significant amount of time and effort, depending on product complexity. Further, customers in general avoid sharing product related information with numerous manufacturers in order to restrict the spread of confidential information and as a result, customers typically select manufacturers after carefully reviewing them and tend to develop long-term relationships with them as well as limit the number of such manufacturers.

The continued operations and growth of our business is dependent upon our ability to attract and retain personnel, including our scientists, who have the necessary and required experience and expertise. Competition for qualified personnel with relevant industry expertise in India is intense. A loss of the services of our key personnel may adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

Our ability to compete successfully will depend, in significant part, on our ability to differentiate and effectively supply our products, reduce costs by improving productivity, eliminating redundancies, adapting to new technologies and ability to attract and retain personnel with appropriate technical abilities.

Impact of COVID-19 pandemic

On account of the COVID-19 pandemic, India had imposed a nationwide lockdown on March 24, 2020. While progressive relaxations have since been granted for movement of goods and people and cautious re-opening of businesses and offices, lockdowns may be re-introduced in the future. Certain countries have reinstated lockdown conditions due to a “second wave” of the COVID-19 outbreak and the discovery of new strains of the coronavirus, and the Central Government and State Governments may reinstate complete lockdown conditions or impose additional restrictions. The pandemic outbreak has caused an economic downturn on a global scale, including closures of many businesses and reduced consumer spending, as well as significant market disruption and volatility. The steps taken to counter the effects of the pandemic had resulted in a period of economic downturn and business disruption in India and globally. The demand for our products is dependent on and directly affected by factors affecting industries where our products are applied. For details of our customers, refer to “Our Business – Our Customers” on page 167. Companies have faced disruptions in manufacturing and their supply chains. The disruptions in supply chain and logistics led to decreased inventory levels which in turn affected the supply of products to end consumers. In view of the fluidity of the situation and lack of visibility on the timeline for containment of the global pandemic, the recovery trajectory remains uncertain.

The full extent to which the COVID-19 pandemic, or any future pandemic or widespread public health emergency impacts our business, operations and financial results will depend on numerous evolving factors that we may not be able to accurately predict, including: the scope, severity, and duration of the pandemic; actions taken by governments, business and individuals in response to the pandemic; the effect on customer demand for and ability to pay for our products; the impact on our capital expenditure and drug development projects; disruptions or restrictions on our employees’ and suppliers’ ability to work and travel; volatility in foreign exchange rates; any extended period of remote work arrangements; and strain on our or our customers’ business continuity plans, and resultant operational risk. The COVID-19 pandemic, or any future pandemic or widespread public health emergency could therefore materially and adversely impact our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparation of financial statements

Investments in associates and joint ventures

An associate is an entity over which the Group has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee but is not control or joint control over those policies. A joint venture is a joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the joint arrangement. Joint control is the contractually agreed sharing of control of an arrangement, which exists only when decisions about the relevant activities require unanimous consent of the parties sharing control.

The results and assets and liabilities of associates or joint ventures are incorporated in these consolidated financial statements using the Proportionate consolidation. Proportionate consolidation is a method of accounting whereby a venturer’s share of each of the assets, liabilities, income and expenses of a jointly controlled entity is combined line by line with similar items in the venturer's financial statements or reported as separate line items in the venturer's financial statements.

The Group discontinues the use of the proportionate consolidation method from the date when the investment ceases to be an associate or a joint venture, or when the investment is classified as held for sale. When the investment becomes a subsidiary, the Group accounts for its investment in accordance with Ind AS 103 'Business Combination'. When the Group retains an interest in the former associate or joint venture and the retained interest is a financial asset, the Group measures it at fair value at that date and the fair value is regarded as its fair value on initial recognition in accordance with Ind AS 109. The difference between the carrying amount of the associate or joint venture at the date the equity method was discontinued, and the fair value of any retained interest and any proceeds from disposing of a part interest is included in the determination of the gain or loss on disposal of the associate or joint venture.

The separate financial statements of the company are prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS), under the historical cost convention on the accrual basis as per the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act"), except for:

- Financial instruments – measured at fair value;
- Assets held for sale – measured at fair value less cost of sale;
- Plan assets under defined benefit plans – measured at fair value;
- Employee share-based payments – measured at fair value;
- Biological assets – measured at fair value;

 - It is held primarily for the purpose of being traded
 - It is due to be settled within 12 months after the reporting date; or the Company does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the reporting date.

Terms of a liability that could, at the option of the counterparty, result in its settlement by the issue of equity instruments do not affect its classification.

All other liabilities are classified as non-current. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current only. The Ind AS are prescribed under Section 133 of the Act read with Rule 3 of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 and relevant amendment rules issued thereafter. Accounting policies have been consistently applied except where a newly issued accounting standard is initially adopted or a revision to an existing accounting standard requires a change in the accounting policy hitherto in use. The Consolidated Financial Statements have been presented in Indian Rupees, which is the Company's functional currency.

Use of estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with Ind AS requires the Management to make estimates, judgments and assumptions. These estimates, judgments and assumptions affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

This note provides an overview of the areas where there is a higher degree of judgment or complexity. Detailed information about each of these estimates and judgments is included in relevant notes together with information about the basis of calculation.

The areas involving critical estimates or judgments are:

- Valuation of financial instruments
- Useful life of property, plant and equipment
- Defined benefit obligation
- Provisions
- Recoverability of trade receivables

- Recognition of revenue and allocation of transaction price
- Current tax expense and current tax payable

Estimates and judgments are regularly revisited. Estimates are based on historical experience and other factors, including futuristic reasonable information that may have a financial impact on the company.

Summary of significant accounting policies

A summary of the significant accounting policies applied in the preparation of the financial statements is as given below. These accounting policies have been applied consistently to all the periods presented in the financial statements.

Fair value measurement

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorised within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

Level 1 - Quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 - Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable.

Level 3 - Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable.

For assets and liabilities that are recognised in the financial statements on a recurring basis, the Company determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by re-assessing categorisation (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period.

The Company's Management determines the policies and procedures for both recurring fair value measurement, such as derivative instruments and unquoted financial assets measured at fair value, and for non-recurring measurement, such as assets held for distribution in discontinued operations.

At each reporting date, the Management analyses the movements in the values of assets and liabilities which are required to be remeasured or re-assessed as per the Company's accounting policies. For this analysis, the Management verifies the major inputs applied in the latest valuation by agreeing the information in the valuation computation to contracts and other relevant documents.

The Management also compares the change in the fair value of each asset and liability with relevant external sources to determine whether the change is reasonable.

For the purpose of fair value disclosures, the Company has determined classes of assets and liabilities on the basis of the nature, characteristics and risks of the asset or liability and the level of the fair value hierarchy as explained above.

Revenue recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable. The Company recognises revenues on sale of products, net of discounts, sales incentives, rebates granted, returns, sales taxes/GST and duties when the products are delivered to customer or when delivered to a carrier for export sale, which is when title and risk and rewards of ownership pass to the customer. Export incentives are recognised as income as per the terms of the scheme in respect of the exports made and included as part of export turnover.

Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue can be reliably measured, regardless of when the payment is being made. Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, taking into account contractually defined terms of payment and excluding taxes or duties collected on behalf of the government.

Interest and dividend income

Dividend income from investments is recognised when the shareholder's right to receive payment has been established (provided that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the amount of income can be measured reliably). Interest income from a financial asset is recognised when it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the amount of income can be measured reliably. Interest income is accrued on a time basis, by reference to the principal outstanding and at the effective interest rate applicable, which is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to that asset's net carrying amount on initial recognition.

Inventories:

- (i) Raw materials - is valued at the lower of cost or net realisable value. The cost is determined on FIFO /specific identification basis.
- (ii) Finished goods - valued at the lower of cost or net realisable value. The cost of material is determined on FIFO/specific identification basis.
- (iii) Work-in-progress is valued at material cost including appropriate production overhead.
- (iv) Stores and spares are valued at the lower of cost or net realisable value. Cost is determined on FIFO basis.

Foreign currency transactions and translation

- (i) Transactions in foreign currencies are recorded at the exchange rate prevailing on the date of transaction. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated in functional currency at closing rates of exchange at the reporting date.
- (ii) Exchange differences arising on settlement or translation of monetary items recognised in statement of profit and loss.
- (iii) As the Company enters into business transactions based on the prevailing exchange rate, forward premium and other related factors, the gain/(loss) on this account is considered to be an integral part of the operations of the Company in accordance with industry practice and to avoid distortion of operating performance.

Taxes

Current income tax

Current income tax assets and liabilities are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities. The Company determines the tax as per the provisions of Income Tax Act 1961 and other rules specified thereunder.

Current income tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity). Current tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in the tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations are subject to interpretation and establishes provisions where appropriate.

Deferred tax

Deferred tax is provided in full using the liability method on temporary differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes at the reporting date.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences, except:

- When the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss.

- Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, the carry forward of unused tax credits and any unused tax losses. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised, except when the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are re-assessed at each reporting date and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profits will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

Deferred tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity). Deferred tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset if a legally enforceable right exists to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and the deferred taxes relate to the same taxable entity and the same taxation authority.

Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT)

Deferred tax assets include Minimum Alternative Tax (MAT) paid in accordance with the tax laws in India, which is likely to give future economic benefits in the form of availability of set off against future income tax liability. Accordingly, MAT is recognised as deferred tax asset in the balance sheet when the asset can be measured reliably, and it is probable that the future economic benefit associated with asset will be realised.

Current and deferred tax expense is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss, except when they relate to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax are also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity respectively. Where current tax or deferred tax arises from the initial accounting for a business combination, the tax effect is included in the accounting for the business combination.

Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment is stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and where applicable accumulated impairment losses. Property, plant and equipment and capital work in progress cost include expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the asset. The cost of self-constructed assets includes the cost of materials, direct labour and any other costs directly attributable to bringing the asset to a working condition for its intended use, and the costs of dismantling and removing the items and restoring the site on which they are located. Purchased software that is integral to the functionality of the related equipment is capitalized as part of that equipment.

When parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, they are accounted for as separate items (major components) of property, plant and equipment.

Subsequent Cost

The cost of replacing part of an item of property, plant and equipment is recognised in the carrying amount of the item if it is probable that the future economic benefits embodied within the part will flow to the Company and its cost can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is de-recognised and charged to the statement of Profit and Loss. The costs of the day-to-day servicing of property, plant and equipment are recognised in the statement of Profit and Loss.

Intangible assets

Intangible assets are stated at cost less accumulated amortisation and impairment loss. The system software which is expected to provide future enduring benefits is capitalised. The capitalised cost includes license fees and cost of implementation/system integration.

Depreciation and amortisation

The depreciation on tangible assets is calculated on SLM method over the estimated useful life of assets prescribed by the Schedule II to the Companies Act 2013 as follows:

Asset class	Useful life as per management
Plant and machinery	15 years
Office equipment	5 years
Computers/Servers	3/6 years
Vehicles	8 years
Furniture and fixtures	10 years
Electrical installation	10 years
Office premises	60 years
Residential premises	60 years
Factory Building	30 years

The residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation of property, plant and equipment are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

Derecognition of assets

An item of property plant & equipment and any significant part initially recognised is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of the asset is included in the income statement when the asset is derecognised.

Investment property

Property that is held for long term rental yield or for capital appreciation or both, and that is not occupied by the Company, is classified as Investment property. Investment properties measured initially at cost including related transitions cost and where applicable borrowing cost. Subsequent expenditure is capitalised to the assets carrying amount only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the expenditure will flow to the entity and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. All other repairs and maintenance costs are expensed when incurred. When part of an investment property is incurred the carrying amount of replaced part is derecognised.

Investment properties other than land are depreciated using SLM method over the estimated useful life of assets prescribed by the Schedule II to the Companies Act 2013 i.e., 60 years for office premises. Investment properties include:

- i) Land.
- ii) Office premises.

Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of an asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale are capitalised as part of the cost of the asset. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they occur. Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds. Borrowing cost also includes exchange differences to the extent regarded as an adjustment to the borrowing costs.

Contingent liabilities

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the company or a present obligation that is not recognised because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation. A contingent liability also arises in extremely rare cases where there is a liability that cannot be recognised because it cannot be measured reliably. The contingent liability is not recognised in books of account but its existence is disclosed in financial statements.

Contingent Assets

A contingent asset is a possible asset that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by future events not wholly within the control of the entity. Contingent assets require disclosure only. If the realisation of income is virtually certain, the related asset is not a contingent asset and recognition is required.

Impairment of non-financial assets

The Company assesses at each reporting date, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Company estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's (CGU) fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. Recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or Company's assets. When the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount.

Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. When the Company expects some or all of a provision to be reimbursed the reimbursement is recognised as a separate asset, but only when the reimbursement is virtually certain. The expense relating to a provision is presented in the statement of profit and loss net of any reimbursement.

If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, when appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as a finance cost.

Initial recognition

The company recognises the financial asset and financial liabilities when it becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments. All the financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised at fair value on initial recognition, except for trade receivables which are initially recognised at transaction price. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of financial asset and financial liabilities, that are not at fair value through profit and loss, are added to the fair value on the initial recognition.

Subsequent measurement

(A) Non derivative financial instruments

(i) Financial Assets at amortised cost

A financial asset is measured at the amortised cost if both the following conditions are met :

- (a) The asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets for collecting contractual cash flows, and

- (b) Contractual terms of the asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI) on the principal amount outstanding.

This category is the most relevant to the Company. All the Loans and other receivables under financial assets (except Investments) are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. Trade receivables do not carry any interest and are stated at their nominal value as reduced by impairment amount.

(ii) Financial Assets at Fair Value through Profit or Loss/Other comprehensive income

Instruments included within the FVTPL category are measured at fair value with all changes recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

If the company decides to classify an instrument as at FVTOCI, then all fair value changes on the instrument, excluding dividends, are recognised in the OCI. There is no recycling of the amounts from OCI to P&L, even on sale of investment. However, the company may transfer the cumulative gain or loss within equity.

(iii) Financial liabilities

The measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification, as described below:

(a) Loans and borrowings

After initial recognition, interest-bearing loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method. However, the Company has borrowings at floating rates. Considering the impact of restatement of Effective interest rate, transaction cost is being amortised over the tenure of loan and borrowing.

(b) Trade & other payables

After initial recognition, trade and other payables maturing within one year from the Balance sheet date, the carrying amounts approximate fair value due to the short maturity of these instruments.

(B) Derivative financial instruments

The company holds derivatives financial instruments such as foreign exchange forward and option contracts to mitigate the risk of changes in exchange rates on foreign currency exposures. Company has taken all the forward contract from the bank.

The company have derivative financial assets/financial liabilities which are not designated as hedges

Derivatives not designated are initially recognised at the fair value and attributable transaction cost are recognised in statement of profit and loss, when incurred. Subsequent to initial recognition, these derivatives are measured at fair value through profit and loss. Asset/Liabilities in this category are presented as current asset/current liabilities.

Derecognition

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and short-term deposits, as defined above, as they are considered an integral part of the Company's cash management.

Employee Benefits

(i) Defined contribution plans (Provident Fund)

In accordance with Indian Law, eligible employees receive benefits from Provident Fund, which is defined contribution plan. Both the employee and employer make monthly contributions to the plan, which is administrated by the Government authorities, each equal to the specific percentage of employee's basic salary. The Company has no further obligation under the plan beyond its monthly contributions. Obligation for contributions to the plan is recognised as an employee benefit expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss when incurred.

(ii) Defined benefit plans (Gratuity)

In accordance with applicable Indian Law, the Company provides for gratuity, a defined benefit retirement plan (the Gratuity Plan) covering eligible employees. The Gratuity Plan provides a lumpsum payment to vested employees, at retirement or termination of employment, and amount based on respective last drawn salary and the years of employment with the Company. The Company's net obligation in respect of the Gratuity Plan is calculated by estimating the amount of future benefits that the employees have earned in return of their service in the current and prior periods; that benefit is discounted to determine its present value. Any unrecognised past service cost and the fair value of plan assets are deducted. The discount rate is yield at reporting date on risk free government bonds that have maturity dates approximating the terms of the Company's obligation. The calculation is performed annually by a qualified actuary using the projected unit credit method. When the calculation results in a benefit to the Company, the recognised asset is limited to the total of any unrecognised past service cost and the present value of the economic benefits available in the form of any future refunds from the plan or reduction in future contribution to the plan.

The Company recognises all Remeasurement of net defined benefit liability/asset directly in other comprehensive income and presented within equity.

(iii) Short term benefits

Short term employee benefit obligations are measured on an undiscounted basis and are expensed as a related service provided. A liability is recognised for the amount expected to be paid under short term cash bonus or profit sharing plans if the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation to pay this amount as a result of past service provided by the employee and the obligation can be estimated reliably.

Lease

Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The company has elected not to recognise right-of-use assets and lease liabilities for short-term leases of real estate properties that have a lease term of 12 months. The company recognises the lease payments associated with these leases as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Earnings per share

Basic and diluted earnings per share are computed by dividing the net profit attributable to equity shareholders for the year, by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Comparison of Fiscal 2021 to Fiscal 2020

Revenue

Our total revenue in Fiscal 2021 was ₹3,419.88 million, which represented an increase of 41.03% over our total revenue in Fiscal 2020 of ₹2,424.86 million primarily due to an increase in revenue from operations.

Revenue from Operations

Our revenue from operations in Fiscal 2021 was ₹3,406.08 million, which represented an increase of 42.13% over our revenue from operations in Fiscal 2020 of ₹2,396.43 million. The increase was primarily due to increased sales of our products resulting from a robust growth of domestic and export demand. Pursuant to US FDA inspection of our Sachin Facility in Fiscal 2020, our Company recorded growth in sale of intermediates used in manufacture of API Trazadon (1-(3-Chloro Phenyl)4-(3-Chloro Propyl)Piperazine H and 1-(3-Chloro Phenyl) Piperazine), Darolutamide (Methyl-5-Acetal-1h-Pyrazole-3-Carboxylate), Rivaroxaban, Nintedanib, Vortioxetine, Apixaban and Dolutegravir and 2-Chloro-1,1,1-Triethoxy Ethane in speciality chemical space, which drove up our revenue from operations in Fiscal 2021.

Other income

Our other income in Fiscal 2021 was ₹13.80 million, which represented a decrease of 51.48% from our other income in Fiscal 2020 of ₹28.44 million. The decrease was primarily due to decrease in foreign exchange fluctuation gain and miscellaneous income which was partially offset by increase in interest income.

Expenses

Our total expenses in Fiscal 2021 were ₹2,702.61 million, which represented an increase of 30.10% over our total expenses in Fiscal 2020 of ₹2,077.32 million. This was primarily attributable to:

Cost of raw materials consumed

The cost of raw materials consumed were ₹1,746.87 million in Fiscal 2021, which represented an increase of 26.68% over our cost of raw materials consumed in Fiscal 2020 of ₹1,378.99 million. This increase is primarily due to increase in Revenue. As a percentage of our total income, the cost of raw materials consumed decrease to 51.08% in Fiscal 2021 from 56.87% in Fiscal 2020, this decrease is primarily due to higher inventories at end of Fiscal 2020 due to COVID-19 pandemic, which was partially offset by change in products mix.

Changes in inventories of finished goods / traded goods and work in progress

Changes in inventories of work-in-progress and finished goods changed from ₹ (89.86) million in Fiscal 2020 to ₹ 48.14 million in Fiscal 2021. This was primarily due to inventories held at the end of Fiscal 2020 on account of COVID-19 pandemic.

Employee benefit expense

Our employee benefit expense in Fiscal 2021 was ₹210.08 million, which represented an increase of 17.93% over our employee benefit expense in Fiscal 2020 of ₹178.14 million. The increase was due to new recruitments as well as increments in salary and wage increases. Further, as a percentage of our total income, the cost of employee benefit expenses reduced to 6.14% in Fiscal 2021 from 7.35% in Fiscal 2020.

Finance costs

Our finance costs in Fiscal 2021 was ₹56.18 million, which represented a marginal increase of 0.56% from our finance costs in Fiscal 2020 of ₹55.87 million.

Depreciation and amortisation expense

Our depreciation and amortisation expense in Fiscal 2021 was ₹41.88 million, which represented an increase of 19.04% over our depreciation and amortisation expense in Fiscal 2020 of ₹35.18 million. The increase was primarily due to increase in asset base and effect of depreciation on new R&D center and solvent recovery plant commissioned.

Other expenses

QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

We are exposed to various types of market risks during the normal course of business. Market risk is the risk of loss related to adverse changes in market prices, including interest rate risk and commodity risk. We are exposed to commodity risk, foreign exchange risk, interest rate risk, credit risk and inflation risk in the normal course of our business.

Commodity Risk

We are exposed to the price risk associated with purchasing our raw materials, which form the highest component of our expenses. We typically do not enter into formal arrangements and long-term contract with our suppliers. Therefore, fluctuations in the price and availability of raw materials may affect our business, cash flows and results of operations. We do not currently engage in any hedging activities against commodity price risk.

Foreign Currency Risk

We operate internationally and the major portion of our business is transacted in USD & EURO. Our sales, purchase, borrowing (etc.) is in foreign currency. Consequently, we are exposed to foreign exchange risk.

Although our exposure to exchange rate fluctuations is partly hedged through the exports of products and the import of the necessary raw materials and production equipment, we are still affected by fluctuations in exchange rates for certain currencies, particularly the U.S. Dollar and the Euro. For further information, see “Risk Factors – We face foreign exchange risks that could adversely affect our results of operations and cash flows” on page 38.

Interest Rate Risk

We are exposed to interest rate risk primarily as a result of term loans from banks. As at March 31, 2021, we had all of our loans that are subject to floating rates of interest, which exposes us to market risk as a result of changes in interest rates. Upward fluctuations in interest rates would increase the cost of new debt and interest cost of outstanding variable rate borrowings. In addition, any increase in interest rates could adversely affect our ability to service long-term debt, which would in turn adversely affect our results of operations.

Interest rates are highly sensitive to many factors beyond our control, including the monetary policies of the RBI, domestic and international economic and political conditions, inflation and other factors. Upward fluctuations in interest rates increase the cost of servicing existing and new debts, which adversely affects our results of operations and cash flows.

Inflation

India has experienced high inflation in the recent past, which has contributed to an increase in interest rates. High fluctuation in inflation rates may make it more difficult for us to accurately estimate or control our costs.

Credit Risk

We are exposed to credit risk on amounts owed to us by our clients. If our clients do not pay us promptly, or at all, it may impact our working capital cycle, and/or we may have to make provisions for or write-off on such amounts.

SIGNIFICANT ECONOMIC CHANGES

Our business has been subject, and we expect it to continue to be subject, to significant economic changes that materially affect or are likely to affect income from continuing operations identified above in “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Position and Results of Operations” under the heading titled “Key Factors Affecting Our Results of Operations and Financial Condition” on page 275, and uncertainties described in “Risk Factors” on page 23.

Phased implementation of UPI Mechanism

SEBI has issued the UPI Circulars in relation to streamlining the process of public issue of, inter alia, equity shares. Pursuant to the UPI Circulars, the UPI Mechanism has been introduced in a phased manner as a payment mechanism (in addition to mechanism of blocking funds in the account maintained with SCSBs under ASBA) for applications by RIBs through Designated Intermediaries with the objective to reduce the time duration from public issue closure to listing from six Working Days to up to three Working Days. Considering the time required for making necessary changes to the systems and to ensure complete and smooth transition to the UPI payment mechanism, the UPI Circulars have introduced the UPI Mechanism in three phases in the following manner:

Phase I: This phase was applicable from January 1, 2019 until March 31, 2019 or floating of five main board public issues, whichever was later. Subsequently, the timeline for implementation of Phase I was extended till June 30, 2019. Under this phase, an RIB had the option to submit the ASBA Form with any of the Designated Intermediary and use his/ her UPI ID for the purpose of blocking of funds. The time duration from public issue closure to listing continued to be six Working Days.

Phase II: This phase has become applicable from July 1, 2019. Under this phase, submission of the ASBA Form without UPI by RIBs to Designated Intermediaries (other than SCSBs) for blocking of funds will be discontinued. However, the time duration from public issue closure to listing would continue to be six Working Days during this phase. SEBI vide its circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DCR2/CIR/P/2019/133 dated November 8, 2019 extended the timeline for implementation of UPI Phase II till March 31, 2020. Further, pursuant to SEBI circular dated March 30, 2020, this phase has been extended till further notice.

Phase III: The commencement period of Phase III is yet to be notified. In this phase, the time duration from public issue closure to listing would be reduced to three Working Days.

All SCSBs offering facility of making application in public issues shall also provide facility to make application using UPI. Our Company will be required to appoint one of the SCSBs as a sponsor bank to act as a conduit between the Stock Exchanges and NPCI in order to facilitate collection of requests and / or payment instructions of the Retail Individual Bidders using the UPI.

Pursuant to the UPI Circulars, SEBI has set out specific requirements for redressal of investor grievances for applications that have been made through the UPI Mechanism. The requirements of the UPI Circular include, appointment of a nodal officer by the SCSB and submission of their details to SEBI, the requirement for SCSBs to send SMS alerts for the blocking and unblocking of UPI mandates, the requirement for the Registrar to submit details of cancelled, withdrawn or deleted applications, and the requirement for the bank accounts of unsuccessful Bidders to be unblocked no later than one Working Day from the date on which the Basis of Allotment is finalised. Failure to unblock the accounts within the timeline would result in the SCSBs being penalised under the relevant securities law.

Foreign investment in Indian securities is regulated through the Industrial Policy, 1991 of the Government of India (“Industrial Policy”) and FEMA. While the Industrial Policy prescribes the limits and the conditions subject to which foreign investment can be made in different sectors of the Indian economy, FEMA regulates the precise manner in which such investment may be made. Under the Industrial Policy, unless specifically restricted, foreign investment is freely permitted in all sectors of the Indian economy up to any extent and without any prior approvals, but the foreign investor is required to follow certain prescribed procedures for making such investment. The RBI and the concerned ministries/departments are responsible for granting approval for foreign investment under the FDI Policy and FEMA.

The Government has from time to time made policy pronouncements on foreign direct investment (“FDI”) through press notes and press releases. The Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India (earlier known as Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion) (“DPIIT”), issued the Consolidated FDI Policy Circular of 2020 (“FDI Policy”), which, with effect from October 15, 2020, subsumes and supersedes all press notes, press releases, clarifications, circulars issued by the DPIIT, which were in force as on October 15, 2020. The FDI Policy will be valid and remain in force until superseded in totality or in part thereof. FDI in companies engaged in sectors/ activities which are not listed in the FDI Policy is permitted up to 100% of the paid up share capital of such company under the automatic route, subject to compliance with certain prescribed conditions

The transfer of shares between an Indian resident and a non-resident does not require the prior approval of the RBI, provided that: (i) the activities of the investee company are under the automatic route under the foreign direct investment policy and transfer does not attract the provisions of the SEBI Takeover Regulations; (ii) the non-resident shareholding is within the sectoral limits under the FDI policy; and (iii) the pricing is in accordance with the guidelines prescribed by the SEBI/RBI.

In terms of Press Note 3 (2020 Series) dated April 17, 2020 issued by the DPIIT, all investments under the foreign direct investment route by entities of a country which shares land border with India or where the beneficial owner of an investment into India is situated in or is a citizen of any such country, will require prior approval of the Government of India as prescribed in the FDI Policy and the FEMA Rules. Further, in the event of transfer of ownership of any existing or future foreign direct investment in an entity in India, directly or indirectly, resulting in the beneficial ownership falling within the aforesaid restriction/ purview, such subsequent change in the beneficial ownership will also require approval of the Government of India. Furthermore, on April 22, 2020, the Ministry of Finance, Government of India has also made similar amendment to the FEMA Rules. Each Bidder should seek independent legal advice about its ability to participate in the Offer. In the event such prior approval of the Government of India is required, and such approval has been obtained, the Bidder shall intimate our Company and the Registrar in writing about such approval along with a copy thereof within the Offer Period.

As per the existing policy of the Government of India, OCBs cannot participate in this Offer.
